Civil Case No. 4:23-cv-00336

ORDER
GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
FOR AN EX PARTE STATUTORY RESTRAINING ORDER,
APPOINTMENT OF A TEMPORARY
RECEIVER, AND OTHER
EQUITABLE RELIEF

Plaintiff, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“Commission”), has filed a Complaint for Permanent Injunction and Other Relief and moved, pursuant to Section 6c(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act (“Act”), 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a), and in accordance with Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (“Rule 65”), for an ex parte statutory restraining order freezing assets, allowing inspection of records, appointing a Temporary Receiver, and granting expedited discovery. The Court has considered the pleadings, declarations, exhibits, and memorandum filed in support of the Commission’s motion, and finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress). 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) authorizes the Commission to seek injunctive relief against any person whenever it shall appear that such person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice that violates any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order promulgated thereunder.

2. Venue lies properly within this District pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e).

3. The Commission has made a proper prima facie showing that the Defendants violated the law as follows. Since at least April 2020 through the present, Marcus Brisco (“Brisco”), Yas Castellum LLC (“Yas 1”), Yas Castellum Financial LLC (“Yas 2”), Tin Tran (“Tran”), and Michael Sims (“Sims”) have operated three interconnected fraudulent schemes by soliciting and/or accepting more than $146 million from customers purportedly to trade leveraged or margined retail foreign currency exchange (“forex”) and/or leveraged or margined gold-U.S. dollar pair (“XAUUSD”) transactions (“retail commodity transactions”). Yas 1, Yas 2, and Brisco knowingly made fraudulent and material misrepresentations and omissions about their historical trading profits, and regarding where they would maintain pool participant funds, how they would trade with those funds, and who would do the trading. In fact, Yas 1, Yas 2, Brisco, and Tran did not send any funds to a firm that trades forex or XAUUSD. Instead, nearly all of the funds were directed to commodity pools controlled and operated by Tran (collectively, the “Tran Pools” and individually, “Tran-Pool 1”, “Tran-Pool 2”, and “Tran-Pool 3”), and Tran, Yas 2, and Brisco misappropriated a portion of the funds for other purposes. To conceal Yas 1’s scheme, Brisco provided pool participants with false account statements, and Sims directed Brisco to falsify wire transactions to disguise deposits as payments for “services”. Further, to conceal Tran’s scheme from regulators, Francisco Story and Ted Safranko, in their roles as directors and officers of SAEG Capital General Management LP (“SAEG GM”), knowingly submitted falsified bank statements to the National Futures Association (“NFA”) for Tran-Pool 1 accounts during an examination of SAEG GM. Yas 1, Yas 2, Brisco, and Tran failed to operate the commodity pools in accordance with Commission Regulations (“Regulations”) that require a commodity pool to: operate as a legal entity separate from the Commodity Pool Operator (“CPO”), receive funds in the name of the pool, and prohibit the commingling of commodity pool property with the property of any other person. In addition, Yas 2 and Tran failed to register with the Commission as a CPO, and Brisco failed to register as an Associated Person (“AP”) of Yas 2.

4. Therefore, there is good cause to believe that Defendants have engaged in, are engaging in, or are about to engage in acts and practices in violation of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 2(c)(2)(C)(iii)(I)(cc), 6b(a)(2)(A)–(C), 6k(2), 6m(1), 6o(1)(A)–(B), and 13(a)(4), and Regulations 17 C.F.R. §§ 4.20(a)(1), (b)–(c), 5.2(b)(1)–(3), and 5.3(a)(2) (2022).

5. There is also good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court’s ability to grant effective final relief for customers in the form of monetary or other redress will occur from the withdrawal, transfer, removal, dissipation or other disposition of funds, assets or other property (“assets”), and/or the destruction, alteration or disposition of books and records and other documents (“records”) by Defendants, unless Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of the Court.

6. Therefore, there is good cause for the Court to freeze assets owned, controlled, managed or held by Defendants or in which they have any beneficial interest.

7. There is also good cause for the Court to prohibit Defendants from destroying, altering or disposing of records, and/or denying representatives of the Commission access to inspect records, when and as requested, to ensure that Commission representatives have immediate and complete access to those records.

8. There is also good cause for the appointment of a Temporary Receiver to take control of all assets owned, controlled, managed, or held by Defendants, or in which they have any beneficial interest (“Defendants’ Assets”), so that the Temporary Receiver may preserve assets, investigate and determine customer claims, determine unlawful proceeds retained by Defendants and amounts due to customers as a result of Defendants’ alleged violations, and distribute remaining funds under the Court’s supervision.

9. There is also good cause to require an accounting by Defendants to the Temporary Receiver to determine the location and disposition of customer funds and ill-gotten gains.

10. There is also good cause to order repatriation of assets controlled by Defendants so that such assets can be controlled by the Temporary Receiver and to assure payment of restitution and disgorgement as authorized by the Court.

11. There is also good cause to remove the prohibition on early discovery to enable the Commission to determine the full extent of Defendants’ wrongdoing (including, but not limited to, the possible involvement of others); to locate other pool participants; to identify and assess Defendants’ entitlement to funds, assets and other property; and to clarify the sources of funds, assets, and other property in advance of a hearing to show cause as to why a preliminary injunction should not issue.

12. In summary, this is a proper case for granting a restraining order ex parte freezing assets, allowing inspection of records and appointing a temporary receiver, and granting expedited discovery because the Commission is likely to succeed on the merits. Moreover, there is also a reasonable likelihood that Defendants will transfer or dissipate assets or destroy or alter records.

