Long Island Courthouse

Central Islip, NY 11722-4438Re: S&L Vitamins v. Australian Gold
05-CV-1217 (JS) (MLO)

Dear Magistrate Judge Orenstein:

We represent S & L Vitamins and Larry Sagarin in the above-captioned matter. We write in response to defendant's March 30, 2006, subpoena to Andrew P. Daniels, CPA. (A copy of the subpoena is attached hereto as Exhibit A.) The subpoena seeks, inter alia, financial information concerning S & L Vitamins, Inc., Body Source, Ltd., Larry Sagarin, Laura Fanning (Mr. Sagarin's wife), and Steven Mercadante (President of S & L Vitamins, Inc.).

The subpoena, however, is untimely, and, as such, we have instructed our client to inform Mr. Daniels that he need not release the requested information to defendant. The July 25, 2005, Scheduling Order in this case states that all fact discovery is to be completed by March 31, 2006. (A copy of the Scheduling Order is attached hereto as Exhibit B.) The Scheduling Order further notes the following:

The discovery completion date specified in any pre-trial order is the last day to serve discovery responses. To be timely, discovery requests must be served sufficiently in advance of the discovery completion date for responses to be served prior to the discovery completion date.

As stated above, the subpoena to Mr. Daniels is dated March 30, 2006. (We are not aware of the date on which it was served pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.) At such a late juncture, the subpoena was hardly served "sufficiently in advance of the discovery completion date for responses to be served prior to" March 31, 2006, and, accordingly, the discovery request is untimely.

Even if this Court were to find that the issuance of the subpoena were in compliance with the Scheduling Order, most of the requested information is irrelevant, burdensome or overly broad. We believe, however, that the timeliness issue is dispositive. The discovery cutoff date, as well as the date by which discovery must be served so that responses can be made within the deadline, have now passed. No request was made to extend the discovery deadline, nor would there be a valid reason to do so for defendant, which has been aware of the issues and "players" in this case for more than two years and cannot now be heard to claim that it was only recently alerted to the need for the discovery now being sought.

We are available at the Court's convenience should the Court have any questions concerning this submission or guidance to the parties regarding the scheduling or other aspects of the litigation.

Respectfully submitted,

Ronald D. Coleman

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party service the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

- (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.
