I goofed. I didn't realize that you and ABC were different companies. I am sorry to hear that someone would sell your designs illegally. ABC (which I thought was you) is having a good sale, buy one, get one free. So I ordered the large cutwork butterflies and requested the Victorian Whitework as my free design. I was confused when they sent me the font and not the design, stating they didn't have the White designs. So I goofed and I guess I'm without the design I want and unfortunately I supported an illegal company. Many regrets on my part. I hope your customers find the real you and support your new sight. Best Wishes,
Denise Hoffman
