EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

-against-

VIOLET MOODY,

Defendant.

ORDER

98-CV-5574 (FB) (CLP)

Appearances:

For the Plaintiff:

LIBERATORE JOSEPH IANNARONE
FRANCIS E. MULLEN
Mullen & Iannarone, P.C.
300 E. Main Street
Smithtown, NY 11787

For the Defendant:

VIOLET MOODY, pro se

BLOCK, Senior District Judge:

The Court has received a letter from Violet Moody stating that she has fully paid the default judgment against her in the above-captioned action. The Court construes such letter as a motion for a hearing to determine whether the Court will issue an order of garnishment. Although the United States of America has not yet moved for such an order, in an effort to expedite the proceedings and to give Ms. Moody, who is proceeding pro se, adequate time to prepare, the Court orders Ms. Moody to submit to the Court documentation by December 18, 2015, demonstrating that she has fully paid the judgment. Should the United States of America dispute Ms.

Moody's claim, it shall respond within one week of the Court's receipt of her documentation to satisfy the Court that a balance on the judgment is still outstanding. Decision on a motion for a hearing is deferred pending receipt of the parties' submissions.

SO ORDERED.
