NOTICE OF REMOVAL

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332 and 1446, as amended in relevant part by the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, defendant Random House, Inc. ("Random House" or "Defendant"), hereby removes to this Court the above-styled action, pending as Case No. BC345856 in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles. As grounds for removal, Defendant states as follows:

Factual Background

1. On January 12, 2006, Plaintiff Sara Rubenstein filed the State Court Action in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles.

2. Defendant was served with a summons and complaint ("Cmplt.") on February 6, 2006.

3. The complaint arises out of the publishing and marketing of the book "A Million Little Pieces" (the "Book") written by defendant James Frey. (Cmplt. ¶ 32).

4. Plaintiff's complaint contains three counts, which seek relief against defendants for alleged violations of the Unfair Competition Law (Count I), Consumer Legal Remedies Act (Count II), and the False Advertising Statute (Count III).

5. Plaintiff is a citizen of the State of California. (Cmplt. ¶ 13).

6. Defendant Random House is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, with its principal place of business in New York, New York, and thus is a citizen of New York for these purposes.

7. Defendant Frey is a resident of the State of New York.

8. Plaintiff seeks to pursue her claims on behalf of a class of California residents who purchased the Book "from its publication in 2003 to January 10, 2006." (Cmplt. ¶¶ 23, 14).

Federal Jurisdiction under the Class Action Fairness Act

9. Application of CAFA. The Court has original jurisdiction of this case pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 ("CAFA" or "the Act"). CAFA creates federal jurisdiction over lawsuits in which "the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and is a class action in which . . . any member of a class of plaintiffs is a citizen of a State different from any defendant," and the number of members of all proposed plaintiff classes exceeds 100. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A) and (d)(5)¹. As explained below, each of these criteria are met here.

10. Amount in Controversy. The aggregate amount in controversy in this case exceeds $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs. Plaintiff seeks to recover under California's Unfair Competition Law, California's Consumer Legal Remedies Act, and California's False Advertising Statute for defendants' alleged "scheme to deceive and defraud customers." (Cmplt. ¶ 10).² In addition to injunctive relief seeking to have defendants "enjoined from engaging in unfair and/or deceptive acts or practices" and ordering defendants to "publish notice of the truth regarding the Book," Plaintiff also demands "all payments for the Book be returned to Plaintiffs and the members of the class." (Cmplt. pp. 13). Based on estimates of sales of the Book in California, the amount in controversy in this action exceeds the $5,000,000 threshold. (Declaration of Donald Weisberg, Exhibit A hereto, at ¶ 6.) The Book was sold in both a hardcover edition (with a suggested retail price of $22.95) and a paperback edition (with a suggested retail price of $14.95). Id. at ¶ 4. More than an estimated 26,000 hardback copies of the Book were sold to consumers in California. Id. at ¶ 5.

² Defendant denies that Plaintiff has stated a claim or that certification of a statewide or nationwide class would be appropriate. Defendant further denies that plaintiff or any putative class member is entitled to any relief whatsoever.

1 More than an estimated 350,000 paperback copies were sold to consumers in
2 California. Id. These figures suggest that in excess of $5,000,000 is at issue in this 3 case.

4 11. Citizenship of the Parties. There is diversity of citizenship
5 between a member of Plaintiff's putative class and defendant Random House:

6 a. Plaintiff and the alleged putative class members are citizens
7 of California.

8 b. Defendant Random House is a New York corporation with 9 its principal place of business in New York, New York, and thus is a 10 citizen of New York for these purposes.

11 c. Defendant Frey is a resident of the State of New York.

12 d. Accordingly, this action is a class action where "any 13 member of a class of plaintiffs is a citizen of a State different from any 14 defendant." 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A).

15 12. Number of Class Members. As the above figures indicate, there
16 are more than 100 class members.

17 13. Mandatory Jurisdiction. Federal jurisdiction over this action is 18 mandatory, not permissive. CAFA classifies qualifying class actions (i.e., ones in 19 which the $5 million amount-in-controversy is met) by the number of class members
20 located in the state where the action is filed and the citizenship of the defendants.
21 Although more than 2/3 of the class members are located in the state of California, the 22 provision of CAFA which requires a court to decline jurisdiction does not apply here
23 because neither of the primary defendants (i.e., Random House and Frey) are citizens
24 of the state of California. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(4). Even if one of the defendants
25 in this action were a resident of California, the Court still could not decline
26 jurisdiction because, prior to the filing of this action, a class action alleging the same
27 or similar factual allegations was brought against defendants Random House and Frey.
28

1 See More v. Frey, et al., No. 06 CH 00772, Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois
 2 (January 12, 2006); 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(3)(A)(ii).³

3 Procedural Matters

4 14. Removal is Timely. A notice of removal may be filed within 30
 5 days after the defendant receives a copy of the initial pleading, motion, or other paper
 6 from which it may be ascertained that the case is removable. 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b).
 7 The United States Supreme Court has held that the 30-day period prescribed in section
 8 1446(b) runs from the date of formal service of the complaint. Murphy Bros., Inc. v.
 9 Michetti Pipe Stringing, Inc., 526 U.S. 344, 355-56 (1999). Here, Random House was 10 served on February 6, 2006. This notice of removal is thus timely, as the 30-day
 11 period for removal does not expire until March 9, 2006.

12 15. Removal to Proper Court. This Court is part of the "district and 13 division embracing the place where" the State Court Action was filed – Los Angeles
 14 County, California. 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a).

15 16. Consent Not Required. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1453(b), the 16 consent of other defendants to this removal is not required.

17 17. Pleadings and Process. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a), attached
 18 hereto as Exhibit B is "a copy of all process, pleadings, and orders served upon"
 19 defendant Random House. Defendant has not answered or otherwise filed a 20 responsive pleading to the Complaint.

21 18. Filing and Service. A copy of this Notice of Removal is being 22 filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of 23 Los Angeles, and is being served on all counsel of record, consistent with 28 U.S.C. §
 24 1446(d). The Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles
 25 is located within this district.

26
 27 ³ The More case has been removed and is currently pending before the United States District Court
 28 for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division.

1 WHEREFORE, defendant Random House, Inc., respectfully removes
2 this action, now pending in the Superior Court of the State of California for the 3 County of Los Angeles to the United States District Court for the Central District of 4 California.

EXHIBIT A

DECLARATION OF DONALD WEISBERG

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, Donald Weisberg declares and states as follows:

1. My name is Donald Weisberg. I am over the age of 21 and am competent to testify as to the statements set forth in this declaration.

2. I am currently the Executive-Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, North America of Random House, Inc. ("Random House"), a position I have held since November 2001. In my position, I am familiar with sales figures for books published by Random House and its related corporate entities.

3. I am familiar with the book "A Million Little Pieces," by James Frey. In 2003, "A Million Little Pieces" was published in hardcover by Nan A. Talese, an imprint of Doubleday, a division of Random House. In 2005, "A Million Little Pieces" was published in paperback by Anchor Books, a division of Random House.

4. The suggested retail price of the hardcover edition of the book was $22.95. The suggested retail price for the paperback edition of the book was $14.95.

5. I have reviewed sales figures for "A Million Little Pieces" maintained by Random House in the normal and ordinary course of its business. I have also reviewed retail "point of sales" data provided by certain third-parties. Based on this data, I estimate that as of January 7, 2006: (1) more than 350,000 copies of the paperback edition of "A Million Little Pieces" were sold to consumers in California; and (2) more than 26,000 copies of the hardcover edition of "A Million Little Pieces" were sold to consumers in California.

6. Based on this sales data and the suggested retail prices listed above, the total amount of sales to consumers in California of "A Million Little Pieces" exceeds $5,000,000.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing is true and correct.

Executed on February 16, 2006 at NEW YORK, NEW YORK.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de extensión de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su salario, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia. Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers

If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 5 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. You do not need to submit a cover sheet with amended papers. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 201.6(g) and 227 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Complex Cases

In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 1800 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

1 aware that they have been duped by Defendants.

2 8. Due to Defendants' scheme, and consumers inability to determine the truth as to
3 the falsity of Defendants' claims and representations regarding the book, Plaintiff and Class
4 members were fraudulently induced to purchase the Book.

5 9. California's consumer protection laws are designed to protect consumers from this 6 type of false advertising and predatory conduct at issue in this action. Defendants' unfair and 7 deceptive course of conduct is common to all purchasers of "A Million Little Pieces."

8 10. Defendants' scheme to deceive and defraud consumers violated (a) the Consumers
9 Legal Remedies Act ("CLRA"), Civ. Code §1750 et seq., specifically Civ. Code §1770(a) (5)
10 and (b); the Unfair Competition Law, Bus. & Prof. Code §17200, et seq.; including the False
11 Advertising Statute, Bus. & Prof. Code §17500 et seq. ("UCL")

12 11. Consequently, by this Complaint and on behalf of the consumers of the Book,
13 Plaintiff and members of the Class she seeks restitution to compensate them for their monetary
14 losses, disgorgement of all of the Defendants' wrongfully earned profits and other gains from 15 their scheme.

