Case No. 07 Civ. 3582 (LLS)

CAL IV ENTERTAINMENT LLC'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANTS' FIRST SET OF REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION TO CAL IV ENTERTAINMENT LLP.

Pursuant to Rule 36(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Named Plaintiff Cal IV Entertainment LLC ("Cal IV") hereby responds and objects to the Requests for Admission (the "Requests") propounded by Defendants YouTube, Inc., YouTube LLC and Google, Inc. ("YouTube" or "Defendants").

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

The following general objections and statements (“General Objections”) apply to each of the particular Requests propounded by Defendants and are hereby incorporated within each response set forth below. All of the responses set forth below are subject to and do not waive the General Objections:

1. Cal IV objects to the Requests on the ground that Cal IV is still in the process of gathering and analyzing information relevant to these Requests. Cal IV has not completed its review and analysis of all discovery obtained by the parties in this and the related Viacom action. Additionally, defendants and non-parties have produced more than 1.5 million pages of documents since October 13, 2009. Cal IV has not yet examined each document produced by defendants or otherwise in this action for the purpose of determining which individual allegations of the Second Amended Class Action Complaint (“Complaint”) it might support, nor has Cal IV completed depositions that may more fully reveal facts and information relevant to these Requests. As discovery is not yet closed, including deposition and expert discovery, and the production of remaining data and/or documents, Plaintiff’s responses to these Requests is preliminary and tentative subject to completion of discovery and following an adequate opportunity to review and analyze all discovery in this action.

2. In responding to these Requests, Cal IV does not concede the relevance, materiality or admissibility of any of the admissions or responses sought herein. Cal IV’s responses are made subject to and without waiving any objections as to relevancy, materiality, admissibility, vagueness, ambiguity, competency or privilege.

3. Cal IV does not waive any of its rights to object on any ground to the use of its responses herein.

4. Cal IV objects to the Requests to the extent that they set forth compound, conjunctive or disjunctive statements.

5. Cal IV objects to each request, instruction or definition to the extent that they seek to impose obligations beyond those imposed or authorized by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Civil Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (“Civil Local Rules”), or the applicable standing orders and orders of this Court.

6. Cal IV objects to each request, instruction or definition to the extent that it would require the disclosure of information that is outside the scope of information relevant to this case or that is otherwise improper.

7. Cal IV objects to each request, instruction or definition to the extent that it would require the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege or immunity.

8. Cal IV objects to each request, instruction or definition to the extent that it would require the disclosure of information generated or compiled by or at the direction of Cal IV’s counsel.

9. Cal IV objects to each request, instruction or definition to the extent that it would require compilation or review of information otherwise within Defendants’ possession, custody or control or more easily accessible to Defendants.

10. Cal IV objects to each request, instruction or definition to the extent that they are vague, ambiguous, overly broad or unduly burdensome.

11. Cal IV objects to each request, instruction or definition to the extent that they purport to require separate responses for each “Accused Clip” as compound and unduly burdensome.

12. Cal IV objects to each request to the extent that they fail to specify an applicable time period and are thereby vague, ambiguous and overbroad.

13. Cal IV objects to each request as premature to the extent that it calls for expert opinion.

14. Cal IV objects to each request to the extent that it calls for a legal conclusion.

15. Cal IV objects to each request, instruction or definition to the extent that they purport to require Cal IV to respond to Defendants' characterizations of legal contentions or call for the application of law to fact to the extent such request seeks disclosure of privileged information.

16. Cal IV objects to the definitions of "Cal IV", "Cal IV's", "you" and "your" as overly broad and unduly burdensome, and further objects to the extent it seeks to impose obligations broader than those specified by Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26, and Civil Local Rule 26.3(c)(5). Cal IV further objects on the grounds that the definition includes an unknown and unknowable number of "present and former agents, employees, representatives, accountants, investigators, attorneys," "person[s] acting or purporting to act on its behalf", and "other person[s] otherwise subject to its control, which controls it, or is under common control with them." Moreover, this definition includes "affiliates," "divisions," and "units" without any explanation of those terms' meaning. Cal IV further objects to the extent these definitions call for privileged information and to the extent they seek information outside of Plaintiffs' possession, custody or control. In responding to the Interrogatories, Plaintiffs will construe the terms "Cal IV", "Cal IV's", "you" and "your" to mean Named Plaintiff Cal IV.

