THIS MATTER, being opened to the Court by Winston & Strawn LLP, attorneys for Defendants Natco Pharma Ltd., Arrow International Ltd., and Watson Laboratories, Inc. (collectively, “Defendants”), by way of Defendants’ Motion to Seal Certain Portions of the October 22, 2014 Electronic Transcript of the conference held before the Honorable Madeline Cox Arleo, U.S.M.J. (the “Transcript”); and Plaintiff Celgene Corporation (“Celgene”) joining in Defendants’ Motion; and the Court having considered the submission, proposed sealed information, Local Civil Rule 5.3, and the governing case law; and the Court having considered the factors contained in Local Civil Rule 5.3(c)(2), the Court makes the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

- Certain portions of the Transcript contain certain trade secret and/or confidential research, development, commercial and proprietary information that is considered “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” by Defendants and/or Celgene under the Discovery Confidentiality Order (“Confidentiality Order”) entered in the case.
- Defendants and Celgene have a legitimate interest in protecting the confidentiality of their trade secret information and/or other confidential business plans or strategies for existing products or products in development.
- Public disclosure of this information would cause Defendants and Celgene significant harm because public disclosure of their trade secret information and/or confidential business plans or strategies for existing products or products in development would provide the public insight into the business and operations of Defendants and Celgene, and would give competitors an unfair advantage.
- There is no less restrictive alternative available than to seal such information because the proposed sealed information is limited in scope and includes only certain portions of the Transcript that contain information that is considered “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” under the Confidentiality Order.

WHEREFORE, the Court having found that the relief sought is warranted; and for good cause shown,

IT IS on this ____ day of _____, 2014

ORDERED as follows:

1. Defendants' Motion to Seal Certain Portions of the October 22, 2014 Electronic Transcript is hereby granted.

2. The following portions of the October 22, 2014 Electronic Transcript are hereby redacted and sealed:
