

found that the issue of damages can be resolved at a later date. No party has filed an objection to the Report and Recommendation, and the time for doing so has passed.

A district court reviewing a report and recommendation “may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate judge.” 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C). To accept a report and recommendation to which no timely objection has been made, “a district court need only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record.” VOX Amplification Ltd. v. Meussdorffer, 50 F. Supp. 3d 355, 369 (E.D.N.Y. 2014).

I have carefully reviewed Magistrate Judge Reyes’s thoughtful Report and Recommendation for clear error and find none. Accordingly, I adopt the Report and Recommendation in its entirety. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to strike Abdullaev’s answer from the record and enter a certificate of default.