17. Cal IV objects to the definitions of "Work(s) In Suit" and "Accused Clip(s)" as compound, vague and ambiguous. Cal IV further objects to the extent these definitions call for privileged information. Cal IV further objects to the definitions of “Work(s) In Suit” and “Accused Clip(s)” to the extent such definitions attempt to limit the number or identity of infringed works or instances of infringement for which Cal IV seeks recovery. As set forth at paragraph 74 of the Second Amended Complaint, the infringed works specified by Cal IV in this litigation are “representative of Protected Works that are and have been infringed by Defendants and/or YouTube’s users.” Similarly, the infringements identified in Exhibit A to the Complaint and within the Complaint are representative and not an exhaustive list of the ongoing and massive infringement by Defendants. Cal IV reserves all rights to identify additional infringements and infringed works.

18. Cal IV objects to the definition of “substantially DMCA-compliant takedown notice” as vague and ambiguous as it requires a qualitative judgment and lacks common or ready definition.

19. Where Cal IV indicates a lack of information or knowledge sufficient to admit or deny a specific request, this lack of information or knowledge follows a reasonable inquiry by Cal IV, and the information known or readily obtainable by Cal IV is insufficient to enable the party to admit or deny.

20. Cal IV reserves the right to supplement or amend these responses. These responses should not be construed as, and do not constitute, a waiver of Cal IV’s right to prove additional facts at summary judgment or trial or any other rights.

21. These general objections are continuing and are incorporated by reference in Cal IV’s answers to each of the Requests set forth below. Any objection or lack of objection to any portion of these Requests is not an admission. Cal IV reserves the right to amend, supplement, modify, or correct these responses and objections as appropriate.

CAL IV'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO SPECIFIC REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1:

Admit that at all relevant times YouTube was a “service provider” as that term is used in 17 U.S.C. § 512(k)(1)(B).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the term “at all relevant times.” Cal IV further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV admits that the YouTube website in part, provides or operates facilities for, among other things, "online services or network access" as those terms are used in 17 U.S.C. § 512(k)(1)(B), and otherwise denies the request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2:

Admit that at all relevant times, YouTube stored material “at the direction of a user” as that phrase is used in 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(1).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2: Cal IV objects to this Request as vague and overbroad, including with respect to the terms “at all relevant times” and “material,” which are undefined terms. Cal IV further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. YouTube is a media entertainment enterprise that engages in an array of directly and secondarily infringing activities that are neither storage nor at the direction of a user, such as, without limitation, transforming, copying and distributing material without the direction of a user. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 3:

Admit that the material you allege to infringe your copyrights in this case was stored on the youtube.com service “at the direction of a user” as that phrase is used in 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(1).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 3: Cal IV objects to this Request for Admission as vague and overbroad, including with respect to the term “material,” which is an undefined term. Cal IV further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 4:

Admit that all of your copyright infringement claims in this action allege infringement of copyrights “by reason of the storage at the direction of a user” of material that resides on a system or network controlled or operated by or for YouTube, as set forth in 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(1).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 4: Cal IV objects to this Request for Admission as vague and overbroad, including with respect to the term “material,” which is an undefined term. Cal IV further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 5:

Admit that at all relevant times, YouTube had “designated an agent to receive notifications of claimed infringement” as set forth in 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(2).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 5: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the term “at all relevant times.” Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 6:

Admit that on every occasion that you sent YouTube a DMCA takedown notice relating to an accused clip, YouTube responded “expeditiously,” as that phrase is used in 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(1)(A)(iii), to remove or disable access to the material claimed to be infringing.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 6: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the term “material.” Cal IV further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 7:

Admit that on every occasion that you sent YouTube a DMCA takedown notice relating to an accused clip, YouTube responded within seventy-two business hours to remove or disable access to the material claimed to be infringing.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 7: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the term “material.” Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 8:

Admit that for all of the accused clips, prior to receiving a DMCA takedown notice from you identifying those specific clips, YouTube did not have "actual knowledge" that the material was infringing, as described in 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(1)(A)(i).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 8: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the term “material.” Cal IV further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 9:

Admit that on no occasion did YouTube fail to expeditiously remove or disable access to an accused clip to the extent YouTube became aware of facts or circumstances from which infringing activity was apparent, as described in 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(1)(A)(ii).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 9: Cal IV objects to this Request as compound. Cal IV further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 10:

Admit that YouTube lacked the right and ability to control the infringing activity alleged by you in this case, as described in 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(1)(B).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 10: Cal IV objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 11:

Admit that YouTube did not receive a financial benefit directly attributable to the infringing activity alleged by you in this case, as described in 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(1)(B).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 11: Cal IV objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 12:

Admit that at all relevant times, access to and use of the youtube.com service was provided to users by YouTube free and without charge.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 12: Cal IV objects to this Request as compound. Cal IV further objects to the terms “at all relevant times,” “access” and “use” as vague and ambiguous. For example, “use” of and “access” to the youtube.com website includes various activities, such as advertising. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies that “use” of the youtube.com website was provided free and without charge.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 13:

