INTERESTED PARTY'S MOTION FOR DECLARATORY
JUDGMENT OR RELIEF FROM STAY

To the Honorable Noel L. Hillman, Judge, Bankruptcy Court:

Now Comes Robert M. Josephs, a pro se Interested Party, (hereinafter "Josephs"), respectfully requests that this Honorable Court provide Josephs with a Declaratory Judgment that allows Josephs to proceed with his state small claims civil action against Nutro now pending in the Waltham District Court in Waltham, Massachusetts . In support of this Motion, Josephs states as follows:

- 1) On May 5, 2007, Josephs' two year old cat, Badger, passed away, after an illness after consuming Nutro Products, Inc. (hereinafter "Nutra") cat food for several months;
- 2) Josephs was directed to the Nutro's insurance carrier, the Hartford.
- 3) On September 26, 2007, the Hartford sent Josephs a letter rejecting Josephs' insurance claim and notifying Josephs that he may file a civil action, among other remedies;
- 4) On March 18, 2008, Josephs wrote to the Hartford requesting the Hartford to reconsider its decision, since Nutro did commit an unfair and deceptive business practice pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 93A section 9, by selling tainted cat food;
- 5) Josephs did not receive a response from the Hartford;
- 6) On May 13, 2008, Josephs sent a certified demand letter pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 93 section 9 to Nutro claiming Nutro committed an unfair and deceptive business practice;
- 7) On May 15, 2008, Nutro received the demand letter;
- 8) Nutro did not respond to the demand letter;
- 9) On June 26, 2008, Josephs sent a follow-up certified letter to Nutro demanding a response and absent a response Josephs would file a Civil Action against Nutro;
- 10) Nutro did not respond to the follow-up letter;
- 11) On July 29, 2008, Josephs filed the state small claims action in Waltham District Court, Waltham Massachusetts, entitled Josephs v. Nutro Products, Inc. and Rond Ong, President, Civil Action

No. 08SC0881

- 12) The Waltham District Court marked up the small claims Trial for September 15, 2008, at 9:00 A.M. Attached as Exhibit 'A' is the Statement of Small Claims and Notice of Trial in Josephs v. Nutro;
- 13) On August 13, 2008, Gary L. Justice, Esq., emailed me stating that his law firm, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, LLP, represents Nutro Products, Inc.;
- 14) Mr. Justice's email stated that "The preliminary approval order entered in the class action case provides for a stay of actions such as your small claims action, so the September 15 trial date will need to be vacated. Attached as Exhibit 'B' is the email from Gary L. Justice, Esq.;"
- 15) It is Josephs' position that the Stay established by this Honorable Court (hereinafter "Pet Food Products Liability Litigation Stay") the does not apply to Josephs' small claims action since the action is in state court and Josephs is not a Plaintiff in the "Pet Food Products Liability Litigation" now pending before this Honorable Court.

WHEREFORE, Josephs prays that this Honorable Court declare that:

1. The "Pet Food Products Liability Litigation Stay" does not apply to the case of Josephs v. Nutro Products, Inc. now pending in Waltham District Court, and that Josephs can proceed with the case of Josephs v. Nutro Products, Inc.

and

2. Enjoin Nutro Products, Inc. and its attorneys from asserting that a Stay is in place with regards to the case of Josephs v. Nutro Products, Inc. now pending in Waltham District Court;

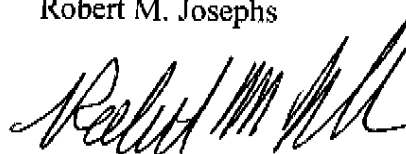

OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE:

3. Grant Josephs Relief from the "Pet Food Products Liability Litigation Stay" in order that Josephs can proceed with the case of Josephs v. Nutro Products, Inc.

Date: August 21, 2008

Respectfully submitted,
Robert M. Josephs

Signed:

Mr. Josephs: I spoke this morning with your law partner, Anthony Valdetaro, regarding the small claims action you have brought against Nutro Products, Inc. in Waltham, Massachusetts. Mr. Valdetaro said you are out until August 20, but I nonetheless left my direct phone (213 229-7446) and email (gjustice@gibsondunn.com) with him, and asked him to request that you contact me as soon as possible if he speaks with you. I am also copying Mr. Valdetaro on this email.

As you undoubtedly know, but as I explained to Mr. Valdetaro, the subject matter of your small claims action is also the subject matter of a nationwide class action pending in Federal court in New Jersey in which a settlement has already been preliminarily approved. I also explained to Mr. Valdetaro that full details of the settlement, applicable deadlines etc. may be found at www.petfoodsettlement.com

My law firm represents Nutro Products, Inc. ("Nutra") in the aforementioned class action lawsuit. The preliminary approval order entered in the class action case provides for a stay of actions such as your small claims action, so the September 15 trial date will need to be vacated. Please call me re this, and other matters. If we are unable to work this out informally, Nutro will, of course, see to it that local Massachusetts counsel is appointed to deal with the matter. Hopefully, that will not be necessary. I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience. Thank you.
