STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

In order to protect the confidentiality of confidential, private, and personal information obtained by the Parties in connection with this case, the Parties hereby agree to the entry of this Stipulated Protective Order submitted by Plaintiffs and Defendant HG STAFFING, LLC, MEI-GSR HOLDINGS LLC d/b/a GRAND SIERRA RESORT (hereinafter the "Parties"), by which the Parties agree, and the Court finds, pursuant to FRCP 26(c), that good cause exists to

1 support the entry of a protective order over the discovery and dissemination of certain 2 information deemed confidential by one of the Parties. This Stipulated Protective Order will 3 expedite the disclosure of information and production of documents protected by privilege or 4 statutes, preserve the confidentiality of such information, protect privacy interests of the Parties 5 and non-parties, and help to avoid potential discovery disputes related to information that is 6 designated confidential. The Court, being fully advised, hereby ORDERS as follows:

7 GENERAL PROVISIONS

8 1. In this action, at least one of the Parties has sought and/or is seeking discovery 9 of Confidential Material (as defined in paragraph 5 below). This Protective Order shall apply to 10 all documents, materials, and information that is sought by a party either from other parties to 11 this litigation or from any third party with possession or custody of Confidential Material 12 during discovery, including without limitation, documents produced, answers to 13 interrogatories, responses to requests for admission, deposition testimony, and other 14 information disclosed pursuant to the disclosure or discovery duties created by the Federal 15 Rules of Civil Procedure. The Parties assert the disclosure of Confidential Material outside the 16 scope of this litigation could result in significant injury to one or more of the Parties' business 17 or privacy interests, and/or could result in significant injury to a third party's privacy interests, 18 as well as potentially impacting or resulting in the inadvertent waiver of the attorney-client 19 privilege. The Parties have entered into this Stipulation and request the Court enter this 20 Protective Order for the purpose of preventing the disclosure and use of Confidential Material 21 except as set forth herein, and to prevent the inadvertent waiver of any applicable privilege.

22 2. As used in this Protective Order, "document" is defined as designated in FRCP 23 34(a)(1)(A). A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this 24 term.

25 3. This Protective Order may be modified by the Court at any time for good cause 26 shown following notice to all Parties and an opportunity for them to be heard.

27 4. Nothing in this Protective Order shall prevent any party or other person from 28 seeking modification of this Order, from objecting to discovery that the party or other person

1 believes to be improper, or from filing a motion with respect to the manner in which 2 Confidential Material shall be treated at trial. Moreover, nothing in this Protective Order shall 3 prejudice the right of any party to contest the alleged relevancy, admissibility, or 4 discoverability of information designated as Confidential Material or information sought in 5 discovery.

6 CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

7 5. “Confidential Material” means those documents, personal information, trade 8 secrets, or sensitive commercial information that the designating party believes to be protected 9 by law, including FRCP 26, and is designated by one of the Parties in the manner provided in 10 paragraph 15 below, the disclosure of which the designating party believes may implicate the 11 privacy interests of Plaintiffs, Defendants, third parties and/or information contained in 12 confidential business records and communications by the designating party or a third party 13 with possession or custody of such information. Any information designated by a party as 14 confidential will first be reviewed by counsel, and designation will be based on a good faith 15 belief that the information is confidential and entitled to protection under the law, including 16 Rule 26. The documents or information so designated shall be deemed “Confidential Material” 17 subject to this Protective Order. Confidential Material does not include (a) any information 18 that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of 19 the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not 20 involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through trial 21 or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the disclosure or 22 obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the 23 information lawfully and was not under any obligation of confidentiality to the Designating 24 Party.

25 6. Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each 26 Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must 27 take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate 28 standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection only those pages of a

1 document which qualify as Confidential Material, in order to avoid sweeping an entire 2 document unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order, where only some pages contain 3 Confidential Material. Nevertheless, where the burden of designating individual pages of a 4 document would outweigh the benefit to full and open proceedings, the entire document may 5 been designated confidential. Indiscriminate designations of confidentiality, however, are 6 inconsistent with this Order. If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or 7 items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must 8 promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

9 7. Confidential Material shall not be disclosed to any person or entity not a party 10 to this lawsuit except as expressly provided herein. Confidential Material shall only be used by 11 the Parties in this lawsuit, including any appeal. Confidential Material shall not be disclosed to 12 any person or entity other than the Parties to this suit, counsel who have entered an appearance 13 in this case and their staff, judges, magistrates, law clerks and other clerical personnel of the 14 Court before which the action is pending, and other individuals as designated in paragraph 11 15 of this Protective Order.