Admit that at all relevant times YouTube had adopted and reasonably implemented, and informed its subscribers and account holders of, a policy that provides for the termination in appropriate circumstances of subscribers and account holders of YouTube who were repeat infringers, as described in 17 U.S.C. § 512(i)(1)(A).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 13: Cal IV objects to this Request as vague and ambiguous, including the terms “at all relevant times,” “reasonably implemented” and “appropriate circumstances.” Cal IV further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 14:

Admit that at no time relevant to this lawsuit have there been any “standard technical measures” in existence as that term is defined in 17 U.S.C. §§ 512(i)(1)(B) and 512(i)(2).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 14: Cal IV objects to this Request as vague and ambiguous, including the term “in existence.” Cal IV further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for legal conclusion. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 15:

Admit that you do not claim in this case that YouTube failed to comply with 17 U.S.C. §§ 512(i)(1)(B) (i.e., YouTube accommodates and not interfere with “standard technical measures” to the extent any exist).

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 15: Cal IV objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 16:

Admit that the presence on the youtube.com website of videos embodying the works in suit can have the effect of increasing consumer demand for those works.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 16: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the phrases “can have the effect” and “consumer demand.” Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Cal IV further objects to this request on the ground that it seeks Cal IV’s opinion regarding an incomplete hypothetical question, not the admission or denial of a fact. Subject to the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request on the grounds that the presence of Cal IV content on youtube.com constitutes a substitution of the products sold or and licensed by Cal IV to third parties for a fee.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 17:

Admit that you agreed to YouTube’s Terms of Service when you created an account on the YouTube server.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 17: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the term “Terms of Service.” Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV states that it created a YouTube account in order to sign up for the Content Verification Program and further states that in order to sign up for the Content Verification Program, Cal IV was required by YouTube to agree to whatever terms YouTube unilaterally imposed on the YouTube account.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 18:

Admit that while you signed up for YouTube’s Content Verification Program, you did not use it.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 18: Cal IV objects to this Request on the ground that it calls for the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work-product doctrine. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that YouTube has used several euphemisms to refer to a number of “tools” that it offers to content owners. To the extent that the Content Verification Program “tool” is an electronic substitute for a DMCA takedown notice, Cal IV states that after signing up for the Content Verification Program, it determined that because of the huge volume of infringements of its works on the YouTube website, use of the Content Verification Program would not be an effective means of protecting Cal IV’s copyrighted content and that it has not used this “tool” and otherwise denies this Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 19:

Admit that you have not signed up to use YouTube’s Content ID tool.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 19: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that YouTube has used several euphemisms to refer to a number of “tools” that it offers to content owners. To the extent that Content ID is a “tool” that refers to digital fingerprinting technology, Cal IV states that Defendants have not made their digital fingerprinting technology readily available to Plaintiffs on reasonable terms.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 20:

Individually for each accused clip, admit that you did not send a DMCA takedown notice to YouTube within one week of becoming aware of that clip's presence on YouTube.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 20: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the term "becoming aware." Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that it calls for the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work-product doctrine. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Cal IV further objects to this request on the ground that it misconstrues the parties' respective obligations under applicable law. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request to the extent that Cal IV and/or its agents have sent DMCA takedown notices to YouTube within one week of Cal IV discovering the infringing content. Cal IV states that, because of the huge volume of infringements of its works on the YouTube website, it notified YouTube in a manner compliant with the DMCA as expeditiously as possible after determining that each YouTube video that it claims as infringing in the Complaints in this action infringed its content.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 21:

Individually for each accused clip, admit that you did not send a DMCA takedown notice to YouTube within one month of becoming aware of that clip's presence on YouTube.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 21: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the term "becoming aware." Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that it calls for the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work-product doctrine. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Cal IV further objects to this request on the ground that it misconstrues the parties' respective obligations under applicable law. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request to the extent that Cal IV and/or its agents have sent DMCA takedown notices to YouTube within one month of Cal IV discovering the infringing content. Cal IV states that, because of the huge volume of infringements of its works on the YouTube website, it notified YouTube in a manner compliant with the DMCA as expeditiously as possible after determining that each YouTube video that it claims as infringing in the Complaints in this action infringed its content.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 22:

