UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

ARTHUR JULIUS-GREEN BERAHA
fka TRAVERS A. GREEN,

Plaintiff,

v.

STATE OF NEVADA, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 3:17-cv-00366-RCJ-CLB

DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE
SUMMARY JUDGMENT MOTION

(First Request)

20 Defendants, Renee Baker, James Dzurenda, William Gittere, and William Reubart, 21 by and through counsel Aaron D. Ford, Attorney General of the State of Nevada, and
22 Katlyn M. Brady, Deputy Attorney General, requests this Court grant a thirty (30) day
23 extension of time to file a summary judgment motion.

INTRODUCTION

25 This Court should grant Defendants' motion for an extension of time to file a 26 summary judgment motion. On November 19, 2019, undersigned counsel was assigned to 27 represent the Defendants in this matter because the previous Deputy Attorney General
28 unexpectedly left the Office of the Nevada Attorney General. Further, due to the

1 Thanksgiving holiday, undersigned counsel will be unable to complete a review of the
2 record and prepare a summary judgment motion before the deadline of December 2, 2019.

3 BACKGROUND

4 On January 18, 2018, Plaintiff filed the First Amended Complaint. ECF No. 10. On
5 June 15, 2018, this Court filed its screening order. ECF No. 12. This Court allowed the 6 following claims to proceed:

- 7 • Count I alleging a due process violation and a statutory violation against 8 former Director Dzurenda. ECF No. 12 at 12:14-17.
- 9 • Count II, alleging free exercise, FLUIPA, and equal protection violations
10 against former Director Dzurenda, former Warden Filson, and Bryen. Id. at 11 12:18-19.
- 12 • Count III, alleging federal telecommunication violations against Century
13 Link, EPSI, and ICS. Further, Count III alleged a violation of Nevada's
14 Deceptive Trade Practices Act against Century Link, EPSI and ICS. Id. at 15 12:21-24.

16 On June 3, 2019, this Court entered its scheduling order. ECF No. 87. The original
17 deadline for dispositive motions was October 2, 2019. ECF No. 87 at 3:27-27 – 4:1.

18 On September 26, 2019, Plaintiff filed the Second Amended Complaint. ECF No.
19 105. Plaintiff alleged the following claims:

- 20 • Count I alleged a due process violation and statutory violation claim against 21 former Director Dzurenda, in his official capacity only. Id. at 2-4.
- 22 • Count II alleged religious claims against former Director Dzurenda, William 23 Gittere, and William Reubart. Id. at 5-7.
- 24 • Count III alleged religious claims regarding the ALEPH Institute against 25 former Director Dzurenda and William Gittere. Id. at 7-9.

26 Defendants filed an answer on October 17, 2019. ECF No. 108.

27 Plaintiff previously filed two requests to enlarge the discovery period. ECF No. 98
28 (noting it was Plaintiff's second request). On September 26, 2019, this Court granted

1 Plaintiff's motion and extended discovery. ECF No. 104. This Court noted no further
2 discovery extensions would be granted. Id.

3 On November 19, 2019, undersigned counsel was assigned to represent James
4 Dzurenda, Renee Baker, William Gittere, and William Reubart. Undersigned counsel
5 promptly filed a notice of change of Deputy Attorney General. ECF No. 111. This change
6 was prompted by the sudden, and unexpected, resignation of Deputy Attorney General
7 Matthew J. Frauenfeld. See Declaration of counsel.

8 On November 25, 2019, undersigned counsel engaged in a meet and confer with 9 Plaintiff regarding the dispositive motion deadline. See Declaration of Counsel. However,
10 Plaintiff has refused to agree to extend the dispositive motion deadline. Id. Plaintiff
11 explained that because he already prepared his motion for summary judgment, he was 12 not inclined to allow Defendants extra time to prepare their motion.

13 Defendants now request this Court grant a thirty (30) day extension of the 14 dispositive motion deadline.

15 APPLICABLE LAW

16 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(b)(1)(A), this Court may extend the 17 time to perform an act within a specific time for good cause shown. Similarly, FRCP
18 16(b)(4) permits a court to modify a scheduling order for good cause. The good cause
19 inquiry focuses on the moving party's diligence. See Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations,
20 Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 608-09 (9th Cir. 1992). Local Rule 26-4 requires all motions to extend 21 a deadline set forth in a scheduling order to be filed no later than 21 days before the
22 expiration of the subject deadline. "A request made after the expiration of the subject
23 deadline will not be granted unless the movant also demonstrates that the failure to act
24 was the result of excusable neglect.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

This Court should grant Defendants' motion to extend the dispositive motion deadline.

A. Defendants Provide the Following Information Pursuant to LR 26-4.

First, the following discovery has been completed to date (LR 26-4(a):

- Director Dzurenda has responded to two sets of Requests for Admissions, responded to three sets of Production of Document Requests and one set of Interrogatories.
- Warden Gittere has responded to one set of requests for admissions.
- The Defendants, collectively, have responded to one set of requests for admissions (document authentication requests) and a request for the Production of Documents

Second, the only outstanding discovery issue is Plaintiff's pending motion to compel discovery directed at Wells Fargo, ECF No. 112. LR 26-4(b). However, during a telephonic meet and confer, Plaintiff stated he did not believe this pending motion would impact the dispositive motions. See Declaration of Counsel.

Third, the reason the current dispositive motion deadline cannot be met is the sudden, and unexpected, resignation of the previous Deputy Attorney General Matthew J. Frauenfeld. See Declaration of Counsel. It was expected that DAG Frauenfeld would complete the dispositive motion before the December 2, 2019 deadline. However, DAG Frauenfeld, unexpectedly resigned his position, which required that this matter be reassigned to undersigned counsel. Undersigned counsel received this matter on November 19, 2019.

Further, due to the upcoming Thanksgiving Holiday, the Office of the Nevada Attorney General will be closed on November 28th and 29th. The closure of the office further impacts undersigned counsel's ability to complete a dispositive motion before the December 2, 2019 deadline.

1 Fourth, Defendants propose the following schedule:

- 2 • Dispositive motions due Thursday, January 2, 2020
3 • Joint Pretrial Order shall be filed no later than Monday, February 3, 2020, or
4 thirty (30) days after the decision of any pending dispositive motions

5 B. Excusable Neglect and Good Cause Support an Extension

6 This Court should find that excusable neglect and good cause support an extension
7 of time. Excusable neglect exists for failing to comply with the 21 day requirement set out
8 in LR 26-4. Undersigned counsel did not receive this case until November 19, 2019.
9 Accordingly, undersigned counsel could not comply with LR 26-4 because she was 10 unaware that she would receive this matter until the deadline had passed. Further, the 11 Office of the Nevada Attorney General could not take steps before the deadline to 12 reassign the matter, as Matthew Frauenfeld's resignation was sudden and unexpected.

13 Further, since receiving this matter, undersigned counsel has diligently attempted
14 to familiarize herself with this matter. This includes arranging a telephonic meet and 15 confer with Plaintiff to discuss the dispositive motion deadline and the pending motion to 16 compel. Accordingly, good cause exists for an extension.

17 Finally, Defendants will be prejudiced without an extension. Without an extension,
18 Defendants will be unable to present a motion for summary judgment in their favor.
19 Accordingly, Defendants will be prejudiced, through no fault of their own, if an extension
20 is not granted.

21 CONCLUSION

22 This Court should grant an extension of the dispositive motion deadline. Excusable
23 neglect exists for the extension due to the sudden, and unexpected, resignation of the 24 DAG previously assigned to this matter. Further, good cause exists because undersigned
