Welcome to Anna Bove Collections - new official site of Anna Bove Company, LLC.

I'm back online, with this new web site, big plans and a renewed, strengthened team. My old site, ABC-embroidery-designs.com, now moved here permanently. This new site is much more comfortable and easy to use, it offers INSTANT DOWNLOAD of designs, and I sure hope that you will enjoy it.

This year I plan to release many new collections of embroidery designs, in my traditional style, which you're used to see on my sites since 2002. And I apologize for any inconvenience regarding the temporarily missing embroidery supplies - they will be available again soon.

There is a short delay with them, because of a "detective story" with some of my ex staff, who attempted to grasp the sites and business, and it has been under their full control for several months. Please notice - all designs on annaboveembroidery.com are copyright protected. Any other web site offering my designs (e.g. the same designs as those listed on annaboveembroidery.com), WITHOUT carrying my name AND without being listed as an official dealer on annaboveembroidery.com, does NOT have any rights to distribute those designs, and is doing so illegally. The only companies that have a license for selling designs created by Anna Bove are listed on our Official Dealers page.

Please take a look at the new design collections I've just finished, do some shopping for the new and old designs, and visit the freebies archive. Happy Embroidering!

Sincerely, Anna Bove
