CASE NO. 3:18-cv-00151-RCJ-WGC

ORDER SETTING INMATE EARLY
MEDIATION CONFERENCE

This case has been referred to the District Court's Inmate Early Mediation Program. The court has appointed MIKE PINTAR as the mediator in this case. This mediator is an independent, neutral and impartial attorney who is trained in mediation and who will assist the parties in attempting to settle this case without further court action. The mediation conference will take place on TUESDAY, AUGUST 6, 2019 at 11:30 a.m., in Courtroom Number 2 in the United States Courthouse, Reno, Nevada. The defendants are not required to serve or file an answer or other response to plaintiff's complaint before the early mediation conference.

I. AUTHORITY OF THE MEDIATOR

The mediator assigned to this case has the authority of the court to do the following:

a) Conduct a Telephonic Conference

At any time prior to the date set for mediation, the mediator may contact the parties to arrange an informal telephone conference to discuss any issues concerning the mediation. In the case of an inmate plaintiff, the mediator may contact the Deputy Attorney General assigned to this case to arrange an informal telephonic conference among the parties. The telephonic

1 conference is not required by the court and will only be scheduled at the mediator's request. The 2 telephonic conference is confidential and will not be recorded or reported on the record and no
3 transcripts will be prepared.

5 b) Request Additional Information

6 The mediator may request additional information and/or documents concerning the case
7 at any time prior to or during the mediation.

8 II. WHO MUST ATTEND THE MEDIATION CONFERENCE

9 a) Plaintiff

10 The Plaintiff will appear and participate in the mediation conference through video
11 conferencing. The Attorney General's Office will make the necessary arrangements for Plaintiff
12 to appear by video conference and will provide Karen Walker, Courtroom Administrator, with a 13 video conference reservation number at least two days prior to the early mediation conference.
14 If the video conferencing equipment is not available at the correctional institution, the court may 15 order the inmate plaintiff to be transported to the Court.

18 b) Non-Inmate Individual Defendants

19 Any person who is a defendant is not a current or former employee of the Nevada
20 Department of Corrections ("NDOC") must also attend the mediation conference in person, 21 unless his or her presence is excused by the Court.

23 c) Representatives of Defendant Agencies or Other Defendant Entities

24 Representatives of the NDOC who have the authority to settle this case are required to 25 attend the mediation conference. The Warden, Associate Warden, or other NDOC Administrator
26 with settlement authority at the institution where Plaintiff's claims arose shall be available to be 27 contacted by telephone during the mediation, if requested by the mediator. If the deputy attorney
28

1 general believes that the presence of a particular NDOC representative would facilitate
2 mediation, he or she may seek leave of court to direct that such person be present.

3 d) Attorneys

4 All attorneys who will be participating in the trial of this case are also required to attend
5 the mediation conference.

7 e) Excused Attendance

8 All persons attending the mediation conference are required to present for the entire 9 conference. Any request to be excused from attending the mediation conference must be made
10 in writing to the Court at least one week prior to the mediation conference. Such request shall be 11 filed with the Clerk of Court.
12

13 f) Settlement Authority of Persons Attending Mediation Conference

14 The persons attending the mediation conference must have full authority to settle the 15 case. If the defendant is a governmental agency, private company, corporation, partnership or 16 similar entity, it must be represented at the early mediation conference by a person who has the 17 full authority, subject to any legally required board approval, to settle the case on the defendant's
18 behalf. If a defendant has insurance that may provide coverage for the claims in this case, then a 19 representative of the insurance company with full settlement authority must also be present at the 20 mediation conference.
21

22 g) Sanctions for Failure to Attend Mediation Conference

23 If a party or its attorney fails to have the necessary person(s) with settlement authority
24 physically present during the mediation conference, then the mediator may cancel the mediation
25 conference. The mediator will promptly notify the Court of the reason for the cancellation and 26 the Court may require the party or its attorney to pay reasonable expenses of the other parties or 27
28

1 the mediator caused by the cancellation. The Court may also impose additional sanctions on the 2 party or its attorney if facts and circumstances justify such sanctions.

3 III. PURPOSE OF THE MEDIATION

4 The purpose of the early mediation conference is to assist the parties in settling this case
5 without the need for any further court action. The parties and the attorneys should be prepared to 6 explain to the mediator the facts and legal issues involved in the case. The mediator will meet 7 separately and confidentially with each party and his or her attorney to discuss the case and to 8 obtain and present settlement offers or proposals. The discussions and negotiations that occur
9 during the mediation conference are confidential. The judges assigned to the case will not be 10 informed by the mediator or by any party or attorney about what was discussed or what offers 11 were made during the mediation conference. The parties should take full advantage of the 12 settlement opportunity provided by the mediation conference. This requires that each party make 13 a good faith effort to settle the case based on a fair and reasonable view of the facts and the law.

