Defendants.

Plaintiff Cheryl D. Uzamere, appearing on her own behalf, states and alleges the following:

INTRODUCTION, JURISDICTION AND VENUE

Introduction

1) On or after February, 1980, Plaintiff filed a complaint with the federal agency formerly known as the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service (hereinafter "INS). Plaintiff filed the complaint in response to what she believed to be a green-card-scam marriage in which her husband, Ehigie Edobor a.k.a. "Godwin" Uzamere abandoned the Plaintiff who was pregnant with his daughter at the time that the husband and his immigration attorneys, Harvey

Shapiro and Allen Kaye, tricked Plaintiff into signing sponsorship papers to enable the husband to obtain lawful permanent residence in the United States (see marriage license, birth certificate of child of the marriage, child's photo, husband's photos, herein Exhibits A1-3, B, C and D1 and D2).

2) Plaintiff signed said sponsorship papers on or around Wednesday, November 28, 1979, one week after the marriage. At the date and time of the marriage, Plaintiff did not know that the husband was an alien who had not obtained lawful permanent residence in the United States. Plaintiff was unfamiliar with any and all aspects of immigration law during her brief courtship with the husband. Additionally, Plaintiff did not realize at the time of the marriage that the name "Godwin Uzamere" used on the marriage license, certificate and officiant statement was fictitious.

3) That during Plaintiff's brief courtship, the husband met Plaintiff's family such that Plaintiff's family recognizes the husband by both names.

4) That the husband, with the help of immigration attorneys Allen Kaye and Harvey Shapiro, enlisted the cooperation of the INS to change the husband's name from the fictitious name "Godwin Uzamere," to the real name "Ehigie Edobor Uzamere."

5) That the illegal disparity created by the husband's use of the two names subsequently created an illegal loophole that allowed various governmental agencies' not to view "Godwin Uzamere" and "Ehigie Edobor Uzamere" as the same person (see Family Court documents, herein Exhibit E1 and E2).

6) After Plaintiff signed the sponsorship papers for the husband, Plaintiff was never contacted by the INS to meet with any immigration official for an interview to determine whether the marriage was a convenience marriage, in violation of Title 8 of the United States Code.

7) Up to and including the present time, no federal agency has reported or even acknowledged the illegal disparity that the husband and his attorneys caused by allowing two different names to exist on the aforementioned documents. No federal agency has ever investigated its records for the existence of identification for "Godwin Uzamere." Furthermore, no federal agency has reported the existence of the illegal disparity caused by the creation of the husband two (2) different names, in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. §4, regarding the misprision of a felony.

8) Up to and including the present time, no federal agency has reported the commissions of any of the husband's crimes to the Nigerian government, where the husband is a senator.

9) Plaintiff contacted Defendant the United States Department of State (hereinafter "DOS") to obtain the telephone number of Nigeria's president and Nigerian law enforcement agencies to report the husband's crime of bigamy to the Nigerian government (here in Exhibit E).

10) The Defendant DOS along with the aforementioned Defendants have refused to provide Plaintiff with contact information for the aforementioned entities, thus preventing the Plaintiff from identifying "Godwin Uzamere" and "Ehigie Edobor Uzamere" as the same person.

11) The existence of 099-20-2291, the fictitious social security that the husband used and was later located by the New York City Department of Social Services' Bureau of Child Support Enforcement, and 053-64-7854, the number under which the husband owes a student loan is prima facie evidence that various governmental agencies failed to view "Godwin Uzamere" and "Ehigie Edobor Uzamere" as the same person.

12) In or around August, 1980, officials from Defendant the INS visited Plaintiff's apartment at 500 Herzl Street for the purpose of verifying Plaintiff's allegations.

13) In spite of prima facie evidence that the husband never lived with the Plaintiff, Defendant INS allowed the husband to retain his permanent residence and years later, naturalized the husband as a lawful U.S. citizen while the husband was married to two women at the same time.

14) None of the Defendants ever filed a complaint with reference to the commission of any of the husband's crimes listed above; nor was the husband ever prosecuted by any federal agency because of husband's commissions of the aforesaid crimes.

15) During Plaintiff's pregnancy and throughout the entire life of Plaintiff's minor child, no federal agency to which the Plaintiff petitioned, filed any formal complaint regarding the abandonment of the Plaintiff and the minor child by the husband; nor did any federal agency legally responsible for the enforcement of child support file any complaint regarding the abandonment of the Plaintiff and the minor child by the husband, in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. §4, misprision of felony, and/or any relevant federal statutes that existed at the time of the husband's commissions of the aforesaid crimes.

16) That several months after Plaintiff was abandoned by the husband, Plaintiff visited the office of a "Mr. Sava" who worked for Defendant INS to file a complaint that the husband abandoned her after being sponsored for lawful permanent residence. Sometime later, Plaintiff received a letter from Mr. Sava stating that "Ehigie Edobor Uzamere entered the port of New York, New York, January 28, 1980 as a lawful permanent resident." However, Defendant INS never made any other attempt to report the husband's abandonment of her and the minor child or to assist in reporting what appeared to Plaintiff to be a prima facie case of marriage fraud, in violation of Title 8 U.S.C. §1325(c), marriage fraud, and in violation of U.S. Code Title 18 U.S.C. §4, misprision of felony, and/or other relevant federal statutes that existed at the time of the husband's commission of the aforesaid crimes.

17) In 1982, unbeknownst to the Plaintiff, the husband married a Nigerian woman named Iriagbonse Irowa (see Exhibit D2).

18) On or around October 1, 2003, the Plaintiff received a letter from the husband's attorney Jack Gladstein, in which Jack Gladstein asked for Plaintiff's cooperation to participate with the husband in an "amicable divorce"; the aforementioned letter is the husband's tacit admission that he was still married to Plaintiff and Iriagbonse simultaneously (herein "Exhibit G").

19) After Plaintiff sent Jack Gladstein two letters demanding documentation verifying the identity of the husband, and a letter to the Grievance Committee regarding what Plaintiff considered to be an illegal/unethical act, the aforesaid attorney informed Plaintiff that he would no longer represent the husband (herein Exhibit H1 and H2). However, Mr. Gladstein never sent the Plaintiff any documentation verifying the identity of the husband.

20) According to Kathie Baker of the United States Department of State, Plaintiff's husband is a naturalized U.S. citizen; said naturalization having been obtained while the husband was presently engaged in the crime of bigamy.

21) Plaintiff contacted the Defendants by telephone, e-mail and fax concerning her knowledge of various violations committed by the husband that Title 8 of the United States Code describes as crimes of moral turpitude, and that husband's commission of said crimes took place before during and after the husband was naturalized by the Defendant the INS.

22) On or around February 25, 2008, three (3) days after Plaintiff filed the first federal Complaint with this Court, Plaintiff was unable to access <http://africandiasporal.tripod.com/thecriminalandimmoralactsofchiefehigieedoborakagodwinuzamere>, a website that Plaintiff created to garner support from the public regarding the crimes that the husband committed against the Plaintiff and the child of the marriage (herein Exhibit I). While attempting to access the aforesaid website, Plaintiff discovered that the aforesaid website, including websites <http://africandiasporal.tripod.com>, a website detailing the Judaic religious source of anti-black racism in the United States (herein Exhibit J1-J7) and <http://africandiasporal.tripod.com/uzamerewordprocessing>, a website for Plaintiff's fledgling typing service were removed for "terms of service" violations. As of the date of filing the Amended Complaint, Defendant Jaewoong Lee, and Daniel Sullivan, Lycos' General Counsel continues to refuse to give Plaintiff any specific proof regarding Defendant's claims that Plaintiff violated a term or terms of service. Defendant Google/YouTube has done the same thing (herein Exhibit K1 and K2).

23) During the ensuing years in which Plaintiff applied for and received public assistance for herself and the child of the marriage, Plaintiff provided the New York City Human Resource Administration/Department of Social Services with pertinent information about the husband, including the name "Ehigie Edozor Uzamere" and his birthplace in Nigeria. At no time during the years in which Plaintiff had custody of the child of the marriage did the City of New York or any of its subdivisions contact any federal agency regarding the husband.

24) Since the first filing to this complaint, Plaintiff has experience an increase of harassment (or being ignored) by the Defendants, as well as Defendants' family, friends, professional associates and members of Defendant Ehigie Uzamere's political party in Nigeria. Defendant Jack Gladstein has refused to provide Plaintiff with proof of Defendant Ehigie Uzamere's identity or any other information since October 2003. Eric Prus, the judge presiding over Plaintiff's divorce action, refuses to place the action in abeyance until Defendant Ehigie Uzamere's identity is legally determined. Lastly, Plaintiff contacted all U.S. governors to discover if Defendant Ehigie Uzamere married or has aliases in other states (herein Exhibit L).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

25) This Court has jurisdiction over this matter based on 28 U.S.C. 1332(a) since the amount requested by plaintiff is in excess of $75,000.00.

26) This Court also has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. 1331, which states that “the district courts shall have original jurisdiction of all civil actions arising under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States.”

EQUITABLE TOLLING FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE

27) Ballentine’s Law Dictionary describes the word “fugitive of justice” as: “A person who departs a jurisdiction (or conceals herself within the jurisdiction).” It is a well-settled federal statute that there is no statute of limitation for individuals who flee from justice. It is also established within federal laws that a fugitive’s physical absence from the jurisdiction is not required to trigger tolling of statute regarding the commission of a crime. In the case of the husband, the tolling for federal judicial intervention regarding the husband’s crimes of moral turpitude started on November 21, 1979, the day that the husband used the fictitious name “Godwin Uzamere” to marry the Plaintiff. Furthermore, tolling of the statute regarding the husband’s crimes of moral turpitude continued when the husband used the fictitious social security number 099-20-2291 to conceal himself with U.S. and New York State jurisdiction.

28) Furthermore, Plaintiff alleges that the federal, state and municipal Defendants, whose responsibility it was to thoroughly investigate the complaints that she made regarding the crimes that the husband committed against her and the child of the marriage were routinely ignored. Plaintiff alleges that not only have attorney Defendants not performed those duties necessary to ensure that the identification provided by the husband was correct, but attorney Defendants and governmental Defendants let Plaintiff and the child of the marriage suffer economic deprivation from the husband and social isolation, defamation of character and other forms of social terrorism by members of the husband’s ethnic group (see various insults from Nigerians Plaintiff’s YouTube and Lycos websites.

