

Even if the necessary fees are paid and the complaint is accepted for filing, the Court may nevertheless immediately dismiss the case. The Court must review the complaint and dismiss it if it finds that the action (1) is frivolous or malicious, (2) fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or (3) seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief. See id. § 1915(e)(2)(B); see also id. § 1915A(b).

If the plaintiff has, on three or more prior occasions while incarcerated, brought an action or appeal in a court that was dismissed on any of the grounds listed above, he cannot bring another action in forma pauperis unless he is in imminent danger of serious physical injury. See id. § 1915(g).

Mr. Wilcox's application to proceed in forma pauperis included only three months of certified prison account statements, not six as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2). Accordingly, the Clerk of the Court will be ordered to administratively close the case. Mr. Wilcox may reopen this action, however, by either paying the filing fee or submitting a complete in forma pauperis application.
