UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

WARREN SMITH,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED PARCEL SERVICE, INC., et al.,

Defendants.

3:20-cv-0454-LRH-CLB

ORDER

The parties have submitted a stipulated confidentiality agreement and protective order (ECF No. 25). Section 7 appears to provide that documents containing confidential information shall be automatically filed under seal with the court. This provision is contrary to the dictates of LR IA 10-5 and the law in this circuit concerning the sealing of court records. See Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006); see also, Center for Auto Safety v. Chrysler Group, LLC, 809 F.3d 1092, 1097 (9th Cir. 2016). Attached to this order is a form of stipulated protective order that the parties may consider, which seeks to balance the parties' interests in protecting confidential information with the Ninth Circuit's holdings in Kamakana and Center for Auto Safety.

In addition, Section 14 requires the court declines to retain jurisdiction of the protective order upon conclusion of this case. The court declines to do so. The court's jurisdiction over the protective order shall terminate upon dismissal of the case.

Based upon the foregoing, the court cannot approve the stipulated protective order (ECF No. 25) submitted for this court's approval. However, the parties have leave to submit a revised stipulated protective order that comports with LR IA 10-5 and the holdings in Kamakana and Center for Auto Safety as well as the revised jurisdiction provision.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

	)	STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER
vs.	)

In order to protect the confidentiality of confidential information obtained by the parties in connection with this case, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Any party or non-party may designate as “confidential” (by stamping the relevant page or other otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party or non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, or confidential business or financial information, subject to protection under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or Nevada law (“Confidential Information”). Where a document or response consists of more than one page, the first page and each page on which confidential information appears shall be so designated.

2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or in response to written discovery as “confidential” by so indicating in said response or on the record at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material. Additionally, a party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after receipt of said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, that specific pages of the transcript and/or specific responses be treated as “confidential” information. Any other party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection, the parties shall follow the procedures described in paragraph

1 8 below. After any designation made according to the procedure set forth in this paragraph,
2 the designated documents or information shall be treated according to the designation until 3 the matter is resolved according to the procedures described in paragraph 8 below, and 4 counsel for all parties shall be responsible for making all previously unmarked copies of the 5 designated material in their possession or control with the specified designation.

6 3. All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than 7 information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the 8 information is produced solely for the purpose of this case.

9 4. Except with the prior written consent of other parties, or upon prior order of 10 this Court obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be 11 disclosed to any person other than:

12 (a) counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house
13 counsel and co-counsel retained for this litigation;

14 (b) employees of such counsel;

15 (c) individual defendants, class representatives, any officer or employee of a 16 party, to the extent deemed necessary by Counsel for the prosecution or defense of this 17 litigation;

18 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of 19 this litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification
20 annexed to this Order as Exhibit "A" (which shall be retained by counsel to the party so 21 disclosing the Confidential Information and made available for inspection by opposing 22 counsel during the pendency or after the termination of the action only upon good cause
23 shown and upon order of the Court) before being shown or given any Confidential Information
24 and provided that if the party chooses a consultant or expert employed by [THE 25 CORPORATE DEFENDANT] or one of its competitors (as listed on Appendix A), the party
26 shall notify the opposing party, or designating nonparty, before disclosing any Confidential
27 Information to that individual and shall give the opposing party an opportunity to move for a protective order preventing or limiting such disclosure;

1 (e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;
2 (f) the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and 3 (g) witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)). A witness shall 4 sign the Certification before being shown a confidential document. Confidential Information
5 may be disclosed to a witness who will not sign the Certification only in a deposition at which
6 the party who designated the Confidential Information is represented or has been given
7 notice that Confidential Information shall be designated “Confidential” pursuant to paragraph 8 2 above. Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not be allowed to retain copies.

9 5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss 10 such information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, except 11 as set forth herein.

12 6. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, papers filed 13 with the court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to 14 file those documents under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the court’s electronic filing
15 procedures in accordance with Local Rule IA 10-5. Notwithstanding any agreement among 16 the parties, the party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the 17 presumption in favor of public access to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and County
18 of Honolulu, 447 F.2d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006); See also, Center for Auto Safety v. Chrysler
Group, LLC, 809 F.3d 1092, 1097 (9th Cir. 2016).

19 7. A party may designate as “Confidential” documents or discovery materials
20 produced by a non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant document
21 numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents or 22 discovery materials. Any party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others without 23 restriction any information designated by that party or non-party as confidential, although a 24 document may lose its confidential status if it is made public.

25 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, 26 such party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the 27 material. The party or non-party who designated the material shall have twenty-five (25) days

1 from the receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the 2 material as confidential. The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of 3 establishing that the document is entitled to protection.

4 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential
5 Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions
6 hereof unless and until one of the following occurs:

7 (a) the party or non-party claims that the material is Confidential Information
8 withdraws such designation in writing; or

9 (b) the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential
10 Information fails to apply to the Court for an order designating the material confidential within 11 the time period specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or 12 (c) the Court rules the material is not confidential.

13 10. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of 14 Confidential Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless 15 otherwise agreed or ordered. Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the possession of 16 Confidential Information, other than that which is contained in pleadings, correspondence,
17 and deposition transcripts, shall either (a) return such documents no later than thirty (30)
18 days after conclusion of this action to counsel for the party or non-party who provided such 19 information, or (b) destroy such documents within the time period upon consent of the party
20 who provided the information and certify in writing within thirty (30) days that the documents
21 have been destroyed.

22 11. The terms of this Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise apply to 23 the use of documents at trial.

24 12. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work
25 product protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure
26 of material protected by privilege or work product protection.

27 13. Any witness or other person, firm or entity from which discovery is sought may be informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order by written advice to the

1 parties' respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar
2 proceeding.

3 14. The court's jurisdiction over the protective shall terminate upon dismissal
4 of this case.
