FINAL JUDGMENT AND ORDER OF REMAND

On October 25, 2017, the Court entered a Memorandum Opinion and Order, and Final Order, denying Plaintiffs' petition to overturn that portion of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service's "Endangered and Threatened Wildlife and Plants; Designation of Critical Habitat for Jaguar," 79 Fed. Reg. 12,572 (Mar. 5, 2014) (Final Rule) designating Unit 6 and the New Mexico portion of Unit 5 as unoccupied critical habitat but granting the petition with respect to the designation of Unit 6 and the New Mexico portion of Unit 5 as occupied critical habitat. (Docs. 76 and 77).

On March 17, 2020, the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals reversed this Court's October 25, 2017, decision to deny the petition as to the designation of the unoccupied critical habitat, and remanded the matter to this Court for further proceedings consistent with its Judgment. See New Mexico Farm & Livestock Bureau v. United States Dep't of Interior, 952 F.3d 1216 (10th Cir. 2020). On May 11, 2020, the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals issued a mandate regarding its March 17, 2020, Judgment. (Doc. 84).

Having granted Plaintiffs' request to vacate the Final Rule as it relates to Unit 6 and the New Mexico portion of Unit 5 by a Memorandum Opinion and Order entered contemporaneously with this Final Judgment and Order of Remand,

IT IS ORDERED that

1. the Final Rule's designation of Unit 6 and the New Mexico portion of Unit 5 as either an occupied or unoccupied critical habitat for the jaguar is vacated;
2. the remainder of the jaguar critical habitat designated in the Final Rule is unaffected by this vacatur and remains in place pursuant to the Final Rule; and
3. this matter is remanded to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service for further consideration consistent with the Tenth Circuit's May 17, 2020, Judgment.
