Re: Vadim Mikhlyn, Inga Mikhlyn and ABC All Consulting, Inc. v. Ana Bove, Polina Dolginov, et al.
Docket No.: 08 CIV. 3367

Dear Judge Reyes:

Today's letter from pro se defendants Ana Bove and Polina Dolginov represents approximately their 15th separate submission to the Court in just the last three months. Defendants' submissions – excluding exhibits – total over 170 pages.

Your Honor's scheduling orders and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure apply to pro se parties. An endless stream of letters is inappropriate, burdensome and unhelpful to the resolution of the issues before the Court.

We suggest that the defendants be cautioned that all future submissions be made pursuant to Your Honor's Orders and/or the Federal Rules. Once the various motions are fully submitted, Your Honor can determine if a conference or oral argument is appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

Eric Wertheim