16 12. Pursuant to the CLRA on January 12, 2006, Plaintiff gave notice to Defendants of 17 her intention to file an action for monetary damages under California Civil Code § 1750 et seq.
18 unless Defendant correct, repair, replace, or otherwise rectify the consumer fraud resulting from 19 its conduct.

20 II. PARTIES

21 13. Plaintiff, Sara Rubenstein, is an individual who resides in the County of Los 22 Angeles. Plaintiff is a consumer who bought and read the Book during the summer of 2005.

23 14. Plaintiff made her purchase in reliance upon Defendants' deceptive, fraudulent and 24 false representations that the Book was a non-fiction literary work. Plaintiff would not have 25 purchased the Book had Defendants truthfully disclosed that many of the events portrayed in the 26 Book were fiction. Plaintiff seeks relief in her individual capacity and she seeks to represent a 27 Class consisting of all other consumers who purchased the Book from its publication in 2003 to 28

FEB-03-2006 15:36

P. 14

1 January 10, 2006, the date when it was first publicly disclosed that many of the events within the
2 Book were fictional or wildly exaggerated.

3 15. Defendant James Frey, is the author of "A Million Little Pieces." During the Class
4 Period, Defendant Frey conducted the illegal scheme complained of in the County of Los 5 Angeles.

6 16. Defendant Random House is the publisher of the Book. Defendant Random House
7 did business throughout the County of Los Angeles, the State of California. During the Class
8 Period, Defendant Random House conducted the illegal scheme complained of here in the 9 County of Los Angeles.

10 17. The true names and capacities (whether individual, corporate, associate, or 11 otherwise) of the Defendants that are identified as Does 1 through 300, inclusive, and each of 12 them, are unknown to Plaintiff, who therefor sue said "Doe" Defendants by such fictitious
13 names. Plaintiff is informed and believe and thereon allege that each of the Defendants 14 fictitiously named herein as "Doe" is legally responsible in some actionable manner for the 15 events and happenings hereinafter described, and thereby proximately caused the injuries and 16 damages to Plaintiffs and Class members, as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will seek leave of Court to 17 amend this Complaint to state the true names and capacities of said fictitiously named 18 Defendants when the same have been ascertained.

19 18. Plaintiff is informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants (and each of 20 them), including Does 1 through 300, inclusive, were the agents, servants, employees,
21 successors, assignees, transferees and/or joint venturers of their co-Defendants, and each of them
22 was, as such, acting within the course, scope and authority of said agency, employment and/or 23 joint venture and was acting with the consent, permission and authorization of each of the 24 remaining Defendants, and that each and every Defendant when acting as a principal, was 25 negligent in the selection and hiring of each and every other Defendant as an agent, employee
26 and/or joint venturer. All actions of each Defendant, as alleged herein were ratified and 27 approved by every other Defendant or their officers or managing agents.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

19. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this class action pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17203, 17204 and 17535, and Civ. Code § 1780. This Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over the parties because (a) Plaintiffs and the members of the Class submit to the jurisdiction of this Court; (b) Defendant Frey systematically and continuously does business in this County; and (c) Defendant Random House systematically and continuously does business in the County of Los Angeles.

20. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17204 and 17535, Civ. Code §§ 395 and 395.5, and Civ. Code § 1780(c) because Plaintiff resides in the County of Los Angeles and Defendants systematically and continually do business in this County.

21. Federal subject matter jurisdiction does not exist over the claims for relief asserted in this Complaint.

IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

22. This action may properly be maintained as a Class Action pursuant to Code Civ. Proc. § 382, Civ. Code §§ 1752, 1780 and 1781, and Rules 1850-1861 of the Rules of Court.

23. Plaintiff brings this action as a Class Action on behalf of all purchasers of the Book who reside in California or who purchased the Book in California during the Class Period.

24. The Class is composed of thousands of residents of Californians including Plaintiff, and joinder of everyone is impracticable. Although the exact number of Class members is presently unknown, the Class will number in at least thousands. During the Class Period, the Book was sold throughout the State of California in bookstores, supermarkets and convenience stores, as well as by retailers on the Internet. The members of the Class are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. The disposition of the claims of Plaintiffs and other Class members in this action will provide substantial benefits to the parties and this Court.