29) Plaintiff has been unable to secure her husband's immigration records due to the Federal Privacy Act; the effects of the Defendants' application of said act has been instrumental in facilitating the husband's felonies, but deleterious for the Plaintiff and the child of the marriage.

30) Plaintiff alleges that in her case and in the case of the child of the marriage, the husband's successful creation of a fictitious identity and social security number facilitated his abandoning his legal responsibility to care for his child; and that such abandonment took place over a 21-year-period, so that any imposition of a statute of limitations would be unduly harsh, prejudicial in favor of the Defendants and not in the best interest of justice.

31) Plaintiff alleges that contained in the husband's federal records are documents were signed by the Plaintiff, and that said documents have been intentionally withheld by the federal Defendants to hide the felonious relationship that the husband and his immigration attorneys have with various employees of the federal Defendants, and to hide prima facie evidence that the husband's immigration attorneys showed the husband how to defraud the Plaintiff in order to circumvent the "spirit of the law" while satisfying the "letter of the law," and that the husband's divorce attorney emulated the immigration attorney's course of conduct by preparing to present to the Court the husband's fictitious name, and refusing to provide to the Plaintiff evidence of the husband's real identity up to and including the date of the filing of this Complaint.

32) Plaintiff further alleges that, based on the lack of response from all the Defendants, that Plaintiff's faxes regarding her complaints of the husband's crimes were intentionally misplaced or discarded by the federal, state and municipal Defendants, so that reliance on the Defendants to produce said records of complaints may be an exercise in futility for the Court. Plaintiff believes that telling the Defendants about the existence of her well-documented websites, namely,

<http://africandiasporal.tripod.com/thecriminalandimmoralactsofchiefehigieedoborakagodwinuza>
<http://getjusticeforanamericanschvartze.tripod.com>, <http://www.youtube.com/cuzamere> and <http://www.myspace.com/cuzamere>, and the Defendants refusal to report or act on the irrefutable evidence of the husband's crimes as contained in said websites is sufficient proof for this Court to establish the veracity of the Plaintiff's allegations (please note: as of the filing of the Amended Complaint, the websites have been removed by Lycos and YouTube).

33) The action of each of the Defendants by failing to provide an accounting to the Plaintiff as to their failure to report Plaintiff's complaints regarding the husband, the commission of the husband's crimes and the newly committed federal violations by Defendants Jaewoong Lee of Lycos, Inc. and Dr. Schmidt of Google, Inc. constitute continuing torts that tolls the statute.

COUNT I -- VIOLATION OF TITLE 18 U.S.C. §4 MISPRISION OF FELONY

34) Plaintiff alleges that the Defendants failed to act in a manner that guaranteed that Plaintiff's complaint regarding her husband's crimes was reported to the appropriate government agency or agencies that existed during that time that the Defendants received said complaints.

35) Plaintiff alleges that the Defendants' failure to report the husband's crimes of moral turpitude to the appropriate governmental agencies has inflicted great mental and emotional distress on Plaintiff.

36) Plaintiff alleges that the Defendants continued their acts of misprision of the husband's felonies by refusing to report the husband's violation of the New York State Penal Code, Section 175.35, offering a false instrument for filing in the first degree; said felony a form of fraud that is viewed by Title 8 of the United States Code as a crime of moral turpitude.

37) Plaintiff alleges that the Defendant continued their acts of misprision of the husband's felonies by failing to report the husband's violation of the New York State Penal Code, Section 260.05, non-support of a child in the second degree; said crime that, although a misdemeanor, is viewed by Title 8 of the United States Code as a crime of moral turpitude.

38) Plaintiff reiterates and re-alleges the same allegation of Defendants' misprision of the husband's felonies regarding every crime so enumerated with the same force.

39) Plaintiff alleges that up to and including the present, Defendants continue to conspire to pretend not to view the names "Godwin Uzamere" and "Ehigie Edobor Uzamere" as both belonging to the husband.

40) Plaintiff alleges that up to and including the present, the Defendants continue to conceal the husband's simultaneous marriages from other federal agencies, from the public, and have failed to work with the foreign government where the husband is employed as a senator so as to bring the husband to justice.

41) Plaintiff further alleges that the Defendants have formed an illegal alliance with the husband's immigration attorneys Allen Kaye, Harvey Shapiro and Jack Gladstein by hiding the illegal disparity that was created by the husband's use of the names "Godwin Uzamere" and "Ehigie Edobor Uzamere; said disparity further exacerbated by the assistance of the husband's attorneys Allen Kaye and Harvey Shapiro; that the aforesaid attorneys continue to allow the disparity to exist by not reporting it in a manner that would precipitate an criminal investigation of the husband; and that the aforesaid attorneys continue to allow the disparity in the husband names to exist by withholding documentation from the Plaintiff so as to prevent the Plaintiff from verifying the husband's identity.

COUNT II – VIOLATION OF TITLE 18 U.S.C. §1961 -- §1968
RACKETEERING INFLUENCED AND CORRUPT ORGANIZATION ACT

42) Plaintiff alleges that based on several occasions in which various African American women alleged to have been victims of green-card-marriage scams perpetrated by Nigerian men, that the federal Defendants, with the help Allen E. Kaye, Harvey Shapiro and Jack Gladstein have established an illegal enterprise in which the aforesaid Defendants attorneys show Nigerian immigrants how to trick African American women into marriage, trick them into signing the sponsorship applications, and then direct them to divorce attorneys who circumvent the spirit of the Federal Patriot Act, which requires financial institution to demand governmental identification. Defendant attorneys, with the help of those federal Defendants concerned with immigration and naturalization matters then “fast-track” the applications so as to ensure that Nigerian immigrants’ applications/requests for permanent residence are quickly granted without the applications being questioned or scrutinized.

43) Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants’ participation in the enterprise of falsifying the applications of Nigerians seeking permanent legal residence is in violation of federal laws identified as “RICO” laws and further violates Title 18 U.S.C. §4, regarding the misprision of felony.

COUNT III – VIOLATION OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT

44) Plaintiff alleges that the Defendants frequently work in concert with attorneys of a specific ethnocentric group that have more political power than do the African American women who have been victimized by the clients of the aforesaid attorneys; that the fraudulent marriages that are the product of a conspiracy by the immigration lawyers of said ethnic group and their Nigerian clients intentionally target African American women because of the low social status that has been forcibly placed on African American women by members of the Defendant attorneys’ ethnic group.

45) Plaintiff further alleges that a disproportionate percentage of the attorneys with whom the Defendants engage in the enterprise of illegal immigration belong to an ethnic group that teaches that blacks are meant to be enslaved; and that said doctrine, while not the cause, is

46) used by attorneys of said ethnic group to rationalize the abuse of African American women in much the same manner as it was used to rationalize the enslavement of African slaves, that is, for financial enrichment.

COUNT IV – VIOLATION OF H.R. 3162, SEC. 326
THE PATRIOT ACT -- VERIFICATION OF IDENTIFICATION

47) Plaintiff states that although the aforesaid statute specifically applies to banks, the Court should not misconstrue the law to imply that federal agencies and attorneys, who are officers of the Court, can circumvent the “spirit of the Patriot Act” by allowing immigrant clients to present falsified names or other false information to them that may eventually be submitted to the Court as true.

48) Plaintiff states that proof of the aforementioned statement is reflected in New York State Penal Code, Section 175.35, offering a false instrument for filing in the first degree; said felony a form of fraud that is viewed by Title 8 of the United States Code as a crime of moral turpitude; and as such, is consistent with the “spirit” of the Patriot Act.

49) Plaintiff further states that in the best interest of justice, the Court must not misconstrue Plaintiff’s unfamiliarity with the finer point of federal law in a way that would allow the Defendants’ the opportunity to misapply the law, or for the Defendants to rely on the Court to misapply the law in such a manner that the “letter of the law” is obeyed, but the “spirit of the law” is not. Plaintiff states that the Court must obey the entire law whether Plaintiff knows it or not.

COUNT V – VIOLATION OF THE FEDERAL REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973 VIOLATION OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

50) The Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1979 holds that it is illegal for any agency that received federal funding to discriminate against an individual based solely on the individual’s status as being mentally ill. Furthermore, the Americans with Disabilities Act prohibits governmental agencies from withholding services from individuals who are disabled and governmental agencies are in fact, required to provide accommodations for said individuals.

51) At points throughout the 28 years in which she petitioned the Defendants for assistance in reporting and prosecuting the husband, Plaintiff alleges that the Defendants intentionally ignored her because of Plaintiff's status as being mentally ill; and that said status was the rationalization Defendants used to regard Plaintiff's complaints as not credible, in spite of Plaintiff's providing Defendants with irrefutable proof of her allegations against the husband.

COUNT VI – VIOLATION OF FIRST AMENDMENT FREEDOM OF SPEECH

52) Plaintiff alleges that her right to use Defendant's Jaewoong Lee and Lycos' site to disseminate documents that irrefutably established Plaintiff's allegations of crimes perpetrated by the husband was intentionally violated. Further to this, Plaintiff alleges that irrefutable proof of her statements regarding Judaic religious dogma that advocates anti-black racism was removed as an excuse to extort the Plaintiff's silence, thereby allowing the aforesaid Defendants to intentionally violate Plaintiff's right to freedom of speech.

COUNT VII – CONSPIRACY TO VIOLATE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS DEPRIVATION OF FREEDOM OF SPEECH

53) As of the date of the filing of the Amended Complaint, website <http://africandiasporal.tripod.com/thecriminalandimmoralactsofchiefhigieedoborakagodwinuzamere> was removed by Defendant Lycos, Inc. for as yet unspecified "terms of service" violations that did were not mentioned until approximately three day after Plaintiff filed the federal complaint.

54) Plaintiff alleges that the data that was contained in Plaintiff's websites will be destroyed, constituting destruction of Plaintiff's intellectual property, or, not returned to Plaintiff in a timely manner in an attempt to extort Plaintiff's silence.

55) Plaintiff alleges that Plaintiff's evidence, the aforesaid website's removal within three (3) days of the filing of the original federal complaint, along with Defendant's inability to provide Plaintiff with a legal, or at very least, a plausible reason for Defendant's claim that Plaintiff violated a condition or conditions within the Defendant's terms of service is not a coincidence, but an act of conspiracy where Defendant Lycos, Inc. was impelled to remove Plaintiff's websites.