Individually for each accused clip, admit that you did not send a DMCA takedown notice to YouTube within two months of becoming aware of that clip's presence on YouTube.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 22: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the term "becoming aware." Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that it calls for the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work-product doctrine. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Cal IV further objects to this request on the ground that it misconstrues the parties' respective obligations under applicable law. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request to the extent that Cal IV and/or its agents have sent DMCA takedown notices to YouTube within two months of Cal IV discovering the infringing content. Cal IV states that, because of the huge volume of infringements of its works on the YouTube website, it notified YouTube in a manner compliant with the DMCA as expeditiously as possible after determining that each YouTube video that it claims as infringing in the Complaints in this action infringed its content.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 23:

Admit that you retracted DMCA takedown notices sent to YouTube for one or more of your works.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 23: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that the terms “retracted” and “your works” are vague and ambiguous as used in this Request. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Cal IV further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for a legal conclusion. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections and as further set forth in Cal IV’s response to Interrogatory No. 14 and Cal IV witnesses’ deposition testimony, Cal IV states that on one occasion it retracted its request to take down two video clips that were posted by Carey Ott—a songwriter employed by Cal IV at the time as an independent contractor over whom Cal IV had no control—as a courtesy to Mr. Ott. Cal IV otherwise denies the Request.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 24:

Admit that you have issued licenses for works in suit that grant the license the right to exhibit and distribute the work on websites, including YouTube.com.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 24: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that the terms “exhibit”, “distribute” and “the work” are vague and ambiguous as used in this Request. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that any rights extended to a licensee of Cal IV content do not extend to parties such as unauthorized uploaders of content or YouTube, neither of whom derive any rights under such license. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies that language granting rights in a license can be read in isolation and states that it must be read in light of other terms and restrictions in that license. Cal IV states that it has granted a limited number of licenses that grant certain rights, subject to various limitations, including without limitation, limitations on duration, territory, and use of musical compositions only in connection with particular video footage and in some cases, limitations to particular websites; among such licenses, there are an even smaller number that have granted licensees the right to use certain musical compositions on YouTube in combination with certain specified footage and in exchange for the payment of a license fee, subject to such additional restrictions, such as duration, territory and other restrictions of the type described above.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 25:

Admit that the license agreement produced at CAL00002218 grants the licensee the right to exhibit and distribute the work on websites, including YouTube.com.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 25: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that the terms “exhibit”, “distribute,” “the work” and “on websites” are vague and ambiguous. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that the requested matter is not relevant to this case, because there is no evidence that Defendants or the uploader of any infringing clip has represented that they have a license to post Cal IV content on YouTube. Cal IV further objects on the ground that any rights extended to a licensee of Cal IV content do not extend to parties such as unauthorized uploaders of content or YouTube, neither of whom derive any rights under such license. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies that language granting rights to exploit content in “all media now known or hereafter devised,” “online programming services” or “downloads and/or streams” standing alone authorizes a licensee to exploit Cal IV content on websites generally or on YouTube.com specifically. Cal IV states that the license produced at the bates number above grants certain rights to exploit Cal IV content on the internet subject to the express terms of the agreement, including the fee paid by the licensee in exchange for said rights.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 26:

Admit that the license agreement produced at CAL0000233 grants the licensee the right to exhibit and distribute the work on websites, including YouTube.com.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 26: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that the terms “exhibit”, “distribute,” “the work” and “on websites” are vague and ambiguous. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that the requested matter is not relevant to this case, because there is no evidence that Defendants or the uploader of any infringing clip has represented that they have a license to post Cal IV content on YouTube. Cal IV further objects on the ground that any rights extended to a licensee of Cal IV content do not extend to parties such as unauthorized uploaders of content or YouTube, neither of whom derive any rights under such license. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies that language granting rights to exploit content in “all media now known or hereafter devised,” “promotional downloading for marketing purposes,” “streaming and temporary downloading” and “permanent downloading” standing alone authorize a licensee to exploit Cal IV content on websites generally or on YouTube.com specifically and further states that the license produced at the bates number above specifically excludes “theatrical, out-of-context and/or non-sequential / non-linear uses,” such as YouTube.com. Cal IV states that the license produced at the bates number above grants certain rights but excludes “theatrical, out-of-context and/or non-sequential / non-linear uses.”

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 27:

Admit that the license agreement produced at CAL 0000219-20 grants the licensee the right to exhibit and distribute the work on websites, including YouTube.com.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 27: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that the terms “exhibit”, “distribute,” “the work” and “on websites” are vague and ambiguous. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that the requested matter is not relevant to this case, because there is no evidence that Defendants or the uploader of any infringing clip has represented that they have a license to post Cal IV content on YouTube. Cal IV further objects on the ground that any rights extended to a licensee of Cal IV content do not extend to parties such as unauthorized uploaders of content or YouTube, neither of whom derive any rights under such license. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies that language granting rights to exploit in “any and all linear media, whether now known or hereafter devised” and “Internet (whether downloading, streaming or otherwise)” standing alone authorize a licensee to exploit Cal IV content on websites generally or on YouTube.com specifically. Cal IV states that the license produced at the bates number above grants certain rights to exploit Cal IV content subject to the express terms of the agreement, including the fee paid by the licensee in exchange for said rights and the limitation that rights conferred by the license apply “only in synchronization or timed relationship to the Motion Picture and trailers.”

