2. The Complaint fails to state a claim against Waldron. The allegations in the Complaint center around Plaintiff's assertions that the prison's delay in delivering his legal mail, which included an order denying his federal habeas petition, resulted in his loss of opportunity to appeal the habeas denial. ECF No. 1 at 6. The Court fails to see how any of those allegations would implicate Waldron. Indeed, as Plaintiff himself admits in the Complaint, "the prison not the federal clerk is more likely responsible for the opinion reaching me two months late[.]" id., and there is no allegation whatsoever explaining how Waldron was personally involved in the delay. As such, Plaintiff's claim against Waldron is dismissed.
