15 Plaintiff Bryan Mornyngstarr Bernard, who is confined in the Yuma County Detention

19 On October 30, 2012, Plaintiff filed an Amended Complaint (Doc. 5) and a deficient 20 Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (Doc. 4). The Court will transfer this action to 21 the United States District Court for the District of New Hampshire.

22 Title 28 U.S.C. § 1333(b) provides that a civil action in which jurisdiction is not based 23 on diversity may be brought only in:

(1) a judicial district in which any defendant resides, if all defendants are residents of the State in which the district located; (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated; or (3) if there is no district in which an action may otherwise be brought as provided in this section, any judicial district in which any defendant is subject to the court's personal jurisdiction with respect to such action.

1        In this case (which is not based in diversity jurisdiction), the named Defendant does 2 not reside in the State of Arizona. The sole Defendant is located in the State of New 3 Hampshire, and the events giving rise to the claims asserted in the Amended Complaint
4 occurred in New Hampshire. Accordingly, venue is not proper in this District.

6 venue in the wrong division or district shall dismiss, or if it be in the interest of justice, 7 transfer such case to any district or division in which it could have been brought.” The 8 decision to transfer under section 1404(a) lies within the discretion of the district court and 9 is to be determined upon notions of convenience and fairness on a case-by-case basis.