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 28:

Admit that the license agreement produced at CAL00002597-601 grants the licensee the right to exhibit and distribute the work on websites, including YouTube.com.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 28: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that the terms “exhibit”, “distribute,” “the work” and “on websites” are vague and ambiguous. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that the license produced at the bates numbers is not applicable to the works-in-suit. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that the requested matter is not relevant to this case, because there is no evidence that Defendants or the uploader of any infringing clip has represented that they have a license to post Cal IV content on YouTube. Cal IV further objects on the ground that any rights extended to a licensee of Cal IV content do not extend to parties such as unauthorized uploaders of content on YouTube, neither of whom derive any rights under such license. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies that language granting rights to exploit in “a streamed transmission” “audio and/or audiovisual download offered via official show website and all other associated and branded websites,” “audio download/streaming realtone or ringback,” “Internet Streaming via official show websites” and “Internet Streaming via affiliated websites (e.g., www.hulu.com)” standing alone authorize a licensee to exploit Cal IV content on websites generally or on YouTube.com specifically. In addition, Cal IV denies that the license produced at the bates number above grants rights to exploit Cal IV content on YouTube.com, because the express terms of the agreement permit exploitation of Cal IV content only on “official show websites” and “affiliated websites (e.g., www.hulu.com).”

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 29:

Admit that on no occasion did you inform YouTube of the existence of the license agreements set forth in Requests 27-30.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 29: Cal IV objects to this Request as unintelligible on the ground that no license agreements are set forth in Requests 29 and 30. Cal IV further objects to this Request on the ground that the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request to the extent it implies that Cal IV has any obligation to inform YouTube of the existence of these license agreements. As a business practice, it is ordinarily incumbent upon the party exploiting content, i.e. YouTube, to seek and obtain appropriate license as well as information concerning the owner and/or administrator of content it is exploiting. Such information is readily and publicly available including through public databases identifying Cal IV as the administrator of and/or owner of the works in suit and other Cal IV content. Cal IV further denies this Request for the reasons set forth in its responses to Requests nos. 27-30.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 30:

Individually for each accused clip, admit that you did not consult with the co-owner(s) of the work-in-suit to ensure that the clip was not authorized to appear on the YouTube.com site.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 30: Cal IV objects to this request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the terms “consult”, “ensure” and “co-owner(s).” Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request to the extent it implies that Cal IV is obligated to consult with a co-owner (if any) to ensure that each accused clip was unauthorized to be on the YouTube website, and states that, with respect to each accused clip, it either has the right to take legal action without consulting with a co-owner (if any), or it obtained approval from a co-owner (if any) to take legal action against Defendants.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 31:

Individually for each accused clip, admit that you did not consult with the writer (i.e., a writer signed with Cal IV) of the work-in-suit to ensure that the clip was not authorized to appear on the YouTube.com site.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 31: Cal IV objects to this request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the terms “consult,” “ensure” and “writer.” Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request to the extent it implies that Cal IV is obligated to consult with the “writer” to ensure that each accused clip was unauthorized to be on the YouTube website, and states that, with respect to each accused clip, Cal IV either has no obligation to consult with the “writer” of the work prior to taking action against Defendants for infringements of Cal IV’s works, or that it obtained the necessary authorizations (if any were necessary) to take action against Defendants.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 32:

Individually for each accused clip, admit that you did not consult with any of your licensees to ensure that the clip was not authorized to appear on the YouTube.com site.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 32: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the words “consult” and “ensure.” Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that the requested matter is outside the scope of information relevant to this case. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objection, Cal IV denies that, with respect to each accused clip, any of the infringing clips involved licensed materials within the scope of the license.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 33:

Admit that some of your works in suit are co-owned by third parties.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 33: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the terms “co-owned” and “third parties.”

Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that it seeks information that is neither relevant to any claim or defense of any party nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request as to the work-in-suit “Sharing the Night Together” and admits this Request as to the work-in-suit “If You’re Going Through Hell.”

