Hi Vicky,

Let's schedule a phone call tomorrow to discuss all of this on the phone. I'm sure my answers and directions will be more clear that way.
:-) What times work for you tomorrow? Thx.

Best,
Kevin

Hi, Kevin - I have a few questions.

I am trying to set up the director options at youtube.com/my\_profile\_director but keep receiving an error on my description even though I am entering a valid description between 10-100 words. Do you have any insight?

Is there a way to transfer my existing videos (placed under another user name) to my new account without losing view/comments/ratings?

Can you show me an example of a Director's account video so that I can see how logo is used, etc?

Thanks! Any other suggestions much appreciated.

-Vicky

Hi Vicky,

The user name "spikeTV" has been made available. You can go ahead and sign up again at www.youtube.com/director and use that user name now. Then I'll accept the account and you'll be good to go. Thx.

Best,
Kevin
