ROSLYNN R. MAUSKOPF, United States District Judge.

On May 8, 2015, plaintiff Sean Jerrick filed this pro se civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.¹ Jerrick sought leave to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”) pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, but he left blank all questions on both pages of the IFP application. By Order dated April 15, 2016, the Honorable Lois Bloom directed Jerrick to either submit an amended IFP application or pay the $400 filing fee within fourteen (14) days of the date of the Order. (4/15/2016 Order (Doc. No. 6).) Jerrick was warned that if he failed to file an amended IFP application or to pay the filing fee within the time allowed, the instant complaint would be dismissed without prejudice. (Id.) More than fourteen days have elapsed, and the Court has not received any response from Jerrick.

Accordingly, Jerrick's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis is denied (5/08/2015 Motion.) and the complaint is dismissed without prejudice. The Clerk of Court is directed to send Jerrick a copy of both this Order and the Judgment, and note the mailing on the docket.

SO ORDERED.
