RE: Darius Harrison v. Joseph T. Smith
05 Civ. 5953 (JGH)

Dear Judge Koeltl;

We've been released, from the facility lockdown, I should be able to return back to the Law Library Monday the 4th, it's going to still take some days for the Call-out System to get back on track. Friday I spoke with Dep. of programs, about my last letter to her pertaining to my extension, which I still have not received a response to. I receive mail from the courts quicker than I do inside correspondence. I'm just trying to give you understand; to some of the headaches, in order to get to the Law Library. I humbly request that you grant me an extension till the 31st of May to complete and submit my motion.

I thank you in advance for your patience in this matter.

Sincerely
D. Harrison
