EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK-----X
ANTHONY MIOLA,

Plaintiff,

-against-

ORDER
15-CV-2323 (SJF)(SIL)

NASSAU COUNTY, MICHAEL SPOSATO,

Defendants.
-----X

FEUERSTEIN, District Judge:

On April 17, 2015, pro se plaintiff Anthony Miola (“plaintiff” or “Miola”) filed: (1) a civil rights complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against Nassau County and Michael Sposato (collectively, “defendants”), alleging that unsanitary prison conditions purportedly existing at the Nassau County Correctional Center (“NCCC”) during his incarceration there in 2011-2012 deprived him of his constitutional rights; and (2) an application to proceed in forma pauperis. Since plaintiff’s financial status, as set forth in his declaration in support of the application to proceed in forma pauperis, qualifies him to commence this action without prepayment of the filing fee, see 28 U.S.C. §§ 1914(a) and 1915(a)(1), the application to proceed in forma pauperis is granted for the limited purpose of this order. However, for the reasons set forth below, plaintiff’s complaint is sua sponte dismissed in its entirety with prejudice pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii) and 1915A(b)(1) for failure to state a claim for relief.

I. Background

On April 18, 2012, while he was still incarcerated at the NCCC, plaintiff filed a complaint in this Court alleging, inter alia, that hazardous and unsanitary conditions purportedly existing at the NCCC since his incarceration thereat on December 6, 2011 deprived him of his constitutional rights. See Miola v. Sposato, et al. (“Miola I”), 12-CV-01935 (SJF)(WDW) (Docket Entry [“DE”] 1). By order dated May 7, 2012, that action was consolidated with Anderson, et al. v. Sposato, et al., 11-CV-5663 (SJF)(SIL) (“Anderson”), a consolidated action involving similar Section 1983 conditions of confinement claims by multiple prisoners incarcerated at the NCCC. See Miola I, 12-CV-01935 (SJF)(WDW) (DE 4).

By Order to Show Cause dated April 22, 2014, all of the consolidated plaintiffs in Anderson, including Miola, were, inter alia, ordered to file, on or before May 23, 2014: (1) an affidavit indicating, inter alia, what steps, if any, he or she pursued in the Inmate Grievance Program (“IGP”) at the NCCC with respect to each claim he or she raised in that action, the date(s) on which he or she pursued each step of the NCCC’s IGP, the determination(s), if any, rendered upon each step of the NCCC’s IGP pursued by him or her and any reasons why he or she should be deemed to have exhausted the available administrative remedies under the NCCC’s IGP; and (2) copies of each grievance form completed by him or her, every grievance receipt issued to him or her by the NCCC’s Grievance Unit, every written determination received by him or her on a grievance he or she pursued and every appeal that he or she pursued, or an affidavit indicating that he or she was not in possession of such documents. See Anderson, 11-CV-5663(SJF)(SIL)(DE 929). By order dated May 8, 2014, the time within which the consolidated plaintiffs were required to comply with the Order to Show Cause was extended to June 23, 2014. See Anderson, 11-CV-5663(SJF)(SIL)(DE 949).

Although the Order to Show Cause advised the consolidated plaintiffs, including Miola, that a failure to comply therewith would result in his or her claims being dismissed in their entirety with prejudice pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a) and Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for failure to exhaust administrative remedies and failure to comply with a court order without further notice, Miola did not file any response to the Order to Show Cause, nor seek an additional extension of time to comply therewith. Accordingly, by order dated August 21, 2014, inter alia, Miola's claims therein, i.e., his claims challenging the allegedly hazardous and/or unsanitary conditions existing at the NCCC during his incarceration in 2011-2012, were dismissed in their entirety with prejudice pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a) and Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for his failure to exhaust administrative remedies and to comply with a Court order. See Anderson, 11-CV-5663(SJF)(SIL)(DE 1042). Miola never sought relief from the August 21, 2014 order, e.g., by timely filing a motion for reconsideration, a notice of appeal, etc. Rather, more than seven (7) months after his Section 1983 conditions of confinement claims were dismissed with prejudice in Anderson, Miola filed the instant complaint asserting the same claims challenging the conditions of his confinement at the NCCC in 2011-2012.

II. Discussion

A dismissal of a complaint with prejudice “has the effect of a final adjudication on the merits favorable to [the] defendant and bars future suits brought by [the] plaintiff upon the same cause of action.” Nemaizer v. Baker, 793 F.2d 58, 60-61 (2d Cir. 1986); see also Semtek Int'l Inc. v. Lockheed Martin Corp., 531 U.S. 497, 506, 121 S. Ct. 1021, 149 L. Ed. 2d 32 (2001) (holding that a dismissal with prejudice under Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure bars the plaintiff from re-filing the same claim in the same federal court). “Such a dismissal constitutes a final judgment with the preclusive effect of res judicata not only as to matters litigated and decided by it, but as to all relevant issues which could have been but were not raised and litigated in the suit.” Nemaizer, 793 F.2d at 61 (quotations and citation omitted); accord Samuels v. Northern Telecom, Inc., 942 F.2d 834, 836 (2d Cir. 1991). Since Miola seeks to re-litigate the same Section 1983 conditions of confinement claims that were already dismissed by this Court with prejudice in Anderson, his claims in this action are now precluded. Accordingly, the complaint in this action is sua sponte dismissed in its entirety with prejudice pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii) and 1915A(b)(1) for failure to state a claim for relief.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, plaintiff’s application to proceed in forma pauperis is granted and the complaint is sua sponte dismissed in its entirety with prejudice pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii) and 1915A(b)(1) for failure to state a claim for relief. The Clerk of the Court shall close this case and, pursuant to Rule 77(d)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, serve notice of entry of this order upon plaintiff in accordance with Rule 5(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

The Court certifies pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this Order would not be taken in good faith and therefore in forma pauperis status is denied for the purpose of any appeal. See Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444-45, 82 S. Ct. 917, 8 L. Ed. 2d 21 (1962).