25. There exists a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact presented by this controversy. These questions of law and fact common to Plaintiffs and Class

1/19/07 2:01 15:37

P. 16

1 members predominate over questions which may affect only individual members, if any, because 2 Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to the entire Class. Among the 3 questions of law and fact common to the Class are the following:

- 4 (a) Whether Defendants' scheme to utilize false and deceptive statements violates the
- 5 CLRA, the UCL and Section 17500;
- 6 (b) Whether Defendants made false claims regarding the Book;
- 7 (c) Whether Defendants' misrepresentations were false and misleading advertising; and
- 8 (d) The amount of restitution that Plaintiffs and members of the Class should be awarded.

9 26. Plaintiff is a member of the Class. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of 10 the other Class members because Plaintiff and all Class members were injured by the same
11 wrongful acts and practices in which Defendants engaged as alleged herein.

12 27. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class. The interests
13 of Plaintiff are coincident with, and not antagonistic to, those of the Class members. In addition,
14 Plaintiff has retained attorneys who are experienced and competent in the prosecution of 15 complex and class litigation. Neither Plaintiff nor their attorneys have any conflict in 16 undertaking this representation.

17 28. A class action is superior to the alternatives, if any, for the fair and efficient
18 adjudication of the controversy alleged herein because such treatment will permit a large number 19 of similarly situated persons residing throughout California to prosecute their common claims in 20 a single forum simultaneously, efficiently, and without duplication of evidence, effort, and 21 expense that numerous individual actions would engender. This action will result in the orderly
22 and expeditious administration of Class claims. Uniformity of decisions will be assured, thereby 23 avoiding the risk of inconsistent and varying determinations.

24 29. Because the injuries suffered by individual Class members or the amount of 25 restitution or disgorgement to each class member may be relatively small, the expense and 26 burden of individual litigation make it virtually impossible for the members of the Class
27 effectively to seek redress individually for Defendants' alleged wrongful conduct.

28

RECEIVED 02/26/2006 15:37

P. 17

30. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

31. Common questions of law and fact predominate in this case, and a class action is the only appropriate method for the complete adjudication of this controversy for the following reasons, among others:

(a) The individual amounts of restitution involved, while not insubstantial, are generally so small that individual actions or other individual remedies are impracticable and litigating individual actions would be too costly;

(b) The costs of individual suits would unreasonably consume the amounts that would be recovered;

(c) Individual actions would create a risk of inconsistent results and would be unnecessary and duplicative of this litigation; and

(d) Individual actions would unnecessarily burden the courts and waste precious judicial resources.

31. Notice to the members of the Class may be accomplished cheaply, efficiently and in a manner best designed to protect the rights of all Class members.

DEFENDANTS' SCHEME TO DEFRAUD CONSUMERS

32. Defendants have represented, expressly or by implication, including through advertisements disseminated throughout the County of Los Angeles, the State of California and the United States that "A Million Little Pieces" is a non-fiction literary work, and a "genuine account" when in fact many of the key accounts within the Book are wholly fabricated or wildly embellished. For example, in relation to a driving while intoxicated arrest Defendant Frey writes, "Got first DUI. Blew a .36, and set a County Record. Went to Jail for a week." However, the police report from the incident tells a different story. Just after midnight on June 8, 1988, after executing a traffic stop, in which Frey was the driver, the officer noticed Frey's eyes were glassy, and he "appeared dazed." After failing a series of field sobriety tests, Frey was arrested for drunk driving and for failure to carry his driver's license. He was transported to the Sheriff's

02/26/2006 15:37

Office, where he agreed to undergo a Breathalyzer test. Though he would write of setting a .36 county record, Frey's blood alcohol level was actually recorded in successive tests at .21 and .20. As for his claim to have spent a week in jail after the arrest, the report debunks that assertion. After Frey's parents were called, he was allowed to quickly bond out. Two weeks later, court records show, he pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of reckless driving and was fined $305. Thus Frey never spent a week in jail nor established the "County record" to which the Book refers.

33. Moreover, Frey writes of another encounter with police authorities in which he was allegedly, hit with an imposing set of criminal charges, including: Assault with a Deadly Weapon (because Frey allegedly hit a policeman with a car), Assaulting an Officer of the Law (because Frey allegedly engaged the officers), Felony DUI, Disturbing the Peace, Resisting Arrest, Driving Without a License, Driving Without Insurance, Attempted Incitement of a Riot, Possession of a Narcotic with Intent to Distribute, and Felony Mayhem. As reflected in the Book, The only count Frey took issue with was the drug charge (for possession of a "bag of crack cocaine"): "That was bullshit because I intended to use it, not distribute it."

