DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

United States of America

v.

Civil No. 10-cv-582-LM

$27,666 U.S. Currency

O R D E R

On today's date, a status conference occurred via telephone. Attorney Robert J. Rabuck appeared for plaintiff, and Attorney Charles A. Bookman appeared for claimant Adalberto Medina.

Consistent with matters discussed during the telephone conference, the parties will file on or before February 21, 2013, a joint request to continue the discovery schedule and trial in this case. Attorney Bookman is awaiting the return of documents that the state seized from his client during his client's arrest in the related state criminal prosecution. Attorney Bookman needs to review those documents in order to respond fully to pending discovery requests from the government in this case. Both parties are in agreement that a brief (three month) continuance is necessary.

Based upon counsels' representations during this telephone conference, the court will favorably entertain a joint motion to continue trial in this matter to the two-week period beginning September 16, 2013.

SO ORDERED.