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 34:

Admit that for the works in suit co-owned by third parties, the co-owners are not required to consult with you or seek your permission before licensing the work.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 34: Cal IV objects to this Request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the terms “co-owned,” “third parties,” “co-owners,” and “consult.” Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that it seeks information that is neither relevant to any claim or defense of any party nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request as inapplicable to the work-in-suit “Sharing the Night Together.” Cal IV denies this Request with regard to work-in-suit “If You’re Going Through Hell” insofar as it applies to licensing for the YouTube website.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 35:

Admit that your writers (i.e. writers signed by Cal IV) have posted videos on YouTube.

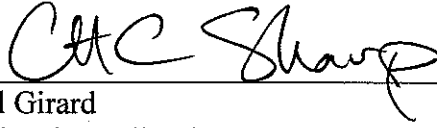

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 35: Cal IV objects to this request on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous, including the term “writer.” Cal IV further objects to this Request on the grounds that it seeks information that is neither relevant to any claim or defense of any party nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Cal IV denies this Request to the extent it related to Cal IV's works-in-suit. Cal IV states that to its knowledge and as further set forth in Cal IV's response to Interrogatory No. 14 and Cal IV witnesses' deposition testimony, Carey Ott—a songwriter previously employed by Cal IV as an independent contractor over whom Cal IV had no control—posted videos on YouTube, but was not authorized to do so at the time of posting Cal IV otherwise denies the Request.

BRADFORD

11:05:06 2 different names listed as copyright claimants? Do you
11:05:09 3 see that?
11:05:10 4 A Yes.
11:05:10 5 Q Can you explain who each claimant is?
11:05:13 6 A Gravitron Music and Whaddayadef Music are the 11:05:28 7 copyright claimants on behalf of Sam Tate and Kathleen 11:05:34 8 Wright, person known as Annie Tate, and Cal IV is 11:05:39 9 the rep- -- the claimant on behalf of Dave Berg.
11:05:43 10 Q Are Gravitron Music and Whaddayadef Music, 11:05:46 11 are those the same company or are they different
11:05:49 12 companies?
11:05:49 13 A I'm not completely sure because that's -- you
11:05:53 14 know, that -- that's a third party. From what my 11:05:56 15 understanding is, Gravitron Music is the SESAC
11:06:01 16 publisher for a company called Carnival Music Company
11:06:06 17 based in Nashville. And Sam Tate and Annie Tate were 11:06:14 18 under contract with that company when they wrote the 11:06:23 19 song and -- and it appears that part of their deal
11:06:27 20 included co-publishing interest, which, I believe,
11:06:30 21 is -- that's where the Whaddayadef Music is probably 11:06:32 22 the name of their co-publishing interest.
11:06:35 23 Q And at the time this registration was filed,
11:06:38 24 which, as you'll note, was June 19th, 2006, did your 11:06:42 25 company, in fact, have an ownership interest in this

11:06:44 2 copyright?

11:06:44 3 MS. SHARP: The question may call for a legal 11:06:46 4 conclusion.
11:06:48 5 Answer to the extent you know the answer.
11:06:52 6 THE WITNESS: Yes.
11:06:55 7 MR. FRANTZ: Q. And why do you say your 11:06:56 8 company had an ownership interest?
11:06:59 9 MS. SHARP: Again, legal conclusion.
11:07:01 10 THE WITNESS: As I discussed earlier, Dave
11:07:05 11 Berg was under contract with us at the time of writing
11:07:09 12 this composition.
11:07:16 13 MR. FRANTZ: Q. And when did your company
11:07:17 14 acquire the ownership interest?
11:07:19 15 A Upon creation of the work.
11:07:20 16 Q What percent ownership in the -- in the 11:07:23 17 overall work did your company acquire?
11:07:25 18 MS. SHARP: Same objection.
11:07:26 19 THE WITNESS: Our -- our controlled
11:07:30 20 administrative interest is one-third.
11:07:33 21 MR. FRANTZ: Q. And was it one-third the 11:07:35 22 whole time or did that change at some point?
11:07:38 23 A Initially, Dave Berg had a co-publishing
11:07:44 24 arrangement with -- with Cal IV. The name of his 11:07:52 25 co-publisher was Berg -- BergBrain Music, and at the 11:08:02 2 time the -- the contractual split between Cal IV and 11:08:05 3 his co-pub was of -- of the controlled administered

11:08:12 4 share, Cal IV had two-thirds, and BergBrain Music had 11:08:17 5 one-third, but that -- the BergBrain Music pur- --
11:08:23 6 catalog was purchased by Cal IV, and, thus, the full
11:08:26 7 share became Cal IV's share.

11:08:35 8 Q And with respect to the overall copyright
11:08:37 9 today, what percentage of the copyright does Cal IV
11:08:40 10 own?

11:08:41 11 MS. SHARP: Same objection.