34. However, indices at the County Common Pleas Court contained no records for Frey. At the county's Municipal Court, where misdemeanor and traffic cases are adjudicated, only a single matter turned up, a November 1990 traffic ticket for speeding and driving without a seat belt. According to county records, Frey paid a small fine and the case was closed out.

35. Thus, contrary to Frey's account in the Book there was no patrolman struck with a car, no swings at police officers, no mayhem, no attempt to incite a riot, and no crack. As a result there was no Charges for Assault with a Deadly Weapon, Charge for Assaulting an Officer of the Law, Charge for Felony DUI, Charge for Disturbing the Peace, Charge for Resisting Arrest, Charge for Driving Without Insurance, Charge for Attempted Incitement of a Riot, Charge for Possession of a Narcotic with Intent to Distribute, or Charge for Felony Mayhem.

36. Thus, Defendants had no credible basis for making the claims and representations, and many similar false and misleading statements within the Book and during the campaign to 1 sell the Book.

2 37. Similarly, while marketing the Book Frey told Oprah Winfrey and her audience of 3 millions that "[i]f I was gonna write a book that was true, and I was gonna write a book that was
4 honest, then I was gonna have to write about myself in very, very negative ways." "I think I
5 wrote about the events in the book truly and honestly and accurately." And Frey has repeatedly
6 asserted in press interviews that the book is "all true." In fact, however, many of the facts set
7 forth in the Book were false and misleading.

8 38. Defendants have marketed the Book to consumers in the County of Los Angeles,
9 the State of California by propagating these false and misleading accounts through 10 advertisements and other media in order to induce consumers to buy the Book.

11 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (All Defendants; Violations of the UCL, Bus. & Prof. Code section 17200)

13 39. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each of the preceding allegations as if 14 fully set forth herein. This claim arises under the UCL, and is alleged against each of the 15 Defendants.

16 40. Defendants' actions complained of herein constitute unfair trade practices that have 17 the capacity to and do deceive consumers, in violation of the UCL.

18 41. All of the conduct alleged herein occurred and continues to occur in the ordinary
19 course of Defendants' business. Defendants' wrongful conduct is part of a pattern or generalized
20 course of conduct repeated on thousands of occasions daily. Thus, Defendants' conduct impacts 21 the public interest.

22 42. Defendants also engage in unlawful business acts in violation of the UCL by 23 violating state law including, but not limited to, Civil Code §§ 1572, 1709, 1710 and 24 1770(a)(5),(7) and (9), as well as Section 17500. Plaintiffs reserve the right to identify additional 25 violations of California law committed by Defendants as further investigation and discovery
26 warrants.

27 43. Plaintiff and the members of the Class were all directly and proximately injured by

1 Defendants' wrongful conduct. Plaintiff and the members of the Class purchased the Book
2 which they would not have purchased had they been truthfully and fully informed of the facts.

3 44. As a direct and proximate result of the wrongful and illegal acts alleged in this 4 Complaint, Defendants received and continue to hold ill-gotten gains belonging to Plaintiffs and
5 the members of the Class. Plaintiffs and Class members request that this Court enter such orders
6 or judgments as may be necessary to restore to any person in interest any money which may have
7 been acquired by means of such unfair practices, as provided in Business & Professions Code §
8 17203 and Civil Code § 3345, and for such other relief and further relief as may be justified as 9 set forth below.

11 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (All Defendants; Violations of the CLRA)

13 45. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each of the preceding allegations as if 14 fully set forth herein. This claim arises under the Consumers Legal Remedies Act and is alleged 15 against all Defendants.

16 46. Plaintiff was a "consumer," as that term is defined in Civ. Code § 1761(d).

17 47. The Book constituted "goods," as that term is defined in Civ. Code § 1761(a).

18 48. Defendants each constituted a "person," as that term is defined in Civ. Code §
19 1761(e).

20 49. Plaintiff's purchase of the Book constituted a "transaction," as that term is defined 21 in Civ. Code § 1761(e).

22 50. The CLRA provides in relevant part that "[t]he following unfair methods of 23 competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices undertaken by any person in a transaction
24 intended to result or which results in the sale or lease of goods or services to any consumer are 25 unlawful: (5) Representing that goods ... have ... approval, characteristics, uses, benefits ... which 26 they do not have, (7) Representing that goods ... are of a particular standard, quality or grade ... if 27 they are of another, (9) Advertising goods ... with intent not to sell them as advertised. Civ. Code

1 § 1770(a)(5),(7) and (9).

2 51. Defendants made an continue to make uniform written representations that the 3 Book is a piece of non-fiction. These representations, as set forth above, were false and/or 4 misleading and were in violation of the CLRA.