14 IV. MEET AND CONFER REQUIREMENT

15 The Deputy Attorney General assigned to this case shall contact the plaintiff by telephone
16 in advance of the mediation to meet and confer about the mediation process and settlement
17 options. The Deputy Attorney General may decide, at his or her own discretion, to share the 18 legal analysis portion of their mediation statement with the inmate.

19 Prior to the mediation, the Deputy Attorney General shall also conduct a meet and confer
20 with the NDOC representative attending the mediation and the State Tort Claims Manager to 21 discuss the allegations of this case. The Deputy Attorney General shall share the defendants'
22 mediation statement with the NDOC Representative and the State Tort Claims Manager at the 23 meet and confer conference.

1 V. THE CONFIDENTIAL MEDIATIONS STATEMENT

2 Prior to the mediation conference, the plaintiff and defendant will send their confidential
3 mediation statements for the mediator's review. The confidential mediation statement is 4 intended to provide the mediator with necessary information to understand each party's position
5 and to prepare for and properly conduct the mediation conference. The mediator will be better 6 able to assist in settling the case if the parties' mediation statements provide accurate and 7 straightforward information about the facts and legal issues in the case. The mediation statement
8 shall not be sent to the opposing party or his or her attorney. However, the Deputy Attorney
9 General, in his or her own discretion, has leave to share the legal analysis portion of the 10 mediation statement with the inmate. The judges assigned to this case will not see or review the 11 mediation statements. After the mediation has ended, these mediation statements will be 12 shredded to ensure confidentiality.

13 Each party's confidential mediation statement is limited to seven (7) pages and should 14 contain the following information:

- 15 1) A brief statement about the nature of the case;
- 16 2) A brief discussion of the key factual and legal issues involved in the case;
- 17 3) A discussion of the strongest points in your case and a frank discussion of the 18 weakest points in your case as well;
- 19 4) You may also discuss the strongest and weakest points in your opponent's case, if 20 this is more than simply stating the opposite of the strongest and weakest points in 21 your case;
- 22 5) Describe any settlement offers or discussions that have already taken place.

23 Include both the last settlement offer you made, and the last settlement offer that
25
26
27
28

1 was made to you, and by whom it was made if there is more than one opposing 2 party;

3 6) State the settlement that you believe would be fair to settle the case;

4 7) Also state the settlement that you would honestly be willing to accept in order to 5 settle this case even if it less favorable to you that the settlement you believe is 6 fair; and

8 8) You may attach to your statement documents or exhibits which are especially 9 relevant to key factual or legal issues.

11 The mediation statement should be in an envelope clearly marked "Confidential, 12 Contains Mediation Statement." The mediation statements must be received by chambers at 400
13 South Virginia Street, Room 405, Reno Nevada 89501, no later than 4:00 P.M., TUESDAY, 14 JULY 30, 2019.

2 EARLY MEDIATION CONFERENCE PREPARATION

3 Experience shows that the party who is best prepared usually obtains the best result in 4 settlement negotiations. Mediation conferences are more effective if all parties and their 5 attorneys are prepared. To be effective in presenting your case and settlement position during 6 the mediation, you should consider the following:

8 A. INMATE MEDIATION EDUCATION VIDEO

9 The court has prepared a brief educational video explaining the 10 inmate mediation process. Please make arrangements to view this 11 video prior to the mediation conference. The video is played on a 12 loop in the common areas and is also available in the law library.
13 If you are not able to view the video in either of these areas, please 14 send a kite to your caseworker requesting to view the video at your cell door.

15 B. FORMAT OF MEDIATION CONFERENCE

16 The mediator will meet separately and privately with each party to 17 discuss the case and will speak directly with each party, even if the 18 party is represented by an attorney. The mediator will not,
19 however, meet with any party who is represented by an attorney outside the presence of his or her attorney.

20 C. ISSUES

- 21
- 22 1. What issues need to be settled? In some cases, this may include 23 the issues that are not party of the claims in the lawsuit, but whose 24 settlement could assist in settling the claims in the case. What are 25 the strengths and weaknesses of your position on each issue?
What is your best argument?
 - 26 2. What remedy or remedies is the plaintiff seeking? Does he or she 27 want an injunction, i.e., a change in conditions of imprisonment, 28 money damages or both? What remedies is each party willing to offer or accept in order to settle this case?

