

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

United States of America

v.

Civil No. 09-cv-00153-JL

Bank of American Account
No. 008982906062, et al.

SUMMARY ORDER

The court was prepared to grant a hearing on this motion, but neither party requested one, and the court will thus rule on the written filings. The Motion to Vacate Judgment (document no. 13) is GRANTED.

Paragraph 8 of the claimant's reply gets it right; a mistake was made here, and the mistake was the court's. Both the clerk's office and the court frequently treat submissions such as the June 22nd letter as motions, and the failure to do so on this occasion was inadvertent, as was made plain by the court's eventual appointment of Attorney Kenna.

The United States Attorney may be correct that the forfeiture money judgment confession in the related criminal case may render this claim moot, and the court is hopeful that the claimant's counsel will give good faith consideration to that possibility in his future dealings with the United States Attorney in this case.

SO ORDERED.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Joe Laplante". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "J" and a long horizontal stroke at the end.
