Case No. 05 CV 8136-JES

MEMORANDUM OF LAW
IN SUPPORT OF MOTION ON CONSENT FOR APPROVAL OF CLAIM FORMS

ECF CASE

Counsel for the Author Sub-Class and counsel for the Publisher Sub-Class (“Counsel”), with the consent of counsel for Google Inc., submit this motion, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e), for approval of the Claim Forms for the Settlement Class.

1. This is a class action in which plaintiffs allege that Google violated the copyrights of authors, publishers and other owners of U.S. copyrights in books and other writings by digitizing them, creating an electronic database of books, and displaying short excerpts without the copyright owners’ permission.

2. A proposed settlement of the lawsuit (the “Settlement”) was reached on behalf of a class of all owners of U.S. “Copyright Interests” in “Books” and “Inserts” published on or before January 5, 2009, as those terms are defined in the Settlement Agreement.

3. Judge Sprizzo preliminarily approved the Settlement in an Order dated November 14, 2008. See Exhibit A (the “Preliminary Approval Order”). The substantial benefits the Settlement offers to class members and to the public are more fully described in pages 8 through 13 of the memorandum of law filed in support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Settlement Approval.

4. To assure the best notice practicable of this Settlement to class members around the world, a comprehensive, multi-national Notice program has been established. This Notice program includes the publication of a summary notice in 375 publications, the emailing and/or mailing of a long form notice to many thousands of potential class members, and the creation of a claims website and paper claim forms (each translated into dozens of languages).

5. Paragraph 16 of the Preliminary Approval Order provides that the date on which Notice shall commence is January 5, 2009. Paragraph 18 provides that all publication and other Notice must be completed by February 27, 2009. Paragraph 21 provides that the Opt-Out Deadline will be May 5, 2009. Paragraph 10 provides that the Final Fairness Hearing will be held on June 11, 2009.

The Reason for the Request to Approve the Claim Forms

6. At the time the Preliminary Approval Order was submitted to the Court, the parties still were developing the details of the claiming process and Claim Forms. Accordingly, paragraph 14 of the Preliminary Approval Order requires that, before dissemination of the Notice to the Settlement Class can begin on January 5, 2009, “Class Counsel shall submit to the Court for approval as to form and content the Claim Forms to be included with the Notice.” See Exhibit A, ¶ 14.

7. It is appropriate to analyze the form and content of the Claim Forms under the standards that govern notice under Rule 23. Although they are distinct from the Notice, the Claim Forms also should, to a certain extent, “fairly apprise the prospective members of the class of the terms of the proposed settlement and of the options that are open to them in connection with the proceedings.” Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A. Inc., 396 F.3d 96, 114 (2d Cir. 2005) (quotation, citation omitted). The standard to be applied is one of “reasonableness.” Id. at 113.

8. The proposed Claim Forms are eminently fair and reasonable in both their paper and online forms because they capture and convey, in a clear and concise manner, the options available to class members under the Settlement. The proposed Claim Forms provide an efficient mechanism by which class members can identify their works, claim Cash Payments and manage their Books and Inserts, including the ability to choose whether to exclude a particular Book from Display Uses or Remove that Book from all uses by Google. The proposed Claim Forms also contain contact information for Class

Counsel and the claims administrator, so that class members can obtain additional information about the Settlement.

9. In addition, the proposed Claim Forms will be translated into more than 30 languages and be made available worldwide, in both paper and online versions.

10. Accordingly, Counsel respectfully request that paper claim forms and website claiming screens be approved, as to form and content, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibits B and C. Counsel have worked extensively with Rust Consulting, Inc., a highly experienced claims administrator (the “Settlement Administrator”), in creating these forms. Counsel have also worked extensively with Google, to create the online claiming process, which the Settlement Administrator will maintain with technical support and hosting provided by Google Inc.

11. Counsel for Google has authorized the undersigned to state that Google Inc. supports this motion.

For the foregoing reasons, Counsel respectfully request that the Court approve for distribution to the Settlement Class, in substantially their current form and content, the Claim Forms attached as Exhibits B (paper) and C (website).