- 2 3. Is there any other pending lawsuits or planned lawsuit that affects
- 3 the settlement of this case?
- 5 4. Do you have enough information to place a value on the case? If
- 6 not, how are you going to get more information before the
- 7 mediation conference?
- 8
- 9 5. Do attorney's fees or other expenses affect settlement? Have you
- 10 provided this information to the other side?

11 D. NEGOTIATIONS

- 12 1. When did your last settlement discussions end? Are you sure?
- 13 2. Will discussions with the opposing party before the mediation
- 14 conference make it more likely that a settlement will be made? If
- 15 so, the parties are encouraged to contact each other and meet prior
- 16 to the mediation conference.
- 17 3. What should be your starting value of your case? Be prepared to
- 18 explain your assessment to the opposition.
- 19 4. Think about what a reasonable, realistic settlement would look
- 20 like. Think about value from the opposition's point of view. Be
- 21 prepared to discuss different viewpoints.
- 22 5. Is there confidential information which affects the case value?
- 23 Why can't/won't/shouldn't it be disclosed to the other party? How
- 24 can the other party be persuaded to settle if it doesn't have this
- 25 information?
- 26 6. What happens if you don't settle the case at the mediation? What
- 27 is your best alternative to a negotiated settlement? Why? What
- 28 might change the outcome of the settlement conference? Pending
- motions, discovery, expert's report, etc.

29 E. CLOSING

- 30 1. If settlement is reached, there will be a recorded hearing of all
- 31 parties in the courtroom in which the terms of the settlement will

1 be announced by the mediator and each party will state their 2 agreement to the terms of the settlement.

3 2. Have you considered the form of the settlement agreement?

4 3. How soon can checks/closing documents be received?

5 4. If settlement is not reached, and further discovery is needed, what 6 is your plan for continuing settlement discussions? Do you want
7 court involvement in these talks?

8 5. If settlement is not reached, be prepared to again discuss settlement
9 with the opposing party as the case proceeds and each side gains
10 more understanding about the case and the other side's position.

1 the Clerk of Court reporting on the outcome of the mediation to keep 2 statistics on the program.

3 5. What types of relief are available? What type of relief are not
4 available?

5 Settlement may or may not include payment of money damages. A 6 settlement gives the parties an opportunity to fashion different types of 7 relief, including non-assessment of the filing fee, restoration of work 8 credits, revision of disciplinary charges, or relief aimed at resolving the specific dispute alleged in the complaint.

9 Early parole, a pardon, commutation of your sentence, sentence reduction,
10 goods from outside vendors, and specific requests for individual items
11 from the canteen are not available forms of relief in mediation.

12 Plaintiff must understand that each case is unique and the type of relief
13 available will be considered on a case-by-case basis. A compromise 14 agreement is one in which neither party completely satisfied with the 15 results, but both have given something up and both have obtained something in return.

16 6. What happens if the parties reach a settlement in the case at the 17 mediation?

18 If the parties settle the case, the terms of the settlement will be placed on 19 the court record, and the mediator presides over that process. The terms of 20 the settlement are placed on the record, and the parties must state that they 21 understand and agree to each settlement term. The settlement is binding at 22 that time, even though the deputy attorney general will prepare a written 23 settlement agreement for the parties to sign. Once the parties review and 24 sign the settlement agreement, a stipulation is submitted to the court to end the case.

25 7. What happens if the parties don't settle the case?

26 The mediator will conclude the mediation by stating on the court record
27 that the parties were unable to settle the case that day. If the case does not 28 settle, there is no negative consequence to the parties. Mediation is simply an opportunity for the parties to meet and discuss how they might resolve the case. If there is no settlement, the case will proceed.

8. Why do parties in litigation go to mediation, as opposed to a trial on the merits?

Mediation is informal and the parties have an opportunity to be heard and to hear the opposing party's point of view. Without mediation, parties usually don't speak to one another except through attorneys and legal filings. Mediation also allow the parties who have ongoing relationships to preserve them by having a discussion rather than an adversarial proceeding.

9. Are there other benefits to mediation, even if the case does not settle?

Early mediation allows the parties the opportunity to speak honestly with one another in an informal, confidential environment. Even if the case is not settled, the process can be very helpful to the parties in understanding their claims and defenses in the case, what discovery and motions might be necessary, and this may save the parties time and money. Sometimes parties realize that certain claims or defenses can be dismissed, and they are more efficient in litigating the case. In addition, early mediation opens the door for future settlement discussions as the case proceeds. The better informed the parties are about their case, the better prepared they will be in litigation and in exploring future options for settlement.