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

13. The term “assets” encompasses any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, whether individually or jointly, directly or indirectly controlled, and wherever located, including but not limited to: chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts (including, but not limited to, bank accounts and accounts at other financial institutions), credits, receivables, lines of credit, contracts (including spot, futures, options, or swaps contracts), insurance policies, and all funds, wherever located, whether in the United States or outside the United States.

14. The term “records” encompasses “documents” and “electronically stored information” as those terms are used in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a), and includes, but is not limited to, all writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or other data compilations—stored in any medium from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary, into reasonable usable form. The term “records” also refers to each and every such item in Defendants’ actual or constructive possession, including but not limited to: (i) all such items within the custody or control of any agents, employers, employees, or partners of the Defendants; and (ii) all items which Defendants have a legal or equitable right to obtain from another person. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate item within the meaning of the term. A record also includes the file and folder tabs associated with each original and copy.

15. “Defendants” means and refers to Marcus Todd Brisco, Yas Castellum LLC, Yas Castellum Financial LLC, Tin Quoc Tran, Francisco Story, Fredirick Safranko a/k/a Ted Safranko, SAEG Capital General Management LP, and Michael Shannon Sims.

RELIEF GRANTED

I. Asset Freeze Order Prohibiting the Withdrawal, Transfer, Removal, Dissipation, and Disposal of Assets

16. Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined, except as otherwise ordered by this Court, from directly or indirectly withdrawing, transferring, removing, dissipating or otherwise disposing of any assets, wherever located, including Defendants' assets held outside the United States, except as provided otherwise in Sections IV, V, and VI of this Order, or as otherwise ordered by the Court;

17. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section I, at the request of the Temporary Receiver, Defendants and any other person who has possession, custody, or control of any of Defendants' funds, assets, or other property shall transfer possession of all assets subject to this Order to the Temporary Receiver in accordance with Section IV, V, and VI of this Order.

18. The assets affected by this Order shall include existing assets and assets acquired after the effective date of this Order.

II. Maintenance of and Access to All Records Relating to the Business Activities and Business and Personal Finances

19. Defendants are restrained from directly or indirectly destroying, altering, or disposing of, in any manner any records that relate or refer to the business activities or business or personal finances of any Defendants.

20. Representatives of the Commission shall be immediately allowed to inspect any records that, in part or in whole, contain, relate, or refer to the business activities or business or personal finances of the Defendants, including, but not limited to, both hard-copy documents and electronically stored information, wherever they may be situated and whether they are in the possession of the Defendants or others. To ensure preservation and facilitate meaningful inspection and review of these records, Defendants shall allow representatives of the Commission to make copies of these records, including complete forensic images of any devices containing any such records, and if on-site copying of these records and/or forensic imaging of these devices is not practicable, representatives may make such copies and/or forensic images off-site. After any such off-site copying and/or forensic imaging, Plaintiff shall promptly return the original documents and devices upon which electronic information is stored.

21. To further facilitate meaningful inspection and review, Defendants shall, absent a valid assertion of their respective rights against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment, promptly provide Commission staff with:

- a. the location of all records relating or referring to the business activities and business and personal finances of the Defendants;
- b. all identification numbers and other identifying information for websites, cloud storage services, email and smartphone accounts, online chat and messaging services, and all accounts at any bank, financial institution, or brokerage firm (including any introducing broker or futures commission merchant) owned, controlled or operated by Defendants, or to which the Defendants have access; and,
- c. all passwords to, and the location, make and model of, all computers and/or mobile electronic devices owned and/or used by Defendants in connection with their business activities and business and personal finances.

22. When inspecting and reviewing records and/or contents of forensic images that are subject to this Order, including those contained on computers and/or other devices, the Commission should undertake reasonable measures to prevent review of the Defendants' privileged communications and/or other nonbusiness, nonfinancial materials by the Commission's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. Moreover, Defendants (or their counsel) shall promptly contact Plaintiff's counsel to assert any claims of privilege or other legal objections relating to the inspection and review of any records or contents of forensic images that are subject to this Order and promptly cooperate with Plaintiff's counsel to develop reasonable protocols to isolate and prevent disclosure of claimed privileged and/or other nonbusiness, nonfinancial materials to the Commission's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. However, nothing herein shall excuse Defendants from full and immediate compliance with this Court's Order permitting Plaintiff to inspect and review the records and contents of forensic images which relate to Defendants' business activities and their business and personal finances.

III. Notice to Financial Institutions and Others that Hold or Control Assets or Records

23. To ensure the effectiveness of the asset freeze and pending further Order of this Court, any financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order and holds, controls, or maintains custody of any account or asset or other property of Defendants shall not, in active concert or participation with Defendants, permit Defendants or other persons to withdraw, transfer, remove, dissipate, or otherwise dispose of any of Defendants' assets, except as directed by further order of the Court.

24. Any financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise shall not, in active concert or participation with any Defendant, directly or indirectly destroy, alter, or dispose of, in any manner, any records relating to the business activities and business and personal finances of any Defendant.

transaction reports, 1099 forms, and safe deposit box logs. As an alternative to allowing inspection of records, a financial or brokerage institution, business entity or other person may provide copies of records requested by the Commission.

26. Furthermore, any such financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order shall:

- a. Within ten business days of a request by the Temporary Receiver, or such longer period specified by the Temporary Receiver, provide the Temporary Receiver with copies of all records pertaining to any account or asset owned, controlled, managed, or held by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants, either individually or jointly, including, but not limited to, originals or copies of account applications, account statements, signature cards, checks, drafts, deposit tickets, transfers to and from the accounts, all other debit and credit instruments or slips, currency transaction reports, 1099 forms, and safe deposit box logs; and

42. The Order to Show Cause is set for hearing on February 22, 2023, at 10:00 a.m., before the Honorable Lee H.