56) Plaintiff alleges that Defendant Lycos' intention to remove the website <http://africandiasporal.tripod.com> was meant to extort Plaintiff's silence, insofar as the aforementioned website makes references to various Jewish religious books that teach that dark-skinned/black people are cursed by God. Further to this, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' belief that the discovery of this information on Plaintiff's website will infuriate Jewish judges within the federal court system is shared by the Plaintiff as well. Plaintiff alleges and agrees with Defendant's assessment that obtaining an impartial decision after a Jewish judge discovered the existence of the aforesaid website would be virtually impossible. Plaintiff is terrified and alleges that, like the Defendant(s), she believes that exposing the aforesaid website will prevent this Court from using the website regarding the husband's crimes as evidence and would also ensure that Jewish judges within this Court would not try Plaintiff's action in a just manner.

COUNT VIII – OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE

57) Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have consistently withheld proof of Senator Ehigie Uzamere's identity and/or whereabouts from the Plaintiff. Furthermore, Plaintiff also alleges that on various attempts that she uploaded information regarding Defendant Ehigie Uzamere's various crimes onto the internet, along with irrefutable proof of same, Defendants Google/YouTube, Inc. and Lycos, Inc. have blacklisted Plaintiff from using their websites. Plaintiff further states that the State of New York, by its agency the New York State Grievance Committee for the 2nd and 11th District have refused to entertain Plaintiff complaint regarding Defendant Jack Gladstein's obvious attempt to trick Plaintiff into divorcing his client using the fictitious name said client used to marry the Plaintiff. Further to this, Defendant City of New York, from the time that Plaintiff applied for public assistance and supplied Defendant the New York City Human Resources Administration with adequate information for the aforesaid Defendant to contact federal immigration authorities, neither Defendant City of New York nor Defendant New York City Human Resources Administration have never contacted federal immigration authorities to locate Defendant Ehigie Uzamere.

COUNT IX – EXTORTION

58) Plaintiff alleges that Defendant Ehigie E. Uzamere from the day that Plaintiff reported Defendant Ehigie Uzamere’s crimes to various law enforcement agencies, Defendant Ehigie E. Uzamere withheld his whereabouts, proof of his identity and money from the Plaintiff, and caused members of his family and community to do the same to the Plaintiff and to Plaintiff’s daughter. When Defendant Ehigie Uzamere believed that Plaintiff was desperate to divorce him, Defendant Ehigie Uzamere contacted Defendant Jack Gladstein to trick Plaintiff into divorcing him using Defendant’s fictitious name. When Plaintiff should herself not to be compliant, both Defendant Ehigie Uzamere and Defendant Jack Gladstein ended all discussion with the Plaintiff.

DEMAND FOR AN ACCOUNTING

59) Plaintiff, on her own behalf, re-alleges as if fully set forth, each and every allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs.

60) Plaintiff respectfully asks that the Court consider that Plaintiff is not an attorney; further to this, Plaintiff suffers depression and bipolar disorder for which Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court provide Plaintiff with an attorney;

61) Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court consider the effects that a lifetime of Defendants’ abuse has had on Plaintiff’s ability to accurately recant all the detail in the Complaint, and that the Court instead rely on documentation that the Court, in its discretion will allow the Plaintiff to subpoena.

62) Plaintiff demands judgment (a) to require Defendants to make a full disclosure of the identity and documentation of the husband to the Plaintiff; (b) to set aside the Federal Privacy Act insofar as Plaintiff's demand for said documentation is based on crimes already committed and presently in commission by the husband; (c) to consolidate all of Plaintiff's husband's documents held under the fictitious named "Godwin Uzamere" with all federal files and relevant documentation held under the husband's named "Ehigie Edobor Uzamere"; (d) to perform a countrywide criminal investigation of the husband to ensure that he does not have fictitious identities within U.S. boundaries; (e) to require the husband to return to the United States to face trial; (f) to denaturalize the husband based on prima facie evidence presented by Plaintiff of the husband's crimes; (g) to provide Plaintiff with the name of Nigerian officials and/or agencies to allow Plaintiff to file a complaint in Nigeria; (h) to compel the Defendants to provide the Nigerian government with a copy of Plaintiff's complaint; (i) to compel the Defendants to immediately provide the Nigerian government with already-proven facts, including proof that Plaintiff's husband and Senator Ehigie Edobor Uzamere are one and the same person; (j) to launch an investigation on all Defendant attorneys to determine the following: (1) the accounting of number of Nigerian men who received green-card-marriage-sponsorship services and divorce services; (2) the number of Nigerian men who received green-card-marriage-sponsorship and divorce services from the same defendants; (3) the name of the judge(s) who oversaw the proceedings; (4) the nationalities of the women who married and then divorced their Nigerian husbands; (4) whether the divorces were contested or uncontested; (5) if the marriage resulted in children; (6) if there were children of the marriage, whether the children received child support from the Nigerian father; (k) and to financially compensate Plaintiff with 100,000,000.00 for 28 years of mental and emotional distress.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands a jury trial and judgment and damages against the Defendants, jointly, severally and/or in the alternative, as follows:

- a) Access to all federal records of the husband;
- b) $100,000,000.00 in punitive damages as a result of Defendants intentional infliction of emotional/mental distress upon the person of the Plaintiff.
- c) For a full-fledged criminal investigation against the husband;
- d) To be apprised of all stages of the criminal investigation as a victim of the husband's crimes and to be viewed by the Defendant's as a crime victim.
- e) Other issues to be determined during the preliminary conference;
- f) For the cost of this action.

November 11, 2007

The Honorable George Bush
President of the United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20500

Subject: Refusal of Condoleeza Rice's staff to Report/Prosecute Alien Involved in Immigration Fraud, Identity Fraud, Social Security and Bigamy

Dear Mr. President:

On or around November 9, 2007, I spoke with Ms. Mary Ellen Sariti, an employee working in the American Citizen Services division of the U.S. Department of State, an agency headed by Ms. Condoleeza Rice. In response to my inquiry regarding my husband, Senator Ehigie Edobor Uzamere of Nigeria, Ms. Sariti told me that my husband married a Nigerian woman in 1982 whose name she tacitly admitted to be Iriagbonse Irowa.

I told Ms. Sariti that I married someone by the name of "Godwin" Uzamere on November 21, 1979, and that "Godwin" Uzamere is the same person as Ehigie Uzamere (see marriage license, attached). I also sent an e-mail to Ms. Sariti with a link to the following website: <http://africandiasporal.tripod.com/thecriminalandimmoralactsofchiefehigieedoborakagodwinuzamere>. This website has a picture of my husband identical to the picture that Ms. Sariti described to me from her files.

My husband is guilty of immigration fraud, identity fraud and bigamy. My husband went so far as to retain Jack Gladstein to divorce me using my husband's fictitious first name "Godwin" (see letter, attached). These are crimes of moral turpitude that under normal circumstances would make an individual eligible for denaturalization and deportation.

I suspect the following: either someone in Ms. Rice's office (and/or the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Citizenship and Immigration Services) has been paid off, or that the United States has a diplomatic relationship with Nigeria such that the oil and/or other economic benefits that the U.S. government receives from Nigeria "negates" the U.S. government's desire to prosecute Nigerians who violate federal or state law.

Lastly, I believe that anti-non-foreign-black racism plays the largest part in why federal agencies continue to ignore my cries for justice. In my divorce action (Supreme Court Kings County Index No. 26332-07), I ask the Court to grant me $20,000,000.00 in property distribution and child support. If I receive this money, I will be able to pay off my federal student loan. I believe that if I was Jewish or some other foreigner, the United States government would go after the Nigerian government to ensure that it enforces my divorce settlement. However, because I am a non-foreign-black American, the United States government does not give a damn about me or about my daughter.

If someone from your office does not contact me personally to reassure me that your administration will do something to: 1) prosecute and "denaturalize" Senator Uzamere for immigration fraud, identity fraud and bigamy; and 2) capitalize on the U.S. government's diplomatic relationship with Nigeria to ensure that the Nigerian government recognizes and enforces the financial terms of my divorce, I will make no further efforts or arrangements to pay off the student loans that I owe the state and federal government (please refer to <http://www.nigeria-law.org/Matrimonial%20Causes%20Act.htm>, Marital Causes Act of Nigeria, Part VI, §81(2), §81(3)(a), (b) and §81(6)). I will do everything humanly possible to ensure that, until the U.S. government assists me, I will pay nothing.

Additionally, I will tell Judge Prus (the judge handling my divorce) that I made every effort to solicit the federal government's help in prosecuting my husband for the crimes he has committed, but that federal government refuses to assist me.

I respectfully ask that you do all you can to ensure that Ms. Rice speaks to President Yar'adua of Nigeria to ensure that Nigerian criminals like my husband do not take advantage of the U.S. government's petrol-soaked, diplomatic relationship with Nigeria while helpless, unprotected, non-foreign black women like me and my daughter are subjected to the onslaught of emotional and economic terrorism by Nigerian diplomats specifically and the non-diplomatic Nigerian community at large.

I will not stand for it.

Respectfully,

Cheryl D. Uzamere

Re: Uzamere v. Uzamere
Index No. 26332-07

Dear Honorable Sir:

In October, 2003 the defendant retained the services of this firm to begin a divorce proceeding. A few weeks later Mr. Uzamere contacted our firm and requested that we stop all work on his file and informed us that he would not require our services. Accordingly we informed the plaintiff of same by correspondence on November 11, 2003, see our fax cover, letter and transmission receipt attached hereto. We do not understand why the plaintiff has involved this firm since we do not represent anyone in this action and have no knowledge about the facts in this case. We do not understand why the plaintiff continues to send, fax, email documents to our office as well as call this office.

We are not a party to this action in any manner. It is requested that you note and mark your files accordingly.

If there are any questions, please feel free to contact this office.

Sincerely,

Jack Gladstein

Re: Uzamere v. Uzamere

Dear Mr. Gladstein:

I received your letter dated October 1, 2003 regarding your firm's representation of my husband, Godwin Uzamere. Please note that although I acknowledge receipt of this correspondence, I must also acknowledge that this letter does not contain "Ehigie Edobor Uzamere," the name which is recognized by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (now BCIS), Pratt University, the Social Security Administration and me. Additionally, as of the date of this letter, I have never received any correspondence from your office via certified mail or any other manner that CPLR §308 considers properly completed service of process.

Please understand that my stating an objection to the manner in which your letter was delivered to me is twofold: 1) to object to the statement "By Certified Return Receipt Mail" which appears in your correspondence dated October 1, 2003; and, 2) to ensure that you do not send or serve any other correspondence with similar false claims of having properly completed service of process (that is, if you have not already done so).

