Magistrate Judge Michael H. Dolinger
United States District Court
500 Pearl St.
New York, New York

Re: NAKTA v. EGI, 06-cv-5158 (LTS)

Dear Magistrate Judge Dolinger:

I am counsel for Plaintiff-Counterclaim Defendants.

I believed that counterclaim defendants' papers in the above-referenced action were due on July 30, 2007. I understand that Mr. Hanlon asserts that the actual due date was July 13th. The date does not appear in the electronic docket for this case. While it appears that I may have been mistaken about the date, I request, nunc pro tunc, if North American Karaoke Works Trade Association, Inc. to file on July 30, 2007, submit counterclaim defendants' papers. To avoid any prejudice, I consent to any necessary extension of counterclaim plaintiff's due date for reply.

In any event, counterclaim defendants would not have been able to submit their papers in opposition because neither our expert nor Ray Yim was available at that time. We had not requested any other extension.

I apologize for any inconvenience and appreciate the Court's consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

David J. Hoffman

ENDURABLE ORDER

Cc: Robert Hanlon, Esq.

The court will reluctantly grant this request. The due date was noted on the record and this appears as the Answers of our March 26, 2007 conference of Defendants' counsels with the trial (Aug 10, 2007) to file a rebuttal.
