

1 C. Contents of Joint Case Management Report

2 The Joint Case Management Report shall include the following information in 3 separately numbered paragraphs as designated below:

4 1. A short statement of the nature of the case (three pages or less), including 5 a description of each claim and defense;

6 2. The jurisdictional bases for the case, citing specific jurisdictional statutes. If 7 jurisdiction is based on diversity, the citizenship of each party shall be identified and the 8 amount in controversy must be stated;

9 3. Whether any party expects to add additional parties to the case or otherwise
10 amend the pleadings;

11 4. Whether there are any pending motions, including a brief description of 12 those motions;

13 5. Whether this case is related to any other case pending before this court or 14 any other court, including a bankruptcy court, and if so, provide a brief description of the 15 status of those case(s);

16 6. A complete and detailed statement related to discovery, which addresses
17 the following issues:

18 a) The date the Rule 26(f) initial disclosures were provided, or will be 19 provided, by each party;

20 b) A brief statement regarding, what discovery requests have been served 21 by any party, who the requests were served upon, and the due dates for responses to 22 those requests;

23 c) Whether the parties anticipate the need for a protective order relating to 24 the discovery of information relating to a trade secret or other confidential research,
25 development, or commercial information;

26 d) Any issues or proposals relating to the timing, sequencing, phasing or 27 scheduling of discovery;

28 e) Whether the parties anticipate the need to take discovery outside of the

1 District of Nevada or the United States and, if so, a description of the proposed discovery;
2 and,

3 f) A summary of the number of depositions each party anticipates taking,
4 information related to the anticipated location of those depositions, and whether any party
5 anticipates video and/or sound recording of depositions.

6 7. A brief statement regarding the types of ESI expected in the case, where
7 the ESI is located, a statement of any agreements reached by the parties related to ESI
8 on the issues listed above, and any outstanding disagreements between the parties
9 related to ESI.

10 8. In the event the Court has not already approved a discovery plan and 11 scheduling order, the parties shall include proposed firm dates for each of the following
12 pursuant to Local Rule 26-1:

- 13 a) A deadline for the completion of discovery;
- 14 b) A deadline for amending the pleadings and adding parties;
- 15 c) Dates for complete disclosure of expert testimony;
- 16 d) A deadline for the filing of dispositive; and,
- 17 e) A date by which the parties will file the joint pretrial order.

18 The parties shall state whether the dates proposed in this paragraph are within the 19 deadlines specified in LR 26-1(f). If so, then the parties' report shall state, "THE 20 DEADLINES SUBMITTED HEREIN ARE IN COMPLIANCE WITH LR 26-1(b)." If longer
21 deadlines are sought, the parties' report shall state "SPECIAL SCHEDULING REVIEW
22 REQUESTED." If the parties request special scheduling review of the LR 26-1(b)
23 deadlines, the parties shall include a statement of the reasons why longer or different time
24 periods should apply to the case. If the parties disagree as to the LR 26-1(b) deadlines,
25 a statement of each party's position on each point of dispute should be provided.

26 9. Whether a jury trial has been requested, whether the request for a jury trial 27 is contested (if the request is contested, set forth reasons), and an estimated length for 28 trial.

1 10. A statement as to the possibility of settlement and when the parties desire
2 a court sponsored settlement conference, i.e., before further discovery, after discovery,
3 after dispositive motions, etc.

4 11. Whether the parties intend to proceed before the magistrate judge.
5 Presently, when a civil trial is set before the district judges, any criminal trial set that
6 conflicts with the civil trial will take priority, even if the civil trial was set first. Continuances
7 of civil trials under these circumstances may no longer be entertained, absent good
8 cause, but the civil trial may instead trail from day to day or week to week until the 9 completion of either the criminal case or the older civil case. The parties are advised that 10 they are free to withhold consent or decline magistrate jurisdiction without adverse
11 substantive consequences.¹

12 12. Whether either party requests bifurcation or phasing of trial or has any other 13 suggestion for shortening or expediting discovery, pre-trial motions or trial.

14 13. Whether either party requests that a case management conference be set 15 in the case.

16 The parties are reminded that the filing of a dispositive motion does not stay a case
17 in federal court, nor does it excuse the parties with proceeding with their discovery
18 obligations as required by the Local Rules and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
19 Failure to follow the Local Rules and comply with discovery obligations without first 20 obtaining an order from the Court either delaying discovery requirements, staying 21 discovery or staying the entire case may result in sanctions.
