Case No. 2:20-cv-00031 KG-KRS

ORDER GRANTING JOINT MOTION TO MODIFY THE SCHEDULING ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the Parties' Joint Motion to Modify the Scheduling Order, (Doc. 87), filed August 31, 2022. The parties ask for an approximately 90-day extension of all deadlines in this case, stating the documents produced thus far number in the tens of thousands and additional documents are still being produced. (Doc. 87) at 2. The parties state they need additional time to analyze and review the documents, fill in documentary gaps, issue subpoenas to third parties, and conduct depositions and expert discovery. Id. at 2-3.

In the Court's last order extending the scheduling order deadlines, the Court stated that no further extensions will be granted absent a showing of exceptional cause. (Doc. 70). The parties have had an extraordinarily long discovery period and the Court is hesitant to grant another extension. However, this case involves a large number of documents and has not been set for trial. Moreover, the parties confirmed at the August 25, 2022 status conference that their discovery delays would not preclude their ability to be prepared for the September 27, 2022
