The term Confidential Information shall mean confidential or proprietary technical, scientific, financial, business, trade secret, health, or medical information designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" by the producing party.

The term Confidential Health Information shall constitute a subset of Confidential 7 Information, and shall be designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" and subject to all terms and 8 9 conditions governing the treatment of Confidential Information set forth herein. Confidential Health Information shall mean information supplied in any form, or any portion thereof, that 10 11 identifies an individual or subscriber in any manner and relates to the past, present, or future care, services, or supplies relating to the physical or mental health or condition of such individual 12 or subscriber, the provision of health care to such individual or subscriber, or the past, present, or 13 future payment for the provision of health care to such individual or subscriber. Confidential 14 Health Information shall include, but is not limited to, claim data, claim forms, grievances, 15 appeals, or other documents or records that contain any patient health information required to be 16 17 kept confidential under any state or federal law, including 45 C.F.R. Parts 160 and 164 promulgated pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (see 45 18 C.F.R. §§ 164.501 & 160.103), and the following subscriber, patient, or member identifiers: 19

3. Designation of Information

2	Documents and things produced or furnished during the course of this action shall be
3	designated as containing Confidential Information, including Confidential Health Information,
4	by placing on each page, each document (whether in paper or electronic form), or each thing a
5	legend substantially as follows:
6	CONFIDENTIAL
7	A party may designate information disclosed at a deposition as Confidential Information
8	by requesting the reporter to so designate the transcript at the time of the deposition.
9	A producing party shall designate its discovery responses, responses to requests for
10	admission, briefs, memoranda and all other papers sent to the court or to opposing counsel as
11	containing Confidential Information when such papers are served or sent.
12	A party shall designate information disclosed at a hearing or trial as Confidential
13	Information by requesting the court, at the time the information is proffered or adduced, to
14	receive the information only in the presence of those persons designated to receive such
15	information and court personnel, and to designate the transcript appropriately. Nothing in this
16	provision shall be construed in any way prevent the public's access to the courtroom.
17	The parties will use reasonable care to avoid designating any documents or information
18	as Confidential Information that is not entitled to such designation or which is generally
19	available to the public. The parties shall designate only that part of a document or deposition
20	that is Confidential Information, rather than the entire document or deposition.
21	4. Disclosure and Use of Confidential Information
22	Information that has been designated Confidential shall be disclosed by the receiving
23	party only to Qualified Recipients. All Qualified Recipients shall hold such information received

24 from the disclosing party in confidence, shall use the information only for purposes of this action <sup>2044200_2</sup>

1	and for no other action, and shall not use it for any business or other commercial purpose, and
2	shall not use it for filing or prosecuting any patent application (of any type) or patent reissue or
3	reexamination request, and shall not disclose it to any person, except as hereinafter provided. All
4	information that has been designated Confidential shall be carefully maintained so as to preclude
5	access by persons who are not qualified to receive such information under the terms of this
6	Order.
7	In the event that any receiving party's briefs, memoranda, discovery requests, requests
8	for admission or other papers of any kind which are served or filed shall include Confidential
9	Information, t	the papers shall be appropriately designated and shall be treated accordingly.
10	All documents, including attorney notes and abstracts, which contain another party's
11	Confidential Information, shall be handled as if they were designated pursuant to paragraph 3.
12	Only those parts of documents, papers and transcripts filed with the court that contain
13	Confidential Information shall be filed under seal.
14	5. Qualified Recipients
15	For pu	rposes of this Order, the term Qualified Recipient means
16 17	a.	Outside counsel of record for any party in this action, as well as employees of such counsel (excluding experts and investigators) assigned to and necessary to assist such counsel in the preparation and trial of this action;
18	b.	Representatives, officers, or employees of a party as necessary to assist outside counsel in the preparation and trial of this action;
19	с.	Witnesses who testify by deposition or at trial who, if not a representative, officer,
20		or employee of a party, shall be advised about the terms of this Order and that such Order is applicable to them in connection with their testimony and do not
21		retain copies of Confidential Information;
22	d.	Persons who were authors or recipients of the Confidential Information or previously had legal access to Confidential Information;
23 24	e.	Technical Advisors, expert witnesses, or consultants engaged by a party to assist with the preparation and trial of this action provided such expert or consultant

