Re: Troma Entertainment Inc v. Centennial Pictures, et al
Case No: 1:11-cv-01137-BMC

Dear Judge Cogan:

I am the defendant Pro Se in the above-referenced matter.
I filed a Motion for Summary Judgment pursuant to the Court's order on October 28, 2011 and the this transaction was entered into the court docket on November 1, 2011.

Attorneys for Plaintiff, Troma Entertainment, filed and served their Opposition to Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment and supporting Documents on November 14, 2011.

Local Rule 6 (1) (b) states that "any reply affidavits and memoranda of law shall be served within seven days after service of the answering papers".

On that basis, your Honor, the due date to file my reply is November 21, 2011.

When I filed the Motion for Summary Judgment, I called the Court to determine the hearing date, so that it could be included in the Notice of Motion. When I called the Clerk I was told to intentionally leave the date "blank" and that it would be filled in by the Court.

I did not receive any information as to the date of any hearing until yesterday, November 16, 2011, which stated that the actual hearing on the Motion and Oral Argument is stated to be held on
