UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

BRIAN CRISMAN,
Petitioner,

vs.

WARDEN LeGRAND, et al.,
Respondents.

Case No. 3:14-cv-00636-HDM-WGC

ORDER

This action is a pro se petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 by a Nevada state prisoner.

Petitioner has filed a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. (ECF No. 3). Based on the information regarding petitioner's financial status, the Court finds that the motion to proceed in forma pauperis should be granted. The Clerk shall file the petition.

The Court will not order the petition served on respondents at this time, because it appears likely that the petition was filed outside the AEDPA one-year limitations period, and may be subject to dismissal on that basis. 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(1). The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act (AEDPA) imposes a one-year statute of limitations on the filing of federal habeas corpus petitions. Specifically, and in pertinent part, the statute reads:

(d)(1) A 1-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of—

1 (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the 2 conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for 3 seeking such review;

4 (B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application
5 created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws
6 of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented
7 from filing by such State action;

8 (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was 9 initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been 10 newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made 11 retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or

12 (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or 13 claims presented could have been discovered through the 14 exercise of due diligence.

15 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(1). The United States Supreme Court has held that the AEDPA’s statute of 16 limitations “is subject to equitable tolling in appropriate cases.” Holland v. Florida, 560 U.S. 631, 17 645 (2010). “A petitioner is entitled to equitable tolling only if he shows: ‘(1) that he has been 18 pursuing his rights diligently, and (2) that some extraordinary circumstance stood in his way’ and 19 prevented timely filing.” Holland, 560 U.S. at 649 (quoting Pace v. DiGuglielmo, 544 U.S. 408, 20 418 (2005)).

21 The AEDPA statute of limitations has serious implications for petitioner. Petitioner is 22 challenging a state court conviction from 1999. Petitioner signed his federal habeas petition and 23 dispatched it for mailing on December 1, 2014. It appears likely that the petition was filed well 24 outside the AEDPA one-year limitations period. Petitioner will be granted an opportunity to 25 demonstrate either that he submitted his federal habeas corpus petition in a timely manner, or that he 26 is entitled to equitable tolling of the one-year limitations period imposed by the AEDPA.

27 Additionally, on the face of the federal petition, petitioner states that his grounds for relief 28 were not exhausted in state court. A federal court will not review a state prisoner's petition for habeas relief until the prisoner has exhausted his available state remedies for all claims raised. Rose
v. Lundy, 455 U.S. 509 (1982); 28 U.S.C. § 2254(b). A petitioner must give the state courts a fair opportunity to act on each of his claims before he presents those claims in a federal habeas petition.
O’Sullivan v. Boerckel, 526 U.S. 838, 844 (1999); see also Duncan v. Henry, 513 U.S. 364, 365

1 (1995). A claim remains unexhausted until the petitioner has given the highest available state court
2 the opportunity to consider the claim through direct appeal or state collateral review proceedings.
3 See Casey v. Moore, 386 F.3d 896, 916 (9th Cir. 2004); Garrison v. McCarthey, 653 F.2d 374, 376
4 (9th Cir. 1981). A habeas petitioner must “present the state courts with the same claim he urges upon 5 the federal court.” Picard v. Connor, 404 U.S. 270, 276 (1971). Petitioner will be granted an 6 opportunity to demonstrate when and how he exhausted each ground contained in the federal 7 petition.

8 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that petitioner’s application to proceed in forma pauperis
9 (ECF No. 3) is GRANTED. Petitioner shall not be required to pay a filing fee to file his habeas
10 corpus petition. The habeas corpus petition shall be FILED by the Clerk of Court, but the petition 11 shall not be served on respondents at this time.

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that within thirty (30) days from the date of entry of this
13 order, petitioner SHALL FILE points and authorities, together with such evidence he may have,
14 that demonstrates either that he submitted his federal habeas corpus petition in a timely manner, or 15 that he is entitled to equitable tolling of the one-year limitations period imposed by the AEDPA.
16 Petitioner’s failure to comply with this order will result in the dismissal of this action.

17 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that within thirty (30) days from the date of entry of this
18 order, petitioner SHALL FILE points and authorities, together with such evidence he may have,
19 that demonstrates when and how he exhausted his grounds for relief in state court. Petitioner’s 20 failure to comply with this order will result in the dismissal of this action.

21 Dated this 23rd day of July, 2015.
