Sutton v. Jewell

Doc. 28

file an opposition, in and of itself, is an insufficient ground for dismissal. See Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Before dismissing a case, a district court is required to weigh several factors: (1) the public's interest in the expeditious resolution of litigation; (2) the court's need to manage its docket; (3) the risk of prejudice to the defendant; (4) the public policy favoring disposition of cases on their merits; and (5) the availability of less dramatic sanctions. Id.

Here, these factors weigh in favor of dismissal. The need for the expeditious resolution of cases on the court's docket is strong. Defendant Jewel has an interest in resolving this matter in a timely manner. Further, there is a lack of prejudice to plaintiff because she has shown an unwillingness to continue litigating this complaint for more than a year which weighs in favor of granting the motion. Thus, although public policy favors a resolution on the merits, the court finds that dismissal is warranted in light of these other considerations. Therefore, the court shall grant defendant's motion to dismiss and dismiss plaintiff's complaint in its entirety.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that defendant's motion to dismiss (Doc. #10) is GRANTED. Plaintiff's complaint (Doc. #1) is DISMISSED in its entirety.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 20th day of November, 2015.