Case No. 05 CV 8136-JES

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY SETTLEMENT APPROVAL

This matter is before the Court pursuant to the motion of Plaintiffs in the above-captioned class action (the "Action") for preliminary approval of the settlement Plaintiffs reached with defendant Google Inc. ("Google"). Plaintiffs have moved for an order approving the settlement of the Action in accordance with the Settlement Agreement between Plaintiffs and Google. Having read and considered the Settlement Agreement, and based upon familiarity with the files and proceedings in this matter, the Court finds that:

1. Plaintiffs filed an initial complaint, and subsequent amended complaints, in the Action alleging, on behalf of themselves and a putative class of others similarly situated, that defendant violated the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.;
2. Defendant has vigorously contested the allegations;
3. The parties have entered into a Settlement Agreement that has been filed with the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York;
4. The Court has reviewed the Settlement Agreement and determined it to be within the range of possible approval; and

5. The Court has reviewed the notice provisions of Article XII of the Settlement Agreement, and the forms of notice attached to the Settlement Agreement as Attachments I and J, and the Court has determined that the form, content and manner of dissemination of the notices constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

6. The motion is GRANTED. The Settlement Agreement is hereby preliminarily approved. Unless otherwise specified, all defined terms herein shall have the same meaning as in the Settlement Agreement.

7. The following Settlement Class and two Sub-Classes are provisionally certified for settlement purposes only:

Settlement Class

All Persons that, as of January 5, 2009, have a Copyright Interest in one or more Books or Inserts. All Settlement Class members are either members of the Author Sub-Class or the Publisher Sub-Class, or both. Excluded from the Settlement Class are Google, the members of Google's Board of Directors and its executive officers.

Author Sub-Class

Members of the Settlement Class who are authors, and their heirs, successors and assigns, and any other members of the Settlement Class who are not members of the Publisher Sub-Class.

Publisher Sub-Class

Members of the Settlement Class that are (a) companies that publish books, and their exclusive licensees, successors and assignees, and (b) companies that publish Periodicals and have a Copyright Interest in one or more Inserts, and their exclusive licensees, successors, and assignees.

8. Plaintiffs Paul Dickson, Joseph Goulden, Daniel Hoffman, Betty Miles, and Herbert Mitgang are designated as Representative Plaintiffs for the Author Sub-Class. Plaintiffs

The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc., Pearson Education, Inc., Penguin Group (USA) Inc., Simon & Schuster, Inc., and John Wiley & Sons, Inc. are designated as Representative Plaintiffs for the Publisher Sub-Class.

9. The Court appoints the following law firms as Class Counsel: the firms of Boni & Zack LLC, Milberg LLP, and Kohn, Swift & Graf, PC for the Author Sub-Class ("Author Sub-Class Counsel"), and the firm of Debevoise & Plimpton LLP for the Publisher Sub-Class ("Publisher Sub-Class Counsel"). Author Sub-Class Counsel and Publisher Sub-Class Counsel shall be referred to collectively herein as "Class Counsel."

10. A final settlement/fairness hearing shall be held on June 11, 2009, at 1:00 p.m., (the "Hearing") before the undersigned in Courtroom 14C, United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, Daniel Patrick Moynihan United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, NY 10007. The purpose of the Hearing shall be to determine: (a) whether the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate; (b) whether to certify the Class and the Sub-Classes for purposes of the settlement; and (c) whether the proposed Settlement Agreement should be approved by the Court and judgment entered thereon. At the Hearing, or such adjourned date as the Court deems appropriate, Class Counsel and any interested person shall be heard on the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the terms of the Settlement Agreement and on Author Sub-Class Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of expenses as set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

11. The Court preliminarily approves the proposed Settlement Agreement, including the procedures for establishing and administering the settlement funds and procedures for notice, opting out, and objection as described therein, as fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class and the Sub-Classes.

12. The Court reserves the right to adjourn the Hearing or order any adjournment without further notice other than an oral announcement at or prior to the Hearing. The Court also reserves the right to approve the proposed Settlement Agreement at or after the Hearing with or without modification as consented to by the parties to the Settlement Agreement and without further notice to members of the Settlement Class. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to consider all applications arising out of or connected with the proposed Settlement Agreement.

