RECITALS:

Defendants have commenced an eviction action in Reno Justice Court based on their contention that plaintiff had a tenancy at will and it has been terminated. Reno Justice Court has now scheduled a hearing on defendants' unlawful detainer claims for Thursday, February 9, 2017, at 8:15 a.m.

Plaintiff has an application for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction pending, but it is not, at this time, clear whether that will be decided by this Court or the state courts.

Plaintiff and defendants do not want to incur unnecessary fees, and do not want to cause unnecessary work for this Court, the state district court, or Reno Justice Court.

The parties therefore stipulate and agree as follows:

1. The foregoing recitals are true and correct and are adopted and ratified by the parties.

2. The Reno Justice court case will be withdrawn, and the evidentiary hearing scheduled for Thursday, February 9, 2017, will be cancelled.

3. Plaintiff agrees that if either this Court or the state district court, on remand, deny his temporary restraining order and motion for preliminary injunction, he will, within three (3) calendar days, vacate the premises at 2015 LaFond, and defendants may, at that point, change the locks and take possession. Defendants will not cancel or interrupt Plaintiff's utilities (phone/power/cable/water, etc) until Plaintiff has vacated the premises.

4. If plaintiff's temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction are

1 granted, the parties will comply therewith.