In the past, my husband and the law firm that represented my husband for his immigration case took advantage of my lack of legal knowledge, my emotional state and my financial inability to retain legal counsel. Thus far, your office has done the same to me, insofar as it has:

- 1) presented a letter to me that makes a statement that is blatantly false;
- 2) refused to tell me my husband's address so that I can serve him with papers;
- 3) made no attempt to tell me if my husband intends to provide me with funds so that I can pay for an attorney;
- 4) refused to confirm or deny (in writing) whether my husband is married to another woman (which both my husband and his brother John claim);
- 5) contacted me within weeks of my having filed a complaint with the Disciplinary Committee, 1st Department against my husband's immigration attorneys;
- 6) sent the aforesaid letter containing my husband's alias, not his full name.

October 13, 2003

I believe that, like the immigration law firm that represented my husband, your office knows (or at least suspects) that my husband had a living spouse at the time that he married me, giving the impression that your office is either suborning perjury, or relying on "plausible deniability" to explain away my husband's current felonious conduct. I would not be surprised if the law office of Allen Kaye has already contacted you and advised you to proceed with this divorce in such a way so as to give the impression that my husband did not have a living spouse at the time he contracted to marry me, and to continue the pretense that my husband's full name was "Godwin E. Uzamere" at the time that we married. I make this presumption based on the fact that the only documents I have ever seen with the named "Godwin" are the marriage certificate and accompanying certificate of officiant. Hiding my husband's marriage to another woman – especially if he married this woman using the name "Ehigie E. Uzamere" would legally require me to commence an action to declare the nullity of a void marriage, not an action for a divorce. Filing an action for a divorce makes the legal presumption to the court that my marriage to my husband was legal at its inception. My contention is not that my husband abandoned me – my claim is that my husband had a living spouse at the time he contracted to marry me; and that his sole reason for marrying me was to obtain permanent residence.

I presently receive social security insurance for bipolar disorder, for which I was hospitalized and diagnosed in 1993. I am presently taking Zoloft for major depressive disorder. Social security insurance is a form of welfare. I also receive medicare and medicaid. New York State Temporary Disability has determined that I am unable to engage in substantial and gainful employment.

Although I have prepared the poor person's order, its accompanying affidavit, action for the divorce and its accompanying affidavit, I am terrified that just like in the past, I will be tricked (or bullied) into signing forms, representing myself, and eventually I will be deprived of any and all rights to any other forms of legal redress because of my stupid and desperate attempts to defend myself legally.

Your office, like the law office of Allen Kaye, my husband's immigration attorney, has no concern for the spirit of the law, on which the letter of the law is based. Although my husband was able to, for a short time, use Allen Kaye's office and its ability to employ legal loopholes and my naivete to commit immigration fraud, the end result of this is that our daughter was denied both child support and the opportunity to grow up with her father. I was left in financial and emotional shambles by my husband and his law firm's complicity to trick me into signing papers. I was rendered incapable of holding down a job from then until the present time. I, as well as my children, became financial burdens of the state. My son is still a financial burden of the state, as a result of my putting him in foster care. I am a financial burden to the state. Although I want to work, I have been fired from so many jobs that I seriously doubt that anyone will ever want to hire me.

Although this case centers around my husband, I will make it my personal business to shut your law firm down for defending my husband's constant attempts to force me to engage in felonious conduct. I will send a copy of this letter to the departmental disciplinary committees in both Manhattan and Brooklyn, to report that your office is suborning perjury by allowing my husband to pretend that he is not married to another woman besides me.

October 13, 2003

Since I am too emotionally stressed to proceed pro se, and too destitute to retain an attorney, I can see no other way to strongly encourage you to convince my husband to give me money to pay for an attorney, but to go after your company, and for this I am sorry. Further to this, please note that any attempt to misrepresent facts, either material or immaterial, will be met with a swift complaint to the aforementioned disciplinary committees.

Because I am not an attorney, I have presently chosen not to present documents to you as such. However, I am making a formal request that within the next 30 days, your office produce the following documents to me:

- 1) produce photographic proof that Godwin/Ehigie is the individual who retained your services and who is known to me as my "husband";
- 2) produce a plan by which Godwin/Ehigie will provide me with money so that I can pay for an attorney; if he refuses, state the reason(s) for the refusal;
- 3) produce Godwin/Ehigie's actual legal domicile/residence to determine if he is within or without the state;
- 4) produce the name of Godwin's/Ehigie's wife (or wives) and children if such information exists;
- 5) produce the date of Godwin's/Ehigie's marriage to his wife (wives);
- 6) produce documentation detailing Godwin's/Ehigie's plan to provide me with the financial means to care for myself during the pendency of this case;
- 7) produce all documents your office has received from Godwin/Ehigie;
- 8) produce all documents your office has received from the law office of Allen Kaye, or any other law firms that have contacted you regarding Godwin/Ehigie;
- 9) produce all past and pending litigation currently filed against Godwin/Ehigie, and all other aliases, tribal names, etc., by which this person is known;
- 10) produce all litigation currently filed by Godwin/Ehigie, and all other aliases, tribal names, etc., by which this person is known;

October 13, 2003

- 11) produce all aliases, tribal names, birth names, etc. by which Godwin/Ehigie is also known, both within and without the state;
- 12) produce an affidavit from Godwin/Ehigie that he does not have a living spouse either within or without the state; said affidavit must state that Godwin/Ehigie does not have an alias, tribal names etc. under which he currently has a living spouse; also include all other names by which Godwin/Ehigie is known;
- 12) produce all past and current marriages of "Godwin E. Uzamere," "Ehigie E. Uzamere, including, but not limited to documents in the United States and its territories, and documents in Nigeria;
- 13) produce all church and religious documents regarding "Godwin E. Uzamere" and "Ehigie E. Uzamere"; said documents include but are not limited to 1) birth certificate; 2) baptismal certificates, including but not limited to documents originating from the United States and its territories, and documents from churches in Nigeria;
- 14) produce a certified copy of the baptismal certificate and/or document of baptism if the aforesaid document exists; if said document exists, produce a certified copy of the church's marriage license, certificate or documentation of officiant who performed the marriage ceremony;

Godwin/Ehigie has never paid child support. He left me on the day that we married. He defamed both me and our daughter to his family. He paid a law firm to trick me into signing papers that made me the unwitting participant to at least one felony. That "a leopard cannot change its spots" is a fitting analogy in this sordid tale of my husband's use of sex, lies and morally defunct law firms to bend or break the law. I did not want to be a party to it in 1979; I will not be a party to it now.

Your refusal to cooperate with me will only result in continued dealings with me as a victim who has been mentally and emotionally disabled as a result of egregiously felonious conduct perpetrated by Godwin/Ehigie and his attorneys, instead of dealing with an attorney with whom you can plan an "amicable solution." It will result in my filing a claim against you and Godwin/Ehigie for the continued intentional infliction of mental and emotional distress for refusing to cooperate with my request for Godwin/Ehigie to provide me with money so that I can pay for my own attorney. It will also result in my taping -- from this moment on -- any and all conversations that I have with you until such time that I have retained an attorney. Lastly, please understand that no matter how annoying I may appear to be to you, that unless my husband pays for me to have an attorney, you must correspond with me, insofar as I have no choice but to proceed pro se.

To Whom It May Concern:

Following this page please find a letter I received from Jack Gladstein, Esq., of the law offices of Gladstein & Messinger. Also enclosed is a letter that I sent to Mr. Gladstein making a formal request for documents. Mr. Gladstein claims to represent my husband, Godwin Uzamere.

Godwin Uzamere, is not my husband's real name. My husband's real name is Ehigie E. Uzamere. I believe that Jack Gladstein knows my husband's real name. I believe that when my husband retained Mr. Gladstein's services, he retained him using his real name. However, I believe that Mr. Gladstein is facilitating my husband's fraud by helping my husband maintain the alias under which my husband married me. Additionally, Mr. Gladstein claims to have sent this letter via certified mail. I have never received any correspondence from him via certified mail.

I have asked Mr. Gladstein to submit proof of my husband's identify, to ensure that the person that claims to be my husband is actually my husband. Mr. Gladstein has chosen not to do so.

I believe that it is wrong for an attorney to help his client submit false identification to the court. I believe that for an attorney not to require identification from his/her client and to go along with a client who submits false identification is suborning perjury. It is bad enough that he lied about sending the attached letter via certified mail.

I have suffered enough because of my husband. Mr. Gladstein's refusal to verify my husband's identify, coupled with his sending me a legal document with a fake name intensifies and exacerbates the mental and emotional distress that I have endured for the past 24 years as a result of my husband's felonious conduct..

Many years will pass until we see another World Trade Center. Part of the reason why we don't have one now is because of attorneys who allow foreigners to use fraudulent credentials.

Protecting our borders starts with attorneys.

Respectfully,

Cheryl D. Uzamere

THE CRIMINAL AND IMMORAL ACTS OF SENATOR CHIEF EDOBOR (A.K.A. "GODWIN") UZAMERE

My descent into the hell that began within weeks of meeting Chief started innocently enough. Although I met him in 1973, we did not even share our wishes and romance until I met him again in 1978. At that time, I had already had a son, Grand P. Walker, out of wedlock.

Chief was like a breath of fresh air. He acted like a gentleman. In an attempt to answer to not having a husband, He used to accompany our family to the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses. On an occasion when my mother invited him over for dinner, my brothers and sisters asked him many questions. One of my family members asked him if there were lions and elephants in Nigeria. Chief quickly said yes. My family was surprised and happy to have made the acquaintance of a black person from Africa. Of course, our question sounded very stupid to Chief. I am sure that my family's stupidity regarding the identification of places like Henry City and Lagos faced Chief's ability to identify me because we all appeared to be very simple to him.

In any case, we became intimate very quickly. I became pregnant the same month we started dating. Although Chief never bought me an engagement ring or wedding ring, I was sure that I was in love with him.

When we first applied for the marriage license in Brooklyn, New York, Chief did something very strange. He applied for the license using the first name "Godwin". A few days later we were married on November 21, 1979. On that day Chief came back with me to my parents' home and told me that I could not get into him. The following week, he returned and asked me to accompany him to the tax offices of Allen Kaye and Harvey Shapiro. While there, I signed papers that I now realize were sponsorship papers. Chief essential told me that as my parents' lawyer, again told me that I could not go with him, but was to write a note for me and return for Nigeria.

