Re: The Authors Guild, Inc. et al v. Google Inc., Case No. 05 CV 8136 (S.D.N.Y.).

Dear Office of the Clerk:

My name is Kurt Stellfeld, and I am the C.E.O. of the Gryphon Verlagsguppe KG, a book publisher located in Munich Germany. Gryphon Verlagsguppe KG is a member of the settlement class embraced by the proposed settlement agreement that is before this Court in this action (the "Settlement Agreement"), because it owns rights in books that are protected by U.S. copyright law. We write to object to the Settlement Agreement. We do not have the resources to provide this Court with legal briefing regarding our objections nor do we wish to burden this Court with duplicative filings. We therefore join in the objections that have been presented to this Court by Scott Gant and the group of foreign publishers and publishing associations that includes the Börsenverein des Deutschen Buchhandels and others, for the reasons presented to this Court by those individuals and entities. In addition, we wish to inform this Court that our company did not receive any written notice of the Settlement Agreement, nor did we see any published notice of the Settlement Agreement. We present this letter to this Court in English, for the Court's convenience and it was translated for us.

For us it is important that the court knows, that we also publish books in English, so we and/or our authors would have no chance to control any other worldwide publication without our knowledge except our own.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of this letter.

Respectfully yours,

Kurt Stellfeld
Publisher and C.E.O.