13. The Court approves as to form, content, and method of dissemination of the Notice of Class Action Settlement ("Notice") and the Summary Notice of Class Action Settlement (the "Summary Notice") substantially in the forms attached to the Settlement Agreement as Attachments I and J.

14. Before disseminating Notice pursuant to paragraph 16 below, Class Counsel shall submit to the Court for approval as to form and content the Claim Forms to be included with the Notice.

15. The Notice Commencement Date shall be January 5, 2009. The Opt-Out Deadline shall be May 5, 2009.

16. Beginning on January 5, 2009, Class Counsel shall cause the Notice to be forwarded to identifiable Settlement Class members by e-mail, postal mail, postage prepaid, at the last known mailing address, or other means of dissemination.

17. Beginning on January 12, 2009 or earlier, Class Counsel shall cause to be published the Summary Notice as set forth in the Settlement Agreement and shall otherwise comply with the Notice program as set forth in Article XII of the Settlement Agreement.

18. All notice required to be disseminated under the Notice program shall be disseminated no later than February 27, 2009.

19. At least five business days prior to the Hearing, Class Counsel shall certify compliance with the provisions of paragraphs 16 and 17 of this Order by declaration describing the aforementioned mailings and publications, and shall file with the Court Plaintiffs' Motion for Final Settlement Approval and supporting papers, and Motion for Approval of Plaintiffs' Attorneys' Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses and supporting papers.

20. The form and method of Notice and Summary Notice specified in the Settlement Agreement are hereby approved and determined to be the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and the Court finds that the Notice and Summary Notice comply with the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and with applicable standards of due process.

21. Members of the Settlement Class and Sub-Classes will be excluded from the settlement only if they comply with the opt-out procedures set forth in the Notice and Settlement Agreement, which procedures are hereby approved as fair and reasonable. Unless they have excluded themselves, members of the Settlement Class and Sub-Classes shall be bound by all determinations and judgments in this case relating to the proposed Settlement, whether favorable or unfavorable, including the dismissal of the Action with prejudice and the release of Google Releasees, Fully Participating Library Releasees, Cooperating Library Releasees, Public Domain Library Releasees and Other Library Releasees from liability to members of the Class. Persons who timely exclude themselves from the Class in accordance with the procedures prescribed in the Notice and Settlement Agreement will not be bound by any orders or judgments entered in the Action related to the proposed settlement, and shall not receive any benefits provided for in the proposed Settlement Agreement in the event it is approved by the Court.

22. Persons who are members of the Settlement Class and do not exclude themselves may enter an appearance on their own behalf or through counsel of their own choice at their own expense. If they do not enter an appearance, they will be represented by Class Counsel.

Any member of the Settlement Class who does not exclude himself or herself but objects to: (i) the proposed Settlement Agreement; (ii) certification of the Settlement Class or one or both of the Sub-Classes for purposes of the settlement; (iii) dismissal of the Action or the judgment and releases to be entered with respect thereto; and/or (iv) Author Sub-Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of expenses in the Action; or who otherwise wishes to be heard, may appear in person or through his or her own attorney at the hearing and present evidence or argument that may be proper and relevant; provided, however, that no Person other than Class Counsel and Google in the Action shall be heard and no papers, briefs, pleadings, or other documents submitted by any such Person shall be received and considered by the Court (unless the Court in its discretion shall thereafter otherwise direct, upon application of such person and for good cause shown), unless, (1) not later than May 5, 2009, such Person has filed a statement of the objection and the grounds for the objection, together with any supporting papers or briefs, with the Court at the address listed below and served copies of such papers by email or first class mail on the attorneys listed below; and (2) if wishing to appear, not later than May 5, 2009, such Person has filed a Notice of Intent to Appear, including the Person's name, address, telephone number and signature, as well as the name and address of counsel, if any, with the Court at the address listed below and served copies of such papers by email or first class mail on the attorneys listed below:
