Re: Mikhlyn v. Ana Bove et al, 08-CIV-3367

Dear Judge Reyes,

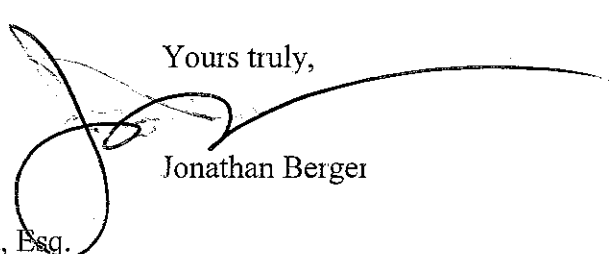

This letter is being filed in response to Plaintiff's letter dated January 22, 2010

Mr. Akselrod indicated that Levisohn Berger LLP was more than capable of completing the depositions. Mr. Akselrod misrepresented the representation of Levisohn Berger LLP in this matter. It has been established with Val Mandel PC and Boris Kogan's office, to which all have agreed, during the inception of this case that we would only handle the intellectual property component of the matter.

As of today, we have had very little involvement in the other components of the case. It appears based on the respective letters from Mr. Kogan and Mr. Akselrod that there remains outstanding discovery disputes. However, Mr. Wertheim indicated at the last court conference before this court that there were no outstanding obligations from Levisohn Berger LLP regarding the intellectual property component of the case. This indicates that we have been extremely cooperative with both Boris Kogan's office and Val Mandel PC. Because we have had minimal exposure to the other components of the case, we cannot represent the defendants in the other components of the matter.

Thank you for your consideration. If there is anything that the Court wishes for us to do, please let us know.

Yours truly,

Jonathan Berger
