

1 timely objects to a magistrate judge's report and recommendation, then the court is 2 required to "make a de novo determination of those portions of the [report and 3 recommendation] to which objection is made." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Where a party fails 4 to object, however, the court is not required to conduct "any review at all . . . of any issue
5 that is not the subject of an objection." Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 149 (1985).
6 Indeed, the Ninth Circuit has recognized that a district court is not required to review a 7 magistrate judge's report and recommendation where no objections have been filed. See
8 United States v. Reyna-Tapia, 328 F.3d 1114 (9th Cir. 2003) (disregarding the standard 9 of review employed by the district court when reviewing a report and recommendation to 10 which no objections were made); see also Schmidt v. Johnstone, 263 F. Supp. 2d 1219, 11 1226 (D. Ariz. 2003) (reading the Ninth Circuit's decision in Reyna-Tapia as adopting the 12 view that district courts are not required to review "any issue that is not the subject of an 13 objection."). Thus, if there is no objection to a magistrate judge's recommendation, then 14 the court may accept the recommendation without review. See, e.g., Johnstone, 263 F.
15 Supp. 2d at 1226 (accepting, without review, a magistrate judge's recommendation to 16 which no objection was filed).

17 Nevertheless, this Court finds it appropriate to engage in a de novo review to 18 determine whether to adopt Magistrate Judge Cooke's R&R. As discussed in Magistrate 19 Judge Cooke's R&R, in each of plaintiff's cases, the initiating documents are merely 20 nonsensical words and numbers sprawled on pieces of paper, sometimes with a copy of 21 a bus ticket or other receipt of some kind. (See, e.g., 3:14-cv-00617-RCJ-VPC); 3:14-cv-
22 00673-MMD-VPC). Fed.R.Civ.P. 8(a) states that a complaint must contain a short and 23 plain statement of the grounds for the court's jurisdiction, a claim showing that plaintiff is 24 entitled to relief, and the relief sought. Plaintiffs' documents contain mere gibberish, and 25 the sheer number of cases initiated since October 2014 are a clear indication that 26 plaintiff's claims, even if they were clearly articulated, would likely be based on 27 conclusions that are untenable. "It is not the court's job to wade through pages of 28 incoherent gobbledy-gook in search of a single claim that may have merit." Shalla! v.

Gates, 254 2 F.R.D. 140, 143 n. 6 (D.D.C. 2008). Upon reviewing the R&R and the filings in Plaintiffs' cases, this Court finds good cause to accept and adopt the Magistrate Judge's R&R in full.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the Report and Recommendation of Magistrate Judge Valerie P. Cooke (dkt. no. 3) is accepted and adopted in its entirety.

It is further ordered that each of plaintiff's complaints listed above is dismissed with prejudice.

The Clerk is directed to close this case.

DATED THIS 27th day of April 2015.

MIRANDA M. DU
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
