

dismissed with prejudice as any potential amendment as to this particular defendant would be futile.

The Court will permit plaintiff's claims against Corizon Health Care and Dr. Wynn to proceed past screening. The amended complaint does not merely allege a disagreement with the medical treatment plaintiff is receiving at the Cumberland County Jail which would be insufficient to state a § 1983 claim. See Lenhart v. Pennsylvania, 528 F. App'x 111, 115 (3d Cir. 2013) (per curiam) (stating that complaint that alleges physician was negligent in diagnosing and treating a medical condition does not state a valid claim of medical mistreatment under § 1983 and that mere disagreement as to proper medical treatment does not support a § 1983 claim of inadequate medical care). Instead, plaintiff alleges that there is a policy in place at the prison such that the prison does not provide rehabilitation narcotic pain medication or MRIs to inmates. See, e.g., Dickerson v. SCI Graterford, 453 F. App'x 134, 137 (3d Cir. 2011) (noting plaintiff needed to allege facts to demonstrate a policy on the part of the prison health care services to deny medical care) (citing Natale v. Camden Cnty. Corr. Facility, 318 F.3d 575, 583-84 (3d Cir. 2003)); Giamboi v. Prison Health Servs., Inc., No. 11-0159, 2011 WL 5322769, at *11 (M.D. Pa. June 2, 2011) (finding plaintiff had stated a claim where he alleged a custom or policy to provide the least amount of medical care possible and to not order MRIs even in situations in which there are clinical symptoms which are not explained by other tests such as X-rays), report and recommendation adopted by, 2011 WL 5244507 (M.D. Pa. Nov. 2, 2011). The Court finds that while sparse, the allegations in the complaint allege a policy such that the complaint will be permitted to proceed past screening with respect to Dr. Wynn and Corizon Health Care.