16 8. Any Confidential Material produced during the course of this action shall be 17 used solely for the purposes of this action between the Parties in this suit only, and shall not be 18 disclosed or used for any other purpose including, but not limited to, any business, commercial, 19 competitive, or publicity purpose. All obligations and duties arising under this Protective Order 20 shall survive the conclusion of this action.

21 9. Nothing herein shall prevent disclosure beyond the terms of this Order if this 22 Court, after notice to all affected Parties, orders such disclosure.

23 10. It shall be the responsibility of counsel to take reasonable and proper steps to 24 ensure that this Protective Order and all provisions hereof are made known to any person who 25 shall examine Confidential Material as provided herein. Counsel to the Parties are required to 26 advise, instruct, and supervise all associates, staff, experts and employees to keep designated 27 Confidential Material confidential in the strictest possible fashion. Counsel and the Parties also 28 agree to the same treatment of the information by themselves, and counsel will appropriately

1 instruct their clients as to the protected nature of the information produced pursuant to this 2 Protective Order, including the limitations on its use and disclosure.

3 11. Given its confidential status, all Confidential Material, including any and all 4 copies thereof, shall be kept by counsel, and any person to whom it is provided, in an 5 appropriately safe place. Except as otherwise provided, access to any Confidential Material 6 shall be limited solely to the following persons:

7 a. Counsel for the Parties and their staff, including associates, legal assistants, and 8 paralegals other support employees who have a demonstrable need for such Confidential 9 Material for purposes of this litigation;

10 b. Outside vendors retained by counsel for the Parties, including experts, 11 messenger, copy, coding, and other clerical services, including document processing and 12 conversion, archiving and database services, electronic data processing firms and personnel, 13 translators, and interpreters;

14 c. Plaintiff, Defendant, whether third party or otherwise, and any officers, 15 directors, agents, or employees of Plaintiff and Defendant who have a need for such 16 Confidential Material disclosure for purposes of this litigation;

17 d. The author or recipient of a document containing the Confidential Material, or a 18 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

19 e. The Court and persons employed by the Court, including jury personnel and 20 stenographers transcribing the testimony or argument at a hearing, trial, or deposition in this 21 action, or any appeal therefrom;

22 f. With the exception of witnesses while testifying at trial, or persons who either 23 authored or previously received Confidential Material, such information may be disclosed to 24 other persons not authorized by this Protective Order only with the mutual agreement in 25 writing between and among counsel for the Parties, or on the record in deposition or hearing, in 26 advance of any disclosure to such person.

27 12. All copies, excerpts, or summaries made, shown or given to those authorized 28 hereby and according to the provisions hereof shall be stamped to indicate the protected and

1 confidential nature of the disclosed information. Review of Confidential Material by counsel, 2 experts, or consultants for the litigation will not constitute any waiver of the confidentiality of 3 the document or of any objections to production. The inadvertent, unintentional, or in camera 4 disclosure of Confidential Material shall not, under any circumstances, be deemed a waiver, in 5 whole or in part, of any claims of confidentiality.

6 13. All documents submitted to the Court which attach, quote from, or refer to 7 Confidential Materials shall be electronically filed under seal with reference to this Protective 8 Order to ensure that the documents are protected as set forth in this Protective Order. Unless 9 otherwise permitted by statute, rule, or prior court order, Documents filed with the Court under 10 seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those documents 11 under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the Court's electronic filing procedures in 12 accordance with Local Rule IA 10-5. Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties, the 13 party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the presumption in 14 favor of public access to papers filed in court. See Kamakana v. City & Cty. of Honolulu, 447 15 F.2d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006); Pintos v. Pac. Creditors Ass'n, 605 F.3d 665, 677-78 (9th Cir.
16 2010); Center for Auto Safety c. Chrysler Group, LLC, 809 F.3d 1092 (2016). In the event the 17 Court refuses to allow the filing under seal of such information designated as Confidential 18 Material, a party shall still be permitted to file such information, but it will continue to be 19 treated as confidential in all other respects. The Court's ruling shall not preclude the filing of 20 the document, or otherwise affect the confidentiality designation.