11:08:49 12 THE WITNESS: Today it's one-third.

11:08:58 13 MR. FRANTZ: Okay.

11:08:58 14 Q Now, look at the second page.

11:08:59 15 Do you see at the bottom of the second page
11:09:01 16 in -- in Section No. 9 is a reference to "Bluewater 11:09:04 17 Music Services Corp/Attn: Dan Ekback"? Do you see 11:09:12 18 where I'm looking?

11:09:14 19 A Yes.

11:09:14 20 Q Okay. Do you know who Dan Ekback of 11:09:17 21 Bluewater Music Services Corp is?

11:09:23 22 A Yes.

11:09:23 23 Q Who is he?

11:09:24 24 A At the time, he was -- I'm not sure exactly 11:09:28 25 what his title was, but he was an upper-level

11:09:40 3 Services Corp.
11:09:43 4 Q And who's Bluewater Music Services Corp, if 11:09:48 5 you know?
11:09:48 6 A Bluewater is -- I -- well, I -- I'm not 11:09:52 7 completely sure what all they do. Obviously, that's a 11:09:57 8 third party, but from my understanding is they are -- 11:10:06 9 and a -- a copyright administration service for other
11:10:10 10 publishers.
11:10:12 11 Q And if you look at Section 8, just above
11:10:16 12 where we're looking, very small box that's checked
11:10:20 13 that says "Authorized agent of Gravitron Music, 11:10:29 14 Whaddayadef Music," does that mean that this copyright
11:10:33 15 was filed by Bluewater on behalf of Gravitron Music
11:10:38 16 and Whaddayadef Music?
11:10:42 17 A Dan Ekback, from -- from my understanding of 11:10:45 18 this, Dan Ekback of Bluewater Music Services was -- 11:10:50 19 was/is the administrator for Gravitron, Whaddayadef,
11:10:57 20 and they filed the copyright registration.
11:10:59 21 Q Did Cal IV have any involvement in the filing
11:11:02 22 of the copyright registration?
11:11:04 23 A No.
11:11:06 24 Q Did Cal IV know about the filing of the 11:11:10 25 copyright registration?

11:47:58 2 songwriter's agreement immediately upon its creation,
11:48:03 3 which was in 2005, I believe -- is that correct?
11:48:06 4 A Let me look at this schedule here.
11:48:16 5 Date of creation April 19th, 2005.
11:48:19 6 Q Okay. So your testimony is that the 11:48:21 7 copyright was assigned from Berg to Cal IV, at least a 11:48:26 8 certain interest of that was assigned immediately upon 11:48:29 9 creation; is that correct?
11:48:33 10 A Yes.
11:48:33 11 Q So why is there any need for the assignment
11:48:36 12 documents in 2007?
11:48:42 13 A It's a -- are you -- which one are you -- are 11:48:45 14 you referring to? Exhibit 9?
11:48:47 15 Q I'm referring to both Exhibit 8 and 11:48:49 16 Exhibit 9.
11:48:49 17 A Okay. Exhibit 8 was necessary because of the 11:48:51 18 asset sale and purchase agreement, or asset purchase
11:48:54 19 and sale agreement.
11:48:56 20 Exhibit 9 was necessary as a prescribed step
11:49:05 21 with -- that was -- that -- that was an obligation
11:49:14 22 under the songwriter agreement. It's more of a 11:49:18 23 formality to list the compositions within the 11:49:24 24 agreement.
11:49:27 25 Q But there was nothing improper about -- about copyright immediately upon its creation; is that 11:49:38

correct?

11:49:38

A Correct.

11:49:39

Q Okay. Now, are there co- -- other co-owners of the work "If You're Going Through Hell"?

11:49:44

11:49:48

A We discussed that earlier. The publishers

11:49:55

11

Whaddayadef Music.

11:49:57

12

Q And how do you know about those co- -- other

co-owners?

11:50:03

14

MS. SHARP: Form.

11:50:04

15

THE WITNESS: Well, how -- how do I know that they are the co-owners, or how do I know about the 17

co-owners?

11:50:15

18

MR. FRANTZ: Q. Well, how do you know that they are the co-owners of that work?

11:50:17

19

11:50:22

20

A Because when Dave Berg turned the song in to 11:50:26

21

us, on our -- in our process of deliveries and, you know, we -- we need to know who he wrote songs with,

11:50:33

11:50:37

23

he told us that Sam Tate and Annie Tate co-wrote the 11:50:53 2 know, the -- you know, the -- their SESAC company is 11:50:57 3 Gravitron Music. That's a subsidiary of Carnival, so

11:51:01 4 they were under agreement with them.