2		f.	Any designated arbitrator or mediator who is assigned to hear this matter, or who
3			has been selected by the parties, and his or her staff, provided that such individuals agree in writing, in the form attached at Appendix A, to be bound by
4			the terms of this Order;
5 6		g.	Stenographers and videographers engaged to transcribe or record depositions conducted in this action provided that such individuals agree in writing, in the form attached at Appendix A, to be bound by the terms of this Order; and
7		h.	The Court and its support personnel.
8	6.	Nonp	arties
9		Any r	nonparty who produces documents or other information in response to discovery
10	requests or subpoenas in this litigation that qualifies as Confidential Information shall be entitled
11	to the benefits and protections of this Order and shall be entitled to seek additional protections.
12	The parties agree that they will treat Confidential Information produced by nonparties
13	according to the terms of this Order.
14	Nonparties may challenge the confidentiality of Confidential Information by filing a
15	motion to intervene and a motion to de-designate.
16	7. Inadvertent Failure to Designate
17		In the	event that a producing party inadvertently fails to designate any of its information
18	pursuant to paragraph 3, it may later designate by notifying the receiving parties in writing. The
19	receiving parties shall take reasonable steps to see that the information is thereafter treated in
20	accordance with the designation.
21		It shal	l be understood however, that no person or party shall incur any liability hereunder
22	with re	espect t	o disclosure that occurred prior to receipt of written notice of a belated designation.
23	8.	Inadv	vertent Disclosure
24		In the	event of an inadvertent disclosure of another party's Confidential Information to a non-Qualified Recipient, the party making the inadvertent disclosure shall promptly upon 1 learning of the disclosure: (i) notify the person to whom the disclosure was made that it contains 2 Confidential Information subject to this Order; (ii) make all reasonable efforts to preclude 3 dissemination or use of the Confidential Information by the person to whom disclosure was 4 inadvertently made including, but not limited to, obtaining all copies of such materials from the 5 non-Qualified Recipient; and (iii) notify the producing party of the identity of the person to 6 whom the disclosure was made, the circumstances surrounding the disclosure, and the steps 7 taken to ensure against the dissemination or use of the information. 8
	2044200_2

9. Challenge to Designation

At any time after the delivery of Confidential Information, counsel for the party receiving 10 the Confidential Information may challenge the designation of all or any portion thereof by 11 12 providing written notice thereof to counsel for the party disclosing or producing the Confidential Information. If the parties are unable to agree as to whether the confidential designation of 13 discovery material is appropriate, the party receiving the Confidential Information shall certify to 14 the Court that the parties cannot reach an agreement as to the confidential nature of all or a 15 portion of the Confidential Information. Thereafter, the party disclosing or producing the 16 Confidential Information shall have ten days from the date of certification to file a motion for 17 protective order with regard to any Confidential Information in dispute. The party producing the 18 Confidential Information shall have the burden of establishing that the disputed Confidential 19 20 Information is entitled to confidential treatment. If the party producing the Confidential Information does not timely file a motion for protective order, the Confidential Information in 21 dispute shall no longer be subject to confidential treatment as provided in this Order. All 22 23 Confidential Information is entitled to confidential treatment pursuant to the terms of this Order until and unless the parties formally agree in writing to the contrary, a party fails to timely move 24 for a protective order, or a contrary determination is made by the Court as to whether all or a portion of designated Confidential Information is entitled to confidential treatment.

10. Conclusion of Action

At the conclusion of this action, including through all appeals, each party or other person subject to the terms hereof shall be under an obligation to destroy or return to the producing party all materials and documents containing Confidential Information and to certify to the producing party such destruction or return. Such return or destruction shall not relieve said parties or persons from any of the continuing obligations imposed upon them by this Order.

9 The provisions of this paragraph shall not be binding on any party or entity to the extent 10 that such provisions conflict with applicable Federal or State law. Any party or entity subject to 11 this order shall notify the producing party in writing of any such conflict it identifies in 12 connection with a particular matter so that such matter can be resolved either by the parties or by 13 the Court.

11. Jurisdiction to Enforce Protective Order

15 After the termination of this action, the Court will continue to have jurisdiction to enforce16 this Order.

17

12. Modification of Protective Order

This Order is without prejudice to the right of any person or entity to seek a modification of this Order at any time either through stipulation or Order of the Court.

20

13. Confidentiality of Party's Own Documents

Nothing herein shall affect the right of the designating party to disclose to its officers, directors, employees, attorneys, consultants or experts, or to any other person, its own information. Such disclosure shall not waive the protections of this Protective Order and shall not entitle other parties or their attorneys to disclose such information in violation of it, unless by such disclosure of the designating party the information becomes public knowledge. Similarly, the Protective Order shall not preclude a party from showing its own information, including its own information that is filed under seal by a party, to its officers, directors, employees, attorneys, consultants or experts, or to any other person.

14. Compulsory Disclosure to Third Parties

6 If any receiving party is subpoenaed in another action or proceeding or served with a 7 document or testimony demand or a court order, and such subpoena or demand or court order seeks Confidential Information, including Confidential Health Information of a producing party, 8 9 the receiving party shall give prompt written notice to counsel for the producing party and allow 10 the producing party an opportunity to oppose such subpoena or demand or court order prior to the deadline for complying with the subpoena or demand or court order. No compulsory 11 12 disclosure to third parties of information or material exchanged under this Order shall be deemed a waiver of any claim of confidentiality, except as expressly found by a court or judicial 13 14 authority of competent jurisdiction.

15. Binding Effect

This Order shall be binding upon the parties and their attorneys, successors, executors, personal representatives, administrators, heirs, legal representatives, assigns, subsidiaries, divisions, employees, agents, independent contractors, or other persons or organizations over which they have control.