5 52. Civ. Code § 1780(a)(2), permits any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin
6 practices that violate Civ. Code § 1770.

7 53. Plaintiff and the members of the Class are consumers under Civ. Code § 1761(d), 8 and have all been directly and proximately damaged as a result of Defendants' use or 9 employment of the above-referenced methods, acts or practices that are unlawful under Civ.
10 Code § 1780(a). Plaintiffs are entitled to bring this action against Defendants and to recover or 11 obtain relief, including (a) an order enjoining such methods, acts or practices, pursuant to Civ.
12 Code 1780(a)(2).

13 54. In accordance with the requirements of Civ. Code § 1782(a), counsel for Plaintiffs 14 provided Defendants with written notice on January 12, 2006, of the allegations within this 15 Complaint. Should Defendant fail to adequately respond to Plaintiff's demand to "correct, 16 repair, replace, or otherwise rectify" the misrepresentations described above, within 30 days after 17 receipt of the Civil Code § 1782 notice, Plaintiff shall seek relief in the form of a claim for actual 18 damages, punitive damages, attorneys' fees and costs and/or restitution. In addition, Plaintiff
19 shall seek, pursuant to California Civil Code § 1780(a)(20), an order enjoining the above-
20 described wrongful acts and practices of Defendant, plus costs and attorneys' fees, and any other 21 appropriate relief under Civil Code § 1780.

22 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (All Defendants; Violations of Bus. & Prof. Code Section 17500)

24 55. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each of the preceding allegations as if 25 fully set forth herein. This claim arises under Section 17500 and is alleged against all of the 26 Defendants.

27 56. At all times relevant hereto, each Defendant was a "person," as that term is defined
28

P. 22

1 in Bus. & Prof. Code § 17506.

2 57. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17500 provides that "[i]t is unlawful for any person, firm,
3 corporation or association with intent ... to dispose of ... personal property ... to induce the public
4 to enter into any obligation relating thereto, to make or disseminate or cause to be made or 5 disseminated before the public in this state, ... any statement ... which is untrue or misleading,
6 and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue
7 or misleading."

8 58. Defendants represented that "A Million Little Pieces" was a non-fiction memoir
9 detailing the life of Defendant Frey on the cover and in the text of the Book itself,
10 advertisements, brochures, marketing materials, and in television interviews and at book 11 signings.

12 59. During the Class Period Defendants did not disclose, conspicuously or otherwise, 13 on any of these materials that such representations were untrue or misleading and that many of 14 the accounts in the Book were exaggerated or false.

15 60. Defendants' act of untrue and misleading advertising present a continuing threat to 16 members of the public because such advertisements induce consumers to purchase the Book.

17 61. As a result of the violations of California law described above, Defendants have 18 been, and will be, unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiffs and the members of the Class.
19 Specifically, Defendants have been unjustly enriched by receipt of hundreds of thousands, if not 20 millions, of dollars in monies received from customers who purchased the Book which is 21 advertised and/or otherwise marketed in this State and this County, and which is promoted and 22 sold through advertising and marketing materials which materially misrepresent the quality,
23 nature, origin and functions of the product.

Pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code § 17535, Plaintiffs request that this Court make such orders or judgments as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by Defendants of untrue and misleading advertisements, or which may be necessary to restore to Plaintiffs and the members of the Class any money which may have been acquired by Defendants by means of such untrue and misleading advertisements.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against Defendants as follows:

A. An Order certifying that this action may be maintained on behalf of a Class, with Plaintiffs as Class Representatives, pursuant to Civ. Code § 1781, Code Civ. Proc. §§ 378 and 382, and Rule 1850 et seq.;

B. Order that all payments for the Book be returned to Plaintiffs and the members of the Class because Defendants procured them through unfair trade practices and in violation of state law;

C. Award to Plaintiffs and each member of the Class restitution;

D. Order that Defendants be enjoined from engaging in unfair and/or deceptive acts or practices, as set forth in this Complaint;

E. Order that Defendants be enjoined to publish notice of the truth regarding the Book;

F. Award Plaintiffs and the members of the Class the costs of suit and attorneys' fees; and

G. Award all other relief to which Plaintiffs and Class members may be entitled at law or in equity.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, Shera Paglinawan and Stuart Oswald, by their undersigned attorneys, bring this civil action for damages and declaratory relief on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated against the above-named Defendants and complain and allege as follows:

MYERS & COMPANY, P.L.L.C.
1809 SEVENTH AVENUE, SUITE 700
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON 98101
TELEPHONE (206) 398-1188

I. NATURE OF ACTION

1.1 Plaintiffs bring this action as a Class Action pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of all persons who purchased the novel A Million Little Pieces from a seller located in the State of Washington or who read the book and are residents of the State of Washington.

