JURY TRIAL-REQUESTED

New York State Department of Corrections - Defendants.

LEVY M.J.

I. Parties:

Plaintiff Marie Domond, resides at 148 E.56st. Apt. 2R Brooklyn, NY 11203

Defendant NYS Dept. Of Corrections, resides at W. Averell Harriman State Office, Main Office Bldg campus 2, 1220 Washington Ave., Albany, NY

II. I, Marie Domond, the Petitioner respectfully declare that this civil action is brought against The NYS Dept. of Corrections for physical, emotional and psychological damages caused by falsely identifying and labeling my imprisoned brother as an "inmate". The suggestive nature of the word is disgraceful because it implies that our brother is locked up for the purpose of mating with other men. This cruel psychological programming has weighed heavily on our emotional and psychological well being. Furthermore, this character assassination is destroying my brother's nature due to the fact that we are being forced to accept it. This label is imposed on society and being reinforced by its Highest authority The NYS Dept. Of Corrections.

III. The jurisdiction of the court is invoked pursuant to : Civil Rights Law which prohibits Character Defamation/Malicious Negligence/Mental anguish imposed by a Government entity on its residents.

IV. To correct the abuses we are asking the court to order The NYS Dept. of Corrections to:
{1} Cease immediately from calling or referring to my brother as an "inmate",
{2} $50,000,000.00 {Fifty Million Dollars} award be granted to petitioner, Ms. Marie M. Domond for Restoration and Rehabilitation.
