Any papers that Plaintiff files in response to this order must include the civil cause number (No. 1:19-cv-01081-KRS) of this case.

Plaintiff asserts claims of "theft," account "hack[ing]," "extortion, domestic terrorism, and espionage," which occurred from "July 25, 2017 - November 16, 2019," against Microsoft Corporation, Google LLC, and their employees. Compl., at 2-5. Plaintiff alleges that "Illegal Theft and code pushed out by developers and programmers to my self The Lead Developer Wilfred Alexander Page in an attempt to Steal my Trusted Security Certificates that allow me to act on behalf of the Microsoft Corp. and the Google LLC Corp.” Compl., at 3 (misspellings in the original). Plaintiff states he is “asking that an investigation be done and all employees['] actions looked into and proper charges are pressed on behalf of Myself Wilfred Alexander Page C/O Bill Gates and Pichai Sundararajan respective persons and CEO.” Compl., at 5.

The Complaint fails to state a claim against the Defendants. A complaint must “give the defendant fair notice of what the . . . claim is and the grounds upon which it rests.” Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007). The Complaint must “make clear exactly who is alleged to have done what to whom, to provide each individual with fair notice.” Robbins v. Oklahoma, 519 F.3d 1242, 1249-50 (10th Cir. 2008) (emphasis in original). The Defendants would not know what wrongdoing he or she is alleged to have committed based on Plaintiff’s vague allegations against unnamed individuals regarding events on unspecified dates during the period from “July 25, 2017 - November 16, 2019.” See Nasious v. Two Unknown B.I.C.E. Agents, at Arapahoe County Justice Center, 492 F.3d 1158, 1163 (10th Cir. 2007) (“[T]o state a claim in federal court, a complaint must explain what each defendant did to him or her; when the defendant did it; how the defendant’s action harmed him or her; and, what specific legal right the plaintiff believes the defendant violated.”).

The Court notifies Plaintiff that the Complaint may be dismissed for failure to state a claim and gives Plaintiff an opportunity to amend the complaint or otherwise respond. Plaintiff shall have within twenty-one (21) days of entry of this Order to file an amended complaint that states a claim upon which relief can be granted or show cause why the Court should not dismiss this case for failure to state a claim. Failure to timely file such an amended complaint or show cause may result in dismissal of this case.
