

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Chad Lawlor

v.

Civil No. 10-cv-00445-JL

Jeffrey Bettez

ORDER AFTER PRELIMINARY PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

The Preliminary Pretrial Conference was held in chambers on March 8, 2011.

The Discovery Plan (document no. 14) is approved as submitted, with the following changes:

- Close of discovery - December 1, 2011
- Close of expert discovery

Plaintiff's expert disclosure - July 15, 2011

Defendant's expert disclosure - September 15, 2011

Supplements - November 15, 2011

- Summary judgment deadline - December 1, 2011
- Jury trial - April 2012

The defendant does not challenge jurisdiction, venue, or the claim that he was acting under the color of law.

Summary Judgment. The parties and counsel are advised that compliance with Rule 56(e) and Local Rule 7.2(b), regarding evidentiary support for factual assertions, and specification and delineation of material issues of disputed fact, will be required.

Discovery disputes. Discovery disputes will be handled by the undersigned judge, as opposed to the Magistrate Judge, in the normal course. No motion to compel is necessary. The party or counsel seeking discovery-related relief should confer with adverse counsel to choose mutually available dates, and then contact the Deputy Clerk to schedule a conference call with the court. The court will inform counsel and parties what written materials, if any, should be submitted in advance of the conference call.

Customary motions to compel discovery, while disfavored by the undersigned judge, are nonetheless permissible. If counsel prefer traditional discovery litigation to the conference call procedure set forth above, any such motion to compel should expressly request, in the title of the motion, a referral to the United States Magistrate Judge. Such referral requests will normally be granted. If the Magistrate Judge is recused, alternate arrangements will be made.

SO ORDERED.

Joseph N. Laplante
United States District Judge
