ORDER

On July 21, 2017, certain tax information of the Plaintiff Jan Holick was provided to the Court for purposes of an in camera review. See Dkt. No. 231. That review has now been completed and has disclosed certain limited information that may be relevant to the issues at hand. Accordingly, counsel for Plaintiffs is directed to make a copy of the following pages¹ of the reviewed documents to be provided to Defendants' counsel: pp. 1, 14-17; 26-29; 54-57; 65-68; 87-88.

The Court directs that the Plaintiff's Counsel immediately retrieve from the Court's courtroom deputy, Daniel Krug, the Marvin and Company tax documents, together with the paginated copy created by the Court, and to maintain both sets of documents pending the final resolution of the case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Date: October 20, 2017.
Albany, New York

Daniel J. Stewart
U.S. Magistrate Judge

¹The documents provided by Marvin and Company totaled 92 pages, inclusive of the cover page. The Court has created a paginated copy of the documents, and reference is made to that pagination which appears on the bottom center of each page.