21 14. If, through inadvertence, a party provides any documents or information 22 containing Confidential Material without designating the material as such, the party may 23 subsequently inform the other parties in writing of the Confidential Material status of the 24 documents or information. The parties in receipt of that inadvertently disclosed Confidential 25 Material shall thereafter treat the disclosed material as Confidential Material in accordance 26 with the written notification of the inadvertent disclosure. The Parties in receipt of the 27 inadvertently disclosed Confidential Material shall take reasonable steps to advise persons to 28 whom disclosure was made prior to receipt of a Confidential Material designation and of this

1 Protective Order, but shall not otherwise be required to retrieve or take any action to protect the 2 confidentiality of information or copies of documents disclosed prior to the receipt of the 3 Confidential Material designation. If a party produces any documents or information that is not 4 designated as Confidential Material and which another party believes is subject to designation
5 as Confidential Material, the receiving party may designate the material as Confidential 6 Material by notifying the other Parties of the designation, and if any other party disagrees with 7 the designation, it may follow the procedures set forth in Paragraph 15. If a party inadvertently 8 produces documents which are subject to the attorney-client privilege or work product 9 protection, the Parties shall follow the procedures set forth in Fed. R. Evid. 502 and FRCP 10 26(b)(5)(B).

11 15. Where Confidential Material is produced, provided, or otherwise disclosed by a 12 party in response to any discovery request, it will be designated in one of the following 13 manners:

14 a. By imprinting the word “Confidential” on each confidential page of any 15 document produced (in a manner that will not interfere with their legibility);

16 b. By imprinting the word “Confidential” next to or above any response to a 17 discovery request; and 18 c. With respect to transcribed testimony, whenever a deposition involves the 19 disclosure of Confidential Material, the confidential portions thereof shall be designated as 20 Confidential and subject to this Protective Order. Such designation may be made on the record 21 during the deposition, but must also be made by giving written notice to opposing counsel 22 designating by page and line number which portions are “Confidential” no later than 21 23 calendar days after receipt of the transcribed testimony. During the 21-day period, counsel for 24 the Parties shall treat the entire transcript as if it had been designated as “Confidential.”

25 16. A party may object to the designation of particular documents as Confidential 26 Material by giving written notice to the party designating the disputed information. The written 27 notice shall identify the information to which the objection is made. The objection to a 28 designation as Confidential Material may be raised at any time; a party does not waive its right

1 to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge immediately 2 after the original designation is disclosed.

3 All counsel shall then make a reasonable, good-faith effort to resolve any e discovery
4 dispute without the need for judicial intervention in accordance with FRCP 26(c)(1) and FRCP
5 37(a)(1). If those discussions are not fruitful, it will be the obligation of the party designating 6 the information as Confidential to arrange a telephone conference with the Court in accordance 7 with the Court's Civil Practice Standards. At the conclusion of the Court-supervised 8 conference, if the dispute over confidentiality has not been resolved, it will be the obligation of 9 the party designating the information as Confidential to file an appropriate motion within ten 10 additional days after the date of the conference, requesting that the Court determine whether 11 the disputed information should be subject to the terms of this Protective Order. If such a 12 motion is timely filed, the disputed information shall be treated as Confidential under the terms 13 of this Protective Order until the Court rules on the motion. In connection with any motion 14 filed under this provision, the party designating the information as confidential shall bear the 15 burden of establishing that good cause exists for the disputed information to be treated as 16 confidential.

17 17. The termination of this action shall not relieve counsel or other persons 18 obligated hereunder from their responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of designated 19 Confidential Material or pursuant to this Protective Order.

20 18. Three years from termination of this litigation, including any appeals, or at the 21 expiration of any longer time required by counsel's insurance or ethical obligations, counsel for 22 any party that has received Confidential Material shall destroy the Confidential Material.
23 Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, 24 motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, 25 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert 26 work product, even if such materials contain Confidential Material. Any such archival copies 27 that contain or constitute Confidential Material remain subject to this Protective Order

28 19. This Protective Order is not intended to address the admissibility of evidence at 1 trial. If a party seeks to limit the publication of Confidential Material at the trial or any hearing 2 in this matter, the burden shall be on the party seeking to limit the use of such information to 3 obtain relief from the Court in advance of the trial or hearing.

4 20. If documents or information designated as Confidential Material in accordance 5 with the terms of this Protective Order are made exhibits to briefs or pleadings, or if 6 Confidential Material is quoted in a pleading, any such exhibit or pleading shall be filed under 7 seal.

1 21. This Protective Order shall not prevent any party from asserting that the 2 confidential nature of any material bars production of any such material, notwithstanding this 3 agreement. In such circumstances, the material will not be required to be produced absent a 4 properly filed motion to compel, granted by the Court. If the Court grants such a motion to