1.2 A Million Little Pieces was written by Mr. James Frey and published and distributed by Nan A. Talese/Doubleday, a subsidiary of Random House, Inc.

1.3 A Million Little Pieces was purportedly a memoir and was advertised and marketed as such by Nan A. Talese/Doubleday. The book was written in the first person and claimed to tell the true story of James Frey, chronicling Mr. Frey's struggles with crime, alcohol and drug addiction.

1.4 In reality, Mr. Frey fabricated large portions of A Million Little Pieces and Nan A. Talese/Doubleday was aware of these fabrications.

1.5 As a result of the Defendants' actions the Plaintiffs have suffered economic damage and emotional distress.

II. PARTIES

2.1 Plaintiff Shera Paglinawan has at all material times been a resident of Seattle, Washington.

2.2 Plaintiff Stuart Oswald has at all material times been a resident of Seattle, Washington.

2.3 Defendant James Frey is, upon information and belief, a resident of New York.

2.4 Defendant Nan Talese A. Talese/Doubleday is a business subsidiary of Random House, a New York corporation.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3.1 Subject matter jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the Plaintiffs and Defendants are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00. This court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

3.2 Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a) because the Defendants systematically and continuously sold their product within this district and Defendants transact business within this district.

IV. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATION

4.1 Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action pursuant to Rules 23(a), (b)(1), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a Plaintiff Class (the "Class") composed of all persons who purchased A Million Little Pieces by James Frey from a vendor in the State of Washington and on behalf of all residents of the State of Washington who have read A Million Little Pieces. Plaintiffs reserve the right to modify this class definition prior to moving for class certification.

4.2 This action has been brought and may be properly maintained as a class action pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the following reasons:

a. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest among the members of the Class;

b. Membership in the Class is so numerous as to make it impractical to bring all Class members before the Court. The identity and exact number of Class members is unknown but is estimated to be at least in the thousands considering the fact that A Million Little

1 Pieces has sold over 3.5 million copies. Plaintiffs believe that members of the Class can be
2 identified through Nan A. Talese/Doubleday and Random House's sales records.

3 c. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of other Class members, all of whom
4 have suffered harm due to Defendants' uniform course of conduct.

5 d. Plaintiffs are members of the Class.

6 c. There are numerous and substantial questions of law and fact common to 7 all of the members of the Class which control this litigation and predominate over any individual
8 issues pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3). The common issues include, but are not limited to, the 9 following:
10

11 i. Does the Washington Consumer Protection Act Apply?

12 ii. Were Defendants' representations false?

13 iii. Were Defendants aware of the falsity of their representations?

14 iv. Was there a valid contract between the parties?

15 v. Were Plaintiffs and Class members damaged?

16 f. These and other questions of law or fact which are common to the 17 members of the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the 18 Class;

19 g. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class in that 20 Plaintiffs have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Class and have retained
21 counsel competent in the prosecution of class actions to represent themselves and the Class;

22 h. Without a class action, the Class will continue to suffer damage, 23 Defendants' violations of the law or laws will continue without remedy, and Defendants will 24 continue to enjoy the fruits and proceeds of their unlawful misconduct;
25

i. Given (i) the substantive complexity of this litigation; (ii) the size of individual Class members' claims; and (iii) the limited resources of the Class members, few, if any, Class members could afford to seek legal redress individually for the wrongs Defendants have committed against them;

j. This action will foster an orderly and expeditious administration of Class claims, economies of time, effort and expense, and uniformity of decision;

k. Inferences and presumptions of materiality and reliance are available to obtain class-wide determinations of those elements within the Class claims, as are accepted methodologies for class-wide proof of damages; alternatively, upon adjudication of Defendants' common liability, the Court can efficiently determine the claims of the individual Class members;

l. This action presents no difficulty that would impede the Court's management of it as a class action, and a class action is the best (if not the only) available means by which members of the Class can seek legal redress for the harm caused them by Defendants.

m. In the absence of a class action, Defendants would be unjustly enriched because they would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of their wrongful conduct.

4.3 The Claims in this case are also properly certifiable under applicable law.

V. STATEMENT OF FACTS

5.1 In 2002 James Frey presented a manuscript to Nan Talese, a publisher at Nan A. Talese/Doubleday. This manuscript was in the form of a novel. This manuscript formed the basis of A Million Little Pieces.