He never came back to get me.

On one occasion, Chief, along with his older brother Nasayaba (John), asked me to accompany them to Chief's apartment. While there, both Chief and Nasayaba asked me to have an abortion. I told them both I could not do that. Needless to say, Chief's plan never included his becoming a father. For me a real husband is abouting his child's name of legal with him under the circumstances.

Some weeks after we were married my father became very angry with me. He asked me when Elgie was coming back to get me. Without a reasonable explanation to give my father, all I could do was silently listen to his rambles about my husband only marrying me for a green card. Eventually, in a fit of anger, he demanded that I call Elgie's attorney to ask them if Elgie had a green card before I married him. I contacted Harry Shapiro of Allen Kase's office. Upon asking Mr. Shapiro if my husband had a green card at the time I married him, Mr. Shapiro said "no".

In the month of October, 1978, I became pregnant. I was also dishonorably shipped by the orders of the Brownsville congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses for conduct unbecoming a Christian. A few months after that, in March, my father evicted me saying that I was no longer a Duncan and that he would have nothing to do with taking care of my husband's child. The following month, in April, 1979, I was fired from my job. In May 1979, I went to Family Court to apply for child support. I was never able to get any child support from Elgie. Elgie reported to Family Court that he was a college student and not working.

Not long after I became mentally ill.

Some years later, while a recipient of public assistance (welfare), I was able to obtain the social security number 099-20-2391 from the City's Child Support Enforcement Bureau. Based on information obtained from the Social Security Administration, this number is fictitious.

The Social Enforcement Bureau was able to pay for college and evade the City's Child Support Enforcement Bureau as well as a host of devious ploys since I made a point to report as much information about him as I could. I told the City the college Elgie was attending so that I might obtain some money to help take care of my daughter. I even told the City Ndayaba's address as the only chance that the City would be able to obtain Elgie's whereabouts based on his close relationship with his elder brother. However, I was never successful.

During the entire course of our daughter's life, I recall on two or three separate occasions between 2003 and 2006 Elgie never paid my money towards the care of my daughter. In fact, Elgie made a point to tell his family that Tara was not his child, although he has never filed a divorce action against me for others (as far as I know).

I saw Elgie again around 1981-1982. He did not tell me where he lived, and because I was still stupid, I did not know what to do to win him back or to get out from him what my intentions were toward me and his daughter Tara, who was in that area as foster care.

I tried to make some contact with his brother, Ndayaba, his wife, Ethel and the few prominent men that I knew at the time. All of them were content to have no involvement with either me or Elgie's daughter, Tara. And all were willing to hide Elgie's whereabouts from me and from Elgie's daughter.

Around December, 1998, Elgie called my name and spoke to our daughter, Tara. He promised to send Tara $500.00 to help her out. He refused to tell his daughter where he was coming from or where he lived. When she finished speaking with her father, she asked me, "Mummy, why doesn't my father love and I had started crying. All I could do was take her by the arms and utter her a name. I didn't have any answers to give her.

From that sad point in the past until the present, trying to find Ebigie for the purpose of divorcing him has been hell. Trying to contact him on his cell phone numbers (347) 873-8180 has yielded no results. Sending e-mails to chiefkazamer@yahoo.com has also yielded no results.

For Ebigie to show such disrespect towards me and our daughter when he should be contrite and helpful in assisting me to end a messy divorce is indicative of a delusional, amoral mind.

The hell that materialized soon after Ebigie made his entrance into my life may have been masterminded by Ebigie, but it has had its share of participants. As in the case of many "green card" marriage scams, immigration lawyers, the victim's family members, government agencies and yes, even members of the public that belong to the scammer's ethnic group participate in hiding essential information from the victims of said scam -- even if the victims are children of the scammers themselves.

Anti-black racism is seen, at least superficially as a societal scourge that has all but been eradicated from mainstream American and Western European societies. Sure, there are a few die-hard individuals, mostly displayed by the media as KKK or Neo-Nazi white Christian splinter groups that routinely preach the inferiority of dark skin to their members. The media, in its depiction of racists, always points to white Christians as the individuals who introduced the idea of white supremacy and the inferiority of dark-skinned Africans to mainstream white Christian society. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

The Babylonian Talmud, a book of European Jewish history and lore, explains its now centuries-old religiously-fomented rationalization of the inferiority of dark skin on page 108b, where it reads: "Our Rabbis taught: Three copulated in the ark, and they were all punished - the dog, the raven and Ham. The dog was doomed to be tied, the raven excrementates [his seed into his mate's mouth], and Ham was smitten in his skin." (This is footnoted and the footnote reads: "I.e., from him was descended Cush (the Negro), who is black-skinned.")

Another European Jewish document, the Midrash Rabbah (Soncino) Vol. 1, p. 293 says: "AND HE SAID: CURSED BE CANAAN (Breishit 9:25); (Commentary omitted). R. Huna also said in R. Joseph's name: You [i.e. Noah is speaking to Ham] have prevented me from doing something in the dark [i.e. cohabiting with his wife], therefore your seed will be ugly and dark-skinned. R. Chiyva said: Ham and the dog copulated in the Ark, therefore Ham came forth black-skinned while the dog publicly exposed its copulation."

Mr. Lester, a Jewish man who posted comments on the internet regarding Judaism said the following regarding the book Artsot Ha Hayyim: "In 1992 a book was published by a leading member of the Satmar community entitled Artsot Ha-Hayyim. On p. 52 he explains, and quotes other rabbis, that the reason Abraham Lincoln was killed was because he freed the blacks. This is also the reason why Kennedy was killed, i.e. because he was good to the blacks. He continues by saying that this will be the fate of any who adopt a progressive attitude towards blacks, because they are meant to be enslaved. His source for this is Ham's curse." (Please see pages 52A and 52B of Artsot Ha-Hayyim, below.)

Artsot Ha Hayyim contains the names of many rabbis.

Louis Ginzberg authored the book Legends of the Jews. In Vol. 1, page 169 Mr. Ginzberg writes: "The descendants of Ham through Canaan therefore have red eyes, because Ham looked upon the nakedness of his father, they have misshapen lips, because Ham spoke with his lips to his brothers about the unseemly condition of his father, they have twisted curly hair, because Ham turned and twisted his head round to see the nakedness of his father; and they go about naked, because Ham did not cover the nakedness of his father. Thus he was requited, for it is the way of G-d to mete out punishment measure for measure. ...The last will and testament of Canaan addressed to his children read as follows: "Speak not the truth; hold not yourselves aloof from theft; lead a dissolute life; hate your master with an exceeding great hate; and love one another."

The Torah Anthology, another European Jewish document, details the true origin of the slanderous belief of the inferiority of dark skin in Vol. 1, p. 392-3: "Ham received five punishments: 1. Because he looked at his naked father, his eyes became red, always appearing bloodshot. 2. Because he mocking told his brothers about his father's condition, his lips were made thick and gross, like those of a Negro. 3. Because he turned his head to see his father, the hair of his head and beard became kinky. 4. Because he did not cover his father, it was decreed that he always go naked. We thus see that slaves in Egypt go naked. They even did so in Egypt. This was not because of poverty, since it is impossible to imagine that none of them would have enough money to buy clothing. The reason is that they live in a hot, damp climate, and it is very uncomfortable to wear clothing. The reason for this is their geographical location, since the Hamitic tribes live in tropical climes. It was this curse that caused them to live there. They must therefore go naked and become blacked by the sun. The fifth curse will be discussed later."

At this website, Mr. Lester goes on to say: "The curse of Ham was something I learned of as a child and could not understand its origin from the words in Genesis. The curse of Ham was widely used by slave owners in the South to justify the enslavement of blacks. In my studies of slavery I was unable to find the basis. Only when I began studying Torah and various commentaries did I find the source. Somehow the rabbinic commentaries made their way into Christian culture and became an underpinning for anti-black racism."

Mr. Shapiro, a Jewish man who responded to Mr. Lester's post ends by saying: "How to defeat racism? Torah is obviously not the answer since so many Jews who spend their whole lives immersed in Torah are racists."

It does not make sense to believe that any Christian, white, black or green, would or could introduce to the world any religious concept based on the first book of the Bible. The first book of the Bible was written in Hebrew. Religious teachings based on this book would best come from individuals who speak Hebrew. White Christians, for the most part, do not speak Hebrew. European Jews, on the other hand, do.

According to the Encyclopedia Judaica, under the subtitle "Slavery", Spanish and Portuguese Jews acted as brokers during the African slave trade.

The European Jewish community (in particular its rabbis) had the religious knowledge and authority to disseminate both truth and falsehood in the name of God and the Torah. Using this position of authority to profit financially was the real reason for the promulgation of the defamatory religious myth. This defamatory religious myth resulted in the creation of

The fate of those who violated the ban on cohabitation:
 חַמָּוּן - The Rabbis taught in a Baraita: שְׁלֵשָׁה עָשָׂר יָמִים - THREE COHABITED WHILE IN THE ARK, וְנִדְבָקוּ - AND ALL OF THEM WERE AFFECTED: בְּלֵיל יְהוּדָב יָבֵט - THE DOG, THE RAVEN AND NOAH'S SON CHAM, בְּלֵיל יָבֵט - THE DOG WAS וְנִדְבָקוּ - AND CHAM WAS AFFECTED IN HIS SKIN.
 Having discussed the raven, the Gemara contrasts it with the dove, which Noah sent out afterwards:
 וְהַיּוֹנָה אֲמַר יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ לֵרְאוּ לָנוּ אֶת אֶרֶץ כְּנָעַן - Scripture states:
 וְהַיּוֹנָה שֶׁנִּשְׁלַח לְרַחֵם אֶת הָעוֹלָם וְלִבָּרְכָם וְלִשְׁמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - He (Noah) sent out the dove from him to see whether the waters had subsided. In contrast, when speaking of the raven, Scripture does not state that Noah sent it out from him.
 ר' ירמיהו אָמַר - R' Yirmiyah said: מִכָּאן שֶׁרִיבֵי עוֹלָם מִיְהוָה מִשְׁמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - From here we learn that the proper habitat of clean birds is with the righteous.
 The behavior of the dove:
 וְהַיּוֹנָה שֶׁנִּשְׁלַח לְרַחֵם אֶת הָעוֹלָם וְלִבָּרְכָם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - Scripture states: The dove came back to him in the evening, and behold, a plucked (olive) leaf was in its bill. The word תָּרַף alludes to food.
 ר' ירמיהו אָמַר - R' Yirmiyah said: מִכָּאן שֶׁרִיבֵי עוֹלָם מִיְהוָה מִשְׁמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - The verse alludes that the dove said before the Holy One,

