That's a great offer. We'll check in with the user tomorrow and let them know!

Thanks.

Jamie

Just my chemical romance is fine then. You can leave the black parade one.

Thanks!! You can tell the person that owns the my chem one that I will give them a free pair of tickets to a show whenever the band is in their city.

Let me check it out. We can generally switch that account name over to you, but want to check in on the best way to do it because one of the accounts is active and has quite a few videos in it. We're going to try to figure out the best way to do it without upsetting a My Chemical Romance fan!

Do you really want both account names? If they are not going to both be active accounts, I'd rather not knock a user off of their chosen user name.

Please let me know.

Thanks.

Jamie

Hi there! Jeff from WBR new media here again. We are working the new My Chemical Romance album that will be coming soon and would like to get an artist page set up for their forthcoming videos. However, both My Chemical Romance and their album name "The Black Parade" are taken. How can we get those back for the band? Please advise. thanks!!

For the Youtube channel, artist names MyChemicalRomance and TheBlackParade are both taken... is there a way to take over the names?

The link below is still Quicktime, not windows.

Here are some links to a couple comment threads:
