Rank Lieutenant General
Period October 2007 to September 2008

Lieutenant General Nadeem Taj was commissioned in the Pakistan Army's Punjab Regiment in 1972. He was promoted to Major General on 1 February 2002 and was already serving as the Military Secretary (MS) to the President of Pakistan (different from Military Secretary (MS), GHQ). He then moved on to become General Officer Commanding (GOC) 11th Infantry Division Lahore and continued till 24 April 2006, when he obtained the role of Commandant of the Pakistan Military Academy (PMA) at Kakul, Abbottabad District. It was from there that he was promoted to the position of ISI chief on 21 September 2007.

Lt Gen Nadeem Taj took over the Gujranwala Corps after the incumbent Lt Gen Waseem Ahmad Ashraf retired from the army on 4 October, 2008. Nadeem Taj was also seen as a Brigade Commander in the famous PTV serial on Army "AAHAN".

Vs

Lashkar-e-Taiba (also known as Idara Khidmat-e-Khalq, Jamatud Dawa, Markaz ud Dawa and Tehrik-e-Tahaffuz-e-Qibla Awal); Mohammad Hafiz Sayeed; Zaki ur Rehman Lakhvi; Sajid Majid (also known as Sajid Mir); Azam Cheema; Inter-services Intelligence of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan; Ahmed Shuja Pasha, Nadeem Taj, Major Iqbal and Major Samir Ali.

(ANSWER TO SUMMONS IN A CIVIL ACTION)

(To be served on James P. Kreindler, Esq., Kreindler & Kreindler LLP
750 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10017)

Respectfully sheweth;

Preliminary Objections:

1. We do not recognize the jurisdiction of any court in United States. The District Courts of Eastern District of New York, therefore, is coram-non-judice (in the presence of as person who is not a judge). We were not obliged to answer but we are doing so in protest, considering that it is the duty of every citizen of a country to protest if un-warranted, unlawful and illegal summons are being served on him.

2. The so-called subject matter jurisdiction of the U.S. District Courts, or any court for that matter cannot extend to any acts or events, occurring within the territory of another country. The Law of Nations or the International Law has recognised this exercise of jurisdiction over the persons and property of that State. Lord Macmillan has aptly described this principle in the well known case Compania Naviera Vascon-gado v Cristina S.S. (1938)A.C. 485 (496-7);

“It is an essential attribute of the sovereignty of this realm, as of all sovereign independent States, that it should possess jurisdiction over all persons and things within its territorial limits and in all causes civil and criminal arising within these limits.”

3. Even the domestic law of U.S. known as ATS (Alien Tort Statute) is attracted only in those cases where the person proceeded against are citizens, residents of any State in U.S.

“In Filaritga, two Paraguayan citizens resident in the United States, represented by the Center for Constitutional Rights, brought suit against a Paraguayan former police chief who was also living in the United States.”

4. No principle of International Law has been violated and this litigation has been initiated merely with malicious motives and is mala fides. The plaint against us has not been filed in good faith.

5. This learned court which has issued summons against us is an American Court. It has deep-seated BIAS against us. We cannot expect Justice from any American Court even if, without conceding, it had the jurisdiction in the matter.

6. Hafiz Muhammad Saeed and Jamat-ud-dawa have nothing to do with Lashkar-a-Tayaba and others. He is engaged in philanthropic work and has established 142 schools and four universities in this country. Jamat-ud-dawa is a peaceful and charitable organization and is not involved in any terrorist activities.

7. It is the outright defamation on your part to dub an honourable citizen like Hafiz Muhammad Saeed as global terrorist, who was Dean of studies in a reputed Engineering university in Lahore, Pakistan. He is sorely stung by your dishonest remarks against a peaceful citizen and a devout Muslim who serves humanity.

8. This Answer has been drafted after going through all the relevant laws especially Alien Tort Statutes (28 USC 1350) and the precedents;

- i) Filaritga vs Pena-trala,
- ii) Sosa vs Alvarez Machain,
- iii) Doe vs Unocal,
- iv) Wangt Xiaoning vs Yohoo,
- v) Bowoto vs Chevron Corp,

- vi) Simaltrainal vs Coca Cola Co.
- vii) Presbyterian Church of Sudden v Talisman Energy, Inc.

On Merits

The entire plaint is nothing but factually a cock and bull story and Hafiz Muhammad Saeed has termed it as a mere trash without any substance and truth in it. Hence denied as totally false