Blessed is He: רְבוּנוּ עַל עַמְּךָ - "Master of the Universe, may thy food be bitter as an olive but dependent upon You, rather than sweet as honey dependent upon flesh and blood," i.e. human beings.
 The Gemara provides the basis for this exposition:
 וְהַיּוֹנָה שֶׁנִּשְׁלַח לְרַחֵם אֶת הָעוֹלָם וְלִבָּרְכָם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - What indication is there that the word תָּרַף connotes food?
 - For it is written: Feed me (holocaust) my portion bread.
 The Gemara discusses the extent to which Noah cared for the animals inside the Ark:
 וְהַיּוֹנָה שֶׁנִּשְׁלַח לְרַחֵם אֶת הָעוֹלָם וְלִבָּרְכָם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - Scripture states that after the Flood, all living beings, by their families, come out of the Ark.
 ר' יוחנן אָמַר - R' Yochanan said: מִכָּאן שֶׁרִיבֵי עוֹלָם מִיְהוָה מִשְׁמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - They were by their families, not by themselves.
 The Gemara continues:
 ר' חזון בר ברקא אָמַר רב יואב בר בון - R' Chazon bar Barca said: אֵלֶּיךָ לְשֵׁם רִבְקָה - Elishev, the servant of Abraham, once said: Noah's son, Shem the Great: לְשֵׁם רִבְקָה - It is written: by their families, come out of the Ark.

וְהַיּוֹנָה שֶׁנִּשְׁלַח לְרַחֵם אֶת הָעוֹלָם וְלִבָּרְכָם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - Scripture states: The dove came back to him in the evening, and behold, a plucked (olive) leaf was in its bill. The word תָּרַף alludes to food.
 ר' ירמיהו אָמַר - R' Yirmiyah said: מִכָּאן שֶׁרִיבֵי עוֹלָם מִיְהוָה מִשְׁמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - From here we learn that the proper habitat of clean birds is with the righteous.
 The behavior of the dove:
 וְהַיּוֹנָה שֶׁנִּשְׁלַח לְרַחֵם אֶת הָעוֹלָם וְלִבָּרְכָם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - Scripture states: The dove came back to him in the evening, and behold, a plucked (olive) leaf was in its bill. The word תָּרַף alludes to food.
 ר' ירמיהו אָמַר - R' Yirmiyah said: מִכָּאן שֶׁרִיבֵי עוֹלָם מִיְהוָה מִשְׁמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - The verse alludes that the dove said before the Holy One,

NOTES

Ark, again lists men and women separately. However, Iyyan Yaakov explains (on the basis of Berachot Rabbot 34b) that, although permitted to procreate, Noah did not want to do so until God swore that there would never be another Flood (see also Sifri Yodot and Chazkuni).
 The reason cohabitation was forbidden for the inhabitants of the Ark is that it would have been inappropriate to procreate while the world was being destroyed. Similarly, the Sages have taught (Taanit 11a) that it is forbidden to engage in marital relations during a period of famine, and even one who has food must afflict himself in order to share in the suffering of his brethren (see Mishnah and Chazkuni Seder).
 37. Dogs are subjected to the indignity of remaining attached ("tied") for some time after coitus, and are thus unable to procreate modestly (see Yerushalmi; see also Yod Ramah and Berachot Rabbot 30:1; see also Seder 38). Alternatively, dogs are commonly chained or kept on a leash by their owners in order to prevent them from attacking others (Yod Ramah).
 38. Rashi explains that the raven was condemned to spit seed from its mouth into the mouth of its mate.
 39. For he best Kushi (Kushi). Kushi was Cham's fraternal and was conserved in the Ark (Yod Ramah). Rashi points out that the Gemara's statement indicates that Cham's own skin was also affected. See also Berachot Rabbot 38:11 with Mevay Kakanah, and see Ben Yehoyada.
 Although only humans possess the intellect to obey or disobey commandments, the animals in the Ark heeded instinctively God's will that they refrain from procreation, for they sensed instinctively the inappropriateness of procreating while the world was being destroyed. That the dog and the raven did not share this innate sensitivity is indicative of their dissociation with the rest of Creation. Indeed, although dogs are very faithful to their masters, they are widely despised and feared by others. And ravens are exceedingly unapproachable, even to their own offspring (see Psalms 147:9 and Ecclesi 22a) (Mishnah, Chazkuni Seder).
 40. Genesis 8:6.
 41. It merely states (ibid. 8:7): וַיִּשְׁלַח אֱלֹהִים אֶת הַיּוֹנָה וְהֵשִׁיב אֶת הַיּוֹנָה.
 42. It is fitting for clean, i.e. kosher birds to take up habitat with righteous people, for these birds recognize virtuous attributes, as indicated elsewhere in the Talmud (Rashi; see Seder 38b and Ben Mevay 88a). Therefore, the dove as well as the other kosher birds dwelled in the upper deck of the Ark, together with Noah and his family. That deck was reserved chiefly for humans, but also contained the creatures that associate with righteous humans. Thus, when Noah sent out the dove, he sent it from him (Maharsha; see Berachot Rabbot 31:14).
 43. Ibid. v. 11.
 44. For תָּרַף can be read תָּרַף, which means food or sustenance, as the Gemara will demonstrate. Furthermore, תָּרַף can be interpreted as תָּרַף its mouth. Thus, the phrase וְהַיּוֹנָה שֶׁנִּשְׁלַח לְרַחֵם אֶת הָעוֹלָם וְלִבָּרְכָם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם means, he sent, an olive leaf was the food (it requested) with its mouth. The Gemara goes on to explain this (Rashi; see Rambam and Warhaft to Genesis loc. cit., and see R' or Seder).

 45. All the dove's needs were provided for by Noah in the Ark, as the Gemara states below. Yet, it returned with an olive leaf in its mouth demonstrate that it preferred a bitter olive leaf plucked from the tree and thus obtained directly from the hand of God, to dependent on human being, even one as magnanimous as Noah. This should serve as a lesson to humans, for whom it is infinitely more embarrassing to depend upon others. Living simply and within one's means is preferable by far to indulging in luxuries and being assisted by others (Yod Ramah, Roshan ibid., Maharsha, see Seder 11a and Seder 31b).
 The dove, among other creatures, possesses innately certain qualities (see Erum 100b). In this instance, although the dove is obviously incapable of rationalizing its action, it chose instinctively to pluck a wild olive leaf for its meal, rather than accept Noah's magnanimity (Maharal; see also Gur Aryeh to Genesis loc. cit.).
 46. Proverbs 30:6.
 47. The word תָּרַף is a derivative of the root תָּרַף.
 48. Genesis 8:10.
 49. The commentators offer various interpretations of this verse's statement.
 Rashi explains it as meaning that while inside the Ark each species (family) of animal dwelled separately and was fed individually, different species did not eat from the same trough. This comment introduces the next segment of Gemara, which discusses the difficulty Noah had to handily encountered in providing the proper food for each species.
 Yod Ramah explains this comment to mean that each family of animals left the Ark complete, as no animal died in the ark, and individual animals did not leave the Ark complete - they were weakened considerably by the twelve-month ordeal of living in confined quarters. Thus, this comment is a continuation of the previous discussion, in which the dove's sustenance to be sustained by Noah is mentioned.
 R' Yehoyah Pih, in his marginal gloss here, alludes to another explanation: The Gemara states (Chulin 58a) that no kosher animal lives longer than twelve months. Therefore, then, those of the kosher species that were brought into the Ark did not survive to leave it twelve months later. Rather, they entered while incubating their young, and died in the Ark, and the young that were born in the Ark survived, leaving it after the Flood. Thus, each family of animals left the Ark, the specific creatures that entered it did not necessarily leave it.
 See Maharsha for yet another interpretation.

וְהַיּוֹנָה שֶׁנִּשְׁלַח לְרַחֵם אֶת הָעוֹלָם וְלִבָּרְכָם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - Scripture states: The dove came back to him in the evening, and behold, a plucked (olive) leaf was in its bill. The word תָּרַף alludes to food.
 ר' ירמיהו אָמַר - R' Yirmiyah said: מִכָּאן שֶׁרִיבֵי עוֹלָם מִיְהוָה מִשְׁמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - From here we learn that the proper habitat of clean birds is with the righteous.
 The behavior of the dove:
 וְהַיּוֹנָה שֶׁנִּשְׁלַח לְרַחֵם אֶת הָעוֹלָם וְלִבָּרְכָם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - Scripture states: The dove came back to him in the evening, and behold, a plucked (olive) leaf was in its bill. The word תָּרַף alludes to food.
 ר' ירמיהו אָמַר - R' Yirmiyah said: מִכָּאן שֶׁרִיבֵי עוֹלָם מִיְהוָה מִשְׁמַחֵם וְלִשְׂמַחֵם - The verse alludes that the dove said before the Holy One, fruit it bears is sweet, be it dry or moist. It rejoiceth the heart of man."

¹ Katon is used in both verses; in the second in the sense that it was too small and consequently unfit; v. Zeb. 59b. Ham was actually not the youngest son, as appears from the order, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
² According to the Rabbis he castrated him.
³ Sc. Canaan; v. x, 6. ⁴ Coins bearing his own effigy.

"Let us go into partnership in this business of wine-making."

When Noah slaughtered a lamb, and then, in succession, a pig, and a monkey. The blood of each as it flowed down the vine. Thus he considered what the qualities of wine are: before man is as innocent as a lamb; if he drinks of it moderately, as strong as a lion; if he drinks more of it, he resembles the pig; and if he drinks to excess, he resembles the monkey. He sings, talks obscenely, and knows not shame."

Noah no more than did the example of Ham had also been due to wine, for the former had been the grape, with which he had made wine.

In this condition Noah betook himself to the tent of his son Ham, and he told his wife what he had noticed, and said: "The first man had been slain by the other; this man Noah has desired to beget a fourth besides." Nor was he satisfied with these disrespectful words against Ham, but added to this sin of irreverence the still more heinous one of attempting to perform an operation upon Ham to prevent procreation.

