CASE NO. 3:18-cv-00016-RCJ-VPC

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

29 In order to protect the confidentiality of confidential information obtained by the parties,
30 Plaintiff Carol Sewell and Defendants' Federal Insurance Company and Capital One Bank (USA), 31 N.A., by and through counsel of record, in connection with this case, the parties hereby agree as 32 follows:

33 1. Any party or non-party may designate as "confidential" (by stamping the relevant 34 page or other otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party

FORAN GLENNON PALANDECH PONZI & RUDLOFF PC

1 or non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, or confidential
2 business or financial information, subject to protection under the Federal Rules of Civil 3 Procedure or Nevada law ("Confidential Information"). Where a document or response consists of 4 more than one page, the first page and each page on which confidential information appears shall 5 be so designated.

6 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or in 7 response to written discovery as "confidential" by so indicating in said response or on the record at 8 the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material. Additionally,
9 a party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after receipt of said responses 10 or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, that specific pages of the 11 transcript and/or specific responses be treated as "confidential" information. Any other party may 12 object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection, the parties shall follow 13 the procedures described in paragraph 8 below. After any designation made according to the 14 procedures set forth in this paragraph, the designated documents or information shall be treated 15 according to the designation until the matter is resolved according to the procedures described in 16 paragraph 8 below, and counsel for all parties shall be responsible for making all previously 17 unmarked copies of the designated material in their possession or control with the specific 18 designation.

19 3. All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than 20 information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the information 21 is produced solely for the purpose of this case.

22 4. Except with the prior written consent of other parties, or upon prior order of this 23 Court obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be disclosed to 24 any person other than:

- 25 (a) counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house 26 counsel and co-counsel retained for this litigation;
27 (b) employees of such counsel;
28 (c) individual defendants, class representatives, any officer or employee of a

1 party, to the extent deemed necessary by Counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;

2 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of this 3 litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to this
4 Order as Exhibit "A" (which shall be retained by counsel to the party so disclosing the Confidential
5 Information and made available for inspection by opposing counsel during the pendency or after 6 the termination of the action only upon good cause shown and upon order of the Court) before
7 being shown or given any Confidential Information and provided that if a party chooses a consultant
8 or expert employed by Defendants or a competitor of either Defendant, the party shall notify the 9 opposing party or designating nonparty, before disclosing any Confidential Information to that 10 individual and shall give the opposing party an opportunity to move for a protective order 11 preventing or limiting such disclosure:

12 (e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;

13 (f) the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and

14 (g) witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)). A witness shall 15 sign the Certification before being shown a confidential document. Confidential Information may 16 be disclosed to a witness who will not sign the Certification only in a deposition at which the party
17 who designated the Confidential Information is represented or has been given notice that 18 Confidential Information shall be designated "Confidential" pursuant to paragraph 2 above.
19 Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not be allowed to retain copies.

20 5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss such 21 information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, except as set 22 forth herein.

23 6. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, papers filed with the 24 court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those 25 documents under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the court's electronic filing procedure in 26 accordance with Local Rule IA 10-5. Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties, the party
27 seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the presumption in favor of public 28 access to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.2d 1172 (9th Cir.

1 2006); Pintos v. Pac. Creditors Ass'n, 605 F.3d 665, 677-78 (9th Cir. 2010)

2 7. A party may designate as "Confidential" documents or discovery materials
3 produced by a non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant document number 4 or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents or discovery materials.
5 Any party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others without restriction any information
6 designated by that party or non-party as confidential, although a document may lose its confidential
7 status if it is made public.

8 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such 9 party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the material.
10 The party or non-party who designated the material shall have twenty-five (25) days from the 11 receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the material as 12 confidential. The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of establishing that the 13 document is entitled to protection.

14 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential
15 Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions hereof
16 unless and until one of the following occur:

17 (a) the party or non-party claims that the material is Confidential Information 18 withdraws such designation in writing; or

19 (b) the party or on-party who claims that the material is Confidential
20 Information fails to apply to the Court for an order designating the material confidential within the 21 time period specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or 22 (c) the Court rules the material is not confidential.

23 10. All provisions of this Order restricting the communications or use of Confidential
24 Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless otherwise agreed
25 or ordered. Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the possession of Confidential Information, 26 other than that which is contained in pleadings, correspondence, and deposition transcripts, shall 27 either (a) return such documents no later than thirty (30) days after conclusion of this action to 28 counsel for the party or non-party who provided such information, or (b) destroy such documents

1 within the time period upon consent of the party who provided the information and certify in writing
2 within thirty (3) days that the documents have been destroyed.

3 11. The term of this Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise apply to the use 4 of documents at trial.

5 12. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work product
6 protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material
7 protected by privilege or work product protection.

8 13. Any witness or other person, firm or entity from which discovery is sought may be 9 informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order by written advice to the parties' respective 10 counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar proceeding.