5.2 Ms. Talese informed Mr. Frey that Nan A. Talese/Doubleday would publish the manuscript if he recast the novel as a memoir.

1 6.4 As a result of the breach Plaintiffs and Class members suffered damages which
2 may fairly and reasonably be considered as arising naturally from the breach or may reasonably
3 be supposed to have been in the contemplation of the parties, at the time they made the contract,
4 as the probable result of the breach of it.

5 B. Unjust Enrichment

6 6.5 Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

7 6.6 Defendants were and continue to be unjustly enriched by their false
8 representations as to the truthfulness of A Million Little Pieces in an amount to be proven at trial.

9 C. Negligent Misrepresentation

10 6.7 Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

11 6.8 Defendants owed Plaintiffs and Class members a duty to exercise reasonable care
12 in advertising the truthfulness of A Million Little Pieces.

13 6.9 Defendants provided false information to Plaintiffs and Class members relating to 14 the truthfulness of A Million Little Pieces.

15 6.10 Defendants breached their duty to Plaintiffs and other Class members by failing to 16 exercise reasonable care or competence in guaranteeing the truthfulness of A Million Little 17 Pieces.

18 6.11 Plaintiffs and Class members reasonably relied on the information provided by 19 Defendants regarding the truthfulness of A Million Little Pieces.

20 6.12 As a proximate cause of Defendants' false representations Plaintiffs and other 21 Class members suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

22 D. Intentional Misrepresentation (Deceit)

23 6.13 Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

1 6.14 Defendants made representations of fact regarding the truthfulness of A
2 Million Little Pieces for the purpose of inducing Plaintiffs and other Class members to purchase
3 and/or read the book.

4 6.15 Defendants knew or believed the representations referred to in the preceding 5 paragraph were false.

6 6.16 Plaintiffs and other class members reasonably relied on Defendants' false
7 representations.

8 6.17 As a result of Defendants' false representations Plaintiffs and other Class
9 members suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

10 E. Washington Consumer Protection Act Violation – RCW 19.86, et seq.

11 6.18 Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

12 6.19 At all times relevant to this action Washington had in effect RCW Ch. 19.86
13 prohibiting unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of business.

14 6.20 Defendants' false claims regarding the truthfulness of A Million Little Pieces
15 constituted unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of trade or commerce.

16 6.21 Defendants' acts or practices have the capacity to deceive a substantial portion of 17 the public and to affect the public interest.

18 6.22 As a result of Defendants' unfair or deceptive acts or practices, Plaintiffs and 19 other Class members suffered injuries in an amount to be proven at trial.

20 F. Declaratory Judgment

21 6.23 Plaintiffs reallege all prior allegations as though fully stated herein.

22 6.24 Plaintiffs and the Class, pursuant to Rule 57 of the Federal Rules of Civil 23 Procedure and 18 U.S.C. § 2201(a), hereby seek a declaratory judgment that Defendants'
24
25

1 conduct in misleading purchasers and readers of A Million Little Pieces violated the Washington
2 Consumer Protection Act and breached their implied or express contract with purchasers and 3 readers of the book.

4 VII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

5 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs and Class members request that the Court enter an order of 6 judgment against Defendants including the following:

7 A. Certification of the action as a class action pursuant to Rule 23(b)(2) of the 8 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure with respect to Plaintiffs' claim for injunctive and declaratory
9 relief, and Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure with respect to the claims for 10 damages, and appointment of Plaintiffs as Class Representatives and their counsel of record as 11 Class Counsel;

12 B. A declaration that Defendants violated the Washington Consumer Protection Act;

13 C. A declaration that Defendants breached their explicit or implicit contract with 14 readers and purchasers of A Million Little Pieces.

15 D. Damages in the amount of monies paid for A Million Little Pieces.

16 E. Damages for the time spent by Plaintiffs and Class members reading A Million
17 Little Pieces.

18 F. Actual damages (including all general, special, incidental, and consequential 19 damages), statutory damages (including treble damages), and such other relief as provided by the 20 statutes cited herein;

21 G. Prejudgment and post-judgment interest on such monetary relief;

1 H. Equitable relief in the form of restitution and/or disgorgement of all unlawful or
2 illegal profits received by Defendants as a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or deceptive conduct
3 alleged herein;

4 I. Other appropriate injunctive relief;

5 J. The costs of bringing this suit, including reasonable attorneys' fees; and 6 K. Such other relief as this Court may deem just, equitable and proper.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553
Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