When he awoke from his wine and became sober, he rebuked Ham in the person of his youngest son Canaan. To Ham himself he could do no harm, for God had conferred a blessing upon Noah and his three sons as they departed from the ark. Therefore he put the curse upon the last-born son of the son that had prevented him from begetting a younger son than the three he had. The descendants of Ham through Canaan therefore have red eyes, because Ham looked upon the nakedness of his father; they have misshapen lips, because Ham spoke with his lips to his brothers about the unseemly condition of his father; they have twisted curly hair, because Ham turned and twisted his head round to see the nakedness of his father; and they go about naked, because Ham did not cover the nakedness of his father. Thus he was requited, for it is the way of God to mete out punishment measure for measure.

Canaan had to suffer vicariously for his father's sin. Yet some of the punishment was inflicted upon him on his own account, for it had been Canaan who had drawn the attention of Ham to Noah's revolting condition. Ham, it appears, was but the worthy father of such a son. The last will and testament of Canaan addressed to his children read as follows: "Speak not the truth; hold not yourselves aloof from theft; lead a dissolute life; hate your master with an exceeding great hate; and love one another."

As Ham was made to suffer requital for his irreverence, so Shem and Japheth received a reward for the filial, deferential way in which they took a garment and laid it upon both their shoulders, and walking backward, with averted faces, covered the nakedness of their father. Naked the descendants of Ham, the Egyptians and Ethiopians, were led away captive and into exile by the king of Assyria, while

Nigeria's corruption is legendary Just like your "Suction Pad" Lips. Do you really think the American government or Nigerian government has nothing better to do but deal with some petty domestic squabble? You silly woman get a life

Now we know why he left her.

Oh please women... get a life! Who do you think you are? One, polygamy is a part of the fabric of African society. It is one of those laws inherited "by accident" from the British legal system that are not enforceable. If you went to court, you would lose and sure you've gone to court and why am I surprised you have lost in court? Second, as an African, I can tell you for a fact that if your husband does not recognize you and the child you claim is his, there must be a solid reason.

No disrespect but you sound like a "wife from hell" and I seriously doubt this Senator Uzamere is the father of that child. Furthermore, this is a domestic issue. When the governments of Nigeria and USA relate, they think of bigger things like geopolitics, political influence in the gulf of guinea that holds trillions of dollars of energy resources, trade, international peace keeping and fight against terrorism.

Your rants amount to something less than nothing in comparison to these big picture issues. And frankly, as a taxpaying Nigerian, don't waste my money by wasting the time of my officials to open silly letters, diatribes and rants from you. Finally, lady, I think you need help. If a father is irresponsible and has not done much for you and your child, move on. You live in a country where there's social security, where your daughter can get college loans.

If this Uzamere guy has really offended you and your child the greatest revenge you can inflict is by your child achieving greatness without him. What's more... this youtube video is going to achieve nothing. Nigeria is not like the US where "domestic" scandals can cause political problems for the senator. A few hundred people would have a few laughs and that would be it.

"You are from your father the Devil...because he is a liar, and the father of the lie." John 8:44. Webster's Dictionary says this about "devil": "L. diabolus—Gr. diabolos, from diabolain, to slander." The Greek and Latin nouns for "devil" come from the verb "diabolain" that means "to slander." A slanderer is a diabolical or devilish person. Every Nigerian that has posted a comment has responded to my well-researched video and websites with devilish insults but no proof of their statements.

Although your comments sting, I am glad that you made them. You see, I will be able to show federal authorities how Nigerians form an ethnocentric mob to bully black Americans who seek to report crimes committed by Nigerians. I will take all your racist comments and present them to the federal authorities. So please continue making your stupid statements. It just provides me of more proof of my husband's wickedness — and the wickedness of racist, lawbreaking, slanderous Nigerians like you.

Hi Mrs. Uzamere, I'm young Nigerian woman, and I have to say that I'm sorry about your situation. However, you have to look at your problem from a cultural point of view. Did you not know before marrying Senator Uzamere that Nigerians are polygamous? Polygamy is legal in Nigeria.

Nwuese (2 days ago)

Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

Why, even our own President had multiple wives, THAT is why none of the Nigerian authorities will help you because they think you are wasting their time when millions of Nigerian women are happy in polygamous marriages. It is also a POSSIBLE reason why, as you claim, the US government will not help you either.

Nwuese (2 days ago)

Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

I am SURE that the US government is aware that polygamy is legal, accepted, and promoted in Nigeria, and that is why they probably are unwilling to take up your matter, for fear of causing politico-cultural tension between Nigeria (which, I hope you know is a major supplier of the oil you are so dependant on)and itself.

Nwuese (2 days ago)

Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

Also, you should know that there is no such thing as CHILD SUPPORT in Nigeria. It does not exist, in any shape or form. I'm not commending what the senator has done, but you really cannot hold him to anything other than his own conscience.

Nwuese (2 days ago)

Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

I'm really sorry for the situation you are in, as this is shameful of the senator to behave this way, but perhaps you should have found out more about Nigerian culture and customs before marrying the senator.

Nwuese (2 days ago)

Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

Also, Nigerians do not form an ethnocentric mob to bully anybody. The reactions you are getting from other Nigerians seems unsympathetic because they cannot believe how you could marry a Nigerian man without seriously considering the possibility of many other wives and many other children.

Nwuese (2 days ago)

Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

Once again, your situation is a sorry one, but I believe little can be done to remedy it. It does not mean Nigerians are bad people. We just have different cultures, and you weren't aware enough of the impact that it might have on you before you committed yourself.

What you need to realise is that you are not "The Real Wife" but the FIRST wife. Many men, have FIRST, SECOND, THIRD, FOURTH, FIFTH, JUNIOR, and SENIOR wives.

Dear Ms. Nwuese:

His Excellency Alhaji Shehu Umaru Musa Yar'Adua has only 2 wives in his life, based on the biography I read about him.

He is a divorcé. His current wife's name is Turai.

I have the internet just as you do. That means that I can research anything, just like you can. Please do me (and yourself) the honor of researching information before attempting to push it off on me as fact.

Nwuese (1 day ago) Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

This is not a matter of internet research, it is FACT. A fact that you ought to have considered carefully all those years ago. Personally I think that you should sort this out privately with your husband. Nigerian men hate this kind of exposure, and I can promise you that what you have done (with the YouTube video) will infuriate him. You have disgraced him, and our men are proud. Talk to your husband, this is only making it worse.

Nwuese (1 day ago) Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

A LOT of us grow up in polygamous homes, and are used to it. You cannot make yourself an exception, and that is why no one seems to be helping you in this case. What about the millions of Nigerian women that live every day in polygamous marriages? What makes you different from them?

Nwuese (1 day ago) Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

I was talking about His Excellency Olusegun Obasanjo, the former President. Also, why don't you carry out more research on OTHER prominent Nigerian men. You will find that polygamy is a VERY COMMON, and ACCEPTABLE THING in our culture. The fact that Yards divorced his first wife before marrying the second is irrelevant. Nigeria recognises polygamy fully.

My name is Eghosa Uzamere the niece of senator Eghogho Uzamere one question I have for you is did you know that people go to jail for defamation of character. In america claims 28 years later will not be acknowledged. You should take your time and energy and focus on being a good mother and grandmother. And if you were really victimized how did you become PREGNANT? Explain? Anyway it has been fun and I mean fun because my family and I has had a ball of laughs on your expense yet again.

cuzamere (19 hours ago) Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam

Eghosa, are you really that stupid, you dumb bitch? Senator Uzamere married me only to get a green card. If you don't believe me, fuck you, you stupid bitch. When you, your family or any Nigerian monkey wants to face me, my address is at my website.

chaps876 (19 hours ago) Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

YOU ARE THE CRAZY BITCH. Nobody cares about you jackass. I think you need to receive professional help crazy. First of all how old are you grow up silly. Get the dollar signs out of your eyes cause your not getting any of his money lunatic.F

Chaps876 you are right. This woman is only looking for money. It is sad You Tube allow this video to still be up. I hope one day he can sue her for defamation of character.

Oetube, you still running your stupid fuckin' mouth? Why don't you call Eugene Osato Uzamere. His telephone number is (718) 406-3388. Are you like a stupid muthafucka or something? And I am looking for money for myself and his daughter, you stupid fuck!!! I'm his wife. What the fuck's wrong with you stupid muthafuckas???. I'M AM BHIGIE'S WIFE!!!

chaps876 (18 hours ago) Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

You just proved to everybody that you have a mental problem please seek professional help immediately. Its imperative that you take care of your mental health before you lose control of whats real and what is fantasy. You are not his wife maybe on paper but not the way it counts.

oetube (17 hours ago) Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam 0

Wow you have a foul mouth. Reading all your replies shows that you are really mentally disturbed. You are not the the wife on paper. Please stop all this false accusations

cuzamere (17 hours ago) Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam

Having a mental problem does not violate the law, you stupid son of a bitch. People are born with all types of disabilities. People with class and/or manners would not make fun of a person with a disability. Being disabled is not a character flaw. Being a fuckin' idiot is a character flaw. You, chapped

Also, Ms. Chepped mouth 876. Among uneducated idiots that know nothing about the law, a husband's declarations of love to some slut he may have screwed for 25 years may have some sentimental value, but the only thing that matters is the law - that is, what is on paper. Senator Uzamere received his permanent residence in the United States based on the marriage certificate, not based on being in love with me.

cuzamere (16 hours ago)

I cannot expect to appeal to the commonsense of a group of barbaric savages who think that cutting up a woman's vagina is normal. Fuck y'all. Had I know that Senator Uzamere was a green card whore, I would never have introduced him to my family and my church. When my father realized that he only married me for a green card he was very angry. I am so ashamed I ever met him. What a fuckin' loser.

chaps876 (16 hours ago)

Reply | Remove | Block User | Spam

Wow a mind is a terrible thing to waste and yours is on another planet. Its obvious that you are mentally unstable so it makes no sense writing back and forth to you. You have a serious problem and the only one uneducated is you. Move on and get a grip on your sanity because the senator has longed moved on. I highly doubts he thinks about you. He lives with his first wife and you are not it.

Too bad you are not trying to do the same. But that is okay. Satan constantly tries to fight Jehovah, but Satan always loses. If you continue your satanic effort to hide Senator Uzamere's crimes against me and our daughter, you will lose also.

Njide (5:49 PM): Satan can never beat Jehovah. Truth will always win out over lies.

Njide (5:49 PM): So if you want to be a smart-aleck, be my guest. Like my husband, your day of reckoning is coming.

