Dear Sir,

Google Book Settlement

Being of the 'Author Sub-Class' as designated by Google, I hereby, and in endorsement of any opt-out made on online, opt out of the Google Book Settlement.

I hereby also request that none of my works shall be digitized by Google and that those that have been digitized shall be removed from the Google database.

I am an author. My name is Graham Swift, which is as it appears on my works. I do not write under a pseudonym. My address is as above.

This opt-out shall apply to all works by Graham Swift, published or to be published, including but not limited to the following:

The Sweet Shop Owner

Shuttlecock

Learning to Swim and Other Stories

Waterland

The Magic Wheel, An Anthology of Literature in Fishing - (edited/written by Graham Swift with David Profumo)

Out of this World

Ever After

Last Orders

The Light of Day

Tomorrow

Making an Elephant, Writing from Within

This opt-out shall also apply to all works or portions of works by Graham Swift, including but not limited to those listed above, inserted in the publications of others.

Please confirm your receipt of this letter.

Yours faithfully,

Graham Swift