Njide (5:50 PM): One more thing: I have retained a Nigerian journalist who is based in New York. I am sure he will like to see our conversation. I have to go. I told you your job. Please do it or I will report you. Have a nice day.

Subject: A Warning To Yahoo! and the Members of the Edo Nation Website Who Have Posted and/or Made Defamatory Statements Against Cheryl Uzamere, Wife of SENATORIAL CANDIDATE Ehigie Edobor Uzamere or Tara Uzamere, Ehigie's Daughter

April 6, 2007

To Whom It May Concern:

Please direct this e-mail to Yahoo!'s legal department. It would not be advantageous for Yahoo! to ignore this e-mail. Additionally, I would appreciate it if Yahoo!'s legal department would please examine the following website:

<http://africandiasporal.tripod.com/thecriminalandimmoralactsofchiefehigieedoborakagodwinuzamere/>.

Please inform all Edo Nation members that today I am going to file a small claims action against Doctor/Lawyer Segun T. Dawodu for, among other causes of action, defamation of character. Part of my action against Dr. Dawodu will include my asking the smalls claims court to subpoena Yahoo! to obtain the entire message board of the Edo Nation group (from the date I made my first comment concerning SENATORIAL CANDIDATE Ehigie Uzamere), and to also subpoena Yahoo! for the names and addresses of its members. Once I have obtained the names and addresses of its members, I will also subpoena all their ISPs to determine if any of them has sent out defamatory statements against me. I need this information for the divorce trial in the action Uzamere vs. Uzamere.

Had I not seen disparaging remarks of other Nigerian politicians made by members of the Edo Nation group, I would never have made comments against SENATORIAL CANDIDATE Ehigie Uzamere to the extent that I did. But some members of the Edo Nation group have made disparaging comments about Lucky Igbinedion, Governor of Edo State, Atiku and Obasanjo. I assumed, based on the existence of those e-mails that I would be able to do the same with SENATORIAL CANDIDATE Ehigie Edobor Uzamere. Please note: I have been a member of the Edo Nation website since 2002 or 2003. Until I discovered that Ehigie Uzamere was a SENATORIAL CANDIDATE, I did not make any statements against him that caused the Edo Nation's owner and moderator to force my departure. It was not until my recent discovery of Ehigie's candidacy for public office that I started posting disparaging (BUT TRUE) statements about SENATORIAL CANDIDATE Ehigie Uzamere.

Also, would you please be so kind as to provide me with a certified/officially stamped copy of the criminal investigation that was conducted against former governor Diepreye Solomon Peter Alamieyeseigha of Bayelsa State? During that investigation, my husband made a statement under oath concerning ownership of certain assets. If you wish, you may visit http://www.nigerianmuse.com/important_documents/?u=Alams_panel_report.htm to review the statement to which I refer:

"EHIGIE E. UZAMERE; He is an Architect and indigene of Benin City in Edo State. He claimed to have owned four companies namely; Amboy Nigeria Ltd, Speed Concepts Nig. Ltd, Biomedical Engineering Ltd and Tema Associates Ltd. On his relationship with Santolma Investment, Uzamere stated that it was as a result of a property he bought from Chief D S P Alamieyeseigha somewhere at Port Harcourt, Nigeria, for the sum of N430 million through the Governor's lawyer a certain Banister Yusuf. Uzamere further claimed that he was instructed by the said Barrister Yusuf to remit the proceeds of the sale to Santolina's account abroad."

My name is Cheryl D. Uzamere. I am the wife of Senator Ehigie Edobor Uzamere. A little more than 28 years ago, Senator Uzamere tricked me into a romance scam designed for me to fall in love with him so that I could help him obtain permanent residence in the United States. When we finally married, Senator Uzamere used the fictitious name "Godwin Uzamere" to marry me. Along with the help of a corrupt attorney named Harvey Shapiro, Senator Uzamere tricked me into signing sponsorship papers so that he could obtain permanent residence in the United States. Immediately after I signed the papers, Senator Uzamere abandoned me while I was pregnant with his first child and never returned.

In 1982, Senator Uzamere engaged in an illegal marriage with 2nd "wife" Iriagbonse Irowa. Unless she is as corrupt as Senator Uzamere, she does not know that he is still married to me. During the entire 28 years of our daughter's life, Senator Uzamere never made one attempt to pay child support. He never contacted me to tell me where he was, perhaps hoping that I would obtain an uncontested divorce based on abandonment. However, because filing an uncontested divorce against a spouse whose whereabouts are unknown requires placing an advertisement in the newspapers (via service of process by publication), I was never able to divorce him. Service via publication is a messy and expensive process. I did not have the money or the know-how to do so.

In 2003, my husband retained the legal services of yet another corrupt attorney by the name of Jack Gladstein. Around October 2003, Mr. Gladstein sent me a letter using the same fictitious name that Senator Uzamere used to marry me. I filed a complaint against Mr. Gladstein with the Grievance Committee (for attorneys), after which time, Mr. Gladstein decided not to represent Senator Uzamere anymore (refer to <http://africandiasporal.tripod.com/thecriminalandimmoralactsofchiefegiedoborakagodwinuzamere/id6.html>, bottom of page).

In February 2007, I finally caught my lucky break. During food-shopping I ran into a Edoite who was hustling a gypsy cab on Sutphin Boulevard in Jamaica, Queens. This Edoite claimed that he personally knew my husband and that my husband was running for the senatorial seat in Edo State. That is the first and only time in our marriage that I was able to find an address for Senator Uzamere that was viable enough for me to effect service of process of my divorce papers.

Twenty-years later, I am going through hell getting out of this marriage. Because I am disabled, I received a small amount of money from the federal government. For this reason, I cannot afford an attorney so I have to defend myself in court without one. Our daughter Tara, a 3.5 g.p.a. nursing student, lives with me and is having her own troubles paying for nursing school and books. While I would never charge her rent, paying for food is hard because my income is limited. In spite of this neither Senator Uzamere nor anyone else in his family will help us. Their only interest is hiding his crimes against me and our daughter from the public -- and possibly from those members of the Nigerian government who are still honest.

Since I have attempted to go public, there are no Nigerian attorneys in the New York area who will help me. Several members of Nigeria's diplomatic community ignored my cries for help (refer to <http://getjusticeforanamericanschvartze.tripod.com/criesforhelpignored.html>, near bottom of page). Furthermore, several members of the Nigerian community at large verbally attacked me. At the YouTube website, the verbal attacks were so vicious that I had to remove them from my website and block the offenders (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VStRM7zIpeM>, http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o_7bV30-jrs and <http://www.youtube.com/user/cuzamere>). One of the insults even involved one of Senator Uzamere's nieces, who goes by the screen name chaps876. I believe that these individuals are attacking me at the behest of Senator Uzamere himself, or at the behest of members of Senator Uzamere's family who know about Senator Uzamere's duplicity. Among these family members are George Uzamere (718-346-7128), Wellington Uzamere (301-464-7634), Ethel Uzamere (widow of Nosayaba, 718-345-1931) and Eugene Osato Uzamere (718-409-3389). Eugene is a registered attorney in both New York State and Nigeria.

I believe that Senator Uzamere has paid off so many people in the United States government that no one will ever listen to me.

What can I do? My daughter Tara and I are basically helpless. I have cried out to my government for justice, but no one will help me.

Can you help me?

Respectfully,

Cheryl D. Uzamere

URGENT! PLEASE NOTIFY YOUR STATE'S MOTOR VEHICLE, VOTER REGISTRY AND MARRIAGE LICENSE REGISTRY TO MAKE SURE
THIS PERSON DOES NOT DO THIS
DON'T LET A CITIZEN OF YOUR STATE

To All Governors:

(L)

Title 18 U.S.C. §4 states the following regarding misprision of felony: “Whoever, having knowledge of the actual commission of a felony cognizable by a court of the United States, conceals and does not as soon as possible make known the same to some judge or other person in civil or military authority under the United States, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than three years, or both.”

Around November 28, 1979, Mr. Uzamere used retained the services of Harvey Shapiro to dupe me into signing the green card sponsorship papers using my husband’s fictitious name “Godwin Uzamere.” Immediately afterward my husband left me pregnant and alone.

Around October 1, 2003, my husband retained a divorce attorney named Jack Gladstein to try to trick me into divorcing my husband using his fictitious named. I received two letters from Mr. Gladstein: the first using my husband’s fictitious name; the second, an unsigned letter using my husband’s last name but neither the fictitious nor the real first name (see attached).

In accordance with the aforementioned statute, I respectfully request that you deliver this correspondence to your state’s drivers’ license, marriage license and voters’ registration records to check whether your state has records based on the following information:

Name:	Godwin E. Uzamere	Name:	Ehigie Edobor Uzamere
Date of birth:	June 1, 1955	Date of birth:	December 31, 1960
Birth Place:	Bendel State, Nigeria	Birth Place:	Bendel State, Nigeria
SSN:	099-20-2291	SSN:	053-64-7854

Please ensure that the gentleman pictured above has not married or obtained a driver's license under other aliases. Please do not insult me by relegating this situation to a trivial domestic issue. THIS CONCERNS IDENTITY FRAUD! IDENTITY FRAUD IS A FELONY!!!

Please take note that I am a pro se litigant regarding a $1,000,000,000 federal lawsuit concerning the above issue. Either "Godwin" Uzamere and Senator Ehigie Edobor Uzamere are one and the same individual, or the United States agencies that deal with immigration are so stupid or corrupt that they have allowed "Godwin" Uzamere, an undocumented alien who has violated various state and federal laws including non-support of a child to live within U.S. borders without proper identification. Of course, the latter is not possible since, like most wives/mothers, I recognize the man I married and with whom I share a child.

If I perceive that your state has refused to conduct a criminal investigation of this individual, I will have no alternative but to amend my lawsuit to include your state and the agencies I requested you to contact.

I also respectfully ask that since I am the "attorney" of record for my own lawsuit that you comply with my request. Although my lawsuit is civil, the purpose of my contacting your state's government is to determine if my husband committed additional crimes of identity fraud in other states.

In spite of the fact that New York State experienced the worse act of terrorism Americans have every seen, my husband's lawyer did not care to check his identity, even though my husband comes from a country that has a sizeable Islamic population and a "Taliban." I believe that U.S. laws that fight terrorism and enforce identity verification are only implemented if the potential victims are Jewish. If the potential victims are blacks, New York State does not care.

Can you please help me?

Respectfully,