11:51:05 5 Q And if there were some change in the 11:51:08 6 ownership status with respect to the other co-owners
11:51:11 7 of this work, would you be notified of that?

11:51:15 8 A Not necessarily.

11:51:23 9 Q Do you agree that the other co-owners of the 11:51:26 10 work are entitled to grant licenses with respect to 11:51:30 11 the work?

11:51:34 12 A As -- as the -- controlling and administering
11:51:41 13 their exclusive rights, I would say yes.

11:51:43 14 Q Do you know whether any of the co-owners, the 11:51:46 15 other co-owners have, in fact, granted any such 11:51:49 16 licenses with respect to "If You're Going Through 11:51:52 17 Hell"?

11:51:55 18 A I honestly -- I -- I wouldn't know what kind 11:51:57 19 of licenses they grant. I don't have access to their 11:52:02 20 documents.

11:52:04 21 Q Could you acquire such information?

11:52:10 22 A Probably not.

11:52:12 23 Q When you say "Probably not," why do you say
11:52:15 24 that?

11:52:18 25 A Because they would have no reason to give me

11:52:23 2 copies of their licenses.

11:52:24 3 MR. FRANTZ: Let's mark a new exhibit,

11:52:28 5 (Document marked Bradford Exhibit 10
11:52:38 6 for identification.)

11:52:38 7 THE WITNESS: Are we done with these 11:52:40 8 exhibits? Can I get them out of my way?

11:52:42 9 MR. FRANTZ: We are for the most part, but 11:52:43 10 there is a chance I may come back to them.

11:52:46 11 THE WITNESS: Okay.

11:52:52 12 MS. SHARP: There you go, sir.

11:52:54 13 I'm sorry. Exhibit?

11:52:55 14 MR. FRANTZ: 10.

11:53:04 15 THE WITNESS: Okay.

11:53:05 16 MR. FRANTZ: Can you identify -- let me just 11:53:07 17 note for the record that its -- the Bates No. is CAL
11:53:14 18 '1593 through '97.

11:53:15 19 Q Can you identify the document?

11:53:18 20 A This is a "Lyric Reprint License Agreement"
11:53:24 21 between Cal IV and Country Music Media Group for "If 11:53:28 22 You're Going Through Hell."

11:53:28 23 Q All right.

11:53:28 24 And when you look at the first page of the 11:53:30 25 document, do you see that it says Cal IV controls

DAVID FELDMAN WORLDWIDE, INC.

805 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10022 (212)705-8585

1 BRADFORD

11:53:33 2 33.34 percent of the work?

11:53:39 3 MS. SHARP: Where are you looking, Counsel?

11:53:41 4 MR. FRANTZ: I'm looking in Section 1, the 11:53:44 5 last sentence of Section 1.

11:53:47 6 THE WITNESS: Yes.

11:53:48 7 MR. FRANTZ: Okay.

11:53:49 8 Q And am I correct that at that time, which is 11:53:54 9 August 14th, 2006, what that meant is that Cal IV
11:53:58 10 itself owned 22 percent and BergBrain owned
11:54:04 11 11 percent? Is that correct?

11:54:08 12 MS. SHARP: Misleading question.

11:54:09 13 You can answer, if you understand it.

11:54:10 14 THE WITNESS: Well, to be more specific, Cal
11:54:14 15 IV 22.23, and BergBrain 11.11. That's correct.

11:54:19 16 MR. FRANTZ: Okay.

11:54:25 17 Q And if you flip to the last page, which is 11:54:28 18 '1597, do you see towards the top in the column on the 11:54:37 19 right it says "Controlled Percentage: 0"?

11:54:42 20 A Yes.

11:54:42 21 Q What does that mean?

11:54:47 22 A This -- well, this is -- for one thing, this 11:54:49 23 is a printout from RightTrack in our system, and 11:54:56 24 the -- RightTrack is not a -- a very modernized
11:55:03 25 program. It's a very old program. Basically, I use

1 BRADFORD

17:29:48 2 sentence we just read, this is, again, your e-mail, 17:29:52 3 you say, "However, our license agreements must be 17:29:57 4 specific to each use."

17:29:59 5 What did you mean by that?

17:30:03 6 A Probably specific to each use. The -- each
17:30:08 7 use, being whatever video he intended to post.

17:30:14 8 Q "Each use," does that mean each URL?

17:30:20 9 A I -- I would say a -- the URL was indicative
17:30:24 10 of the use.

17:30:25 11 Q Does "each use" mean something besides each
17:30:32 12 URL?

17:30:36 13 A Well, I would say that the -- the posting of 17:30:39 14 a video, which generates a unique URL, is a specific 17:30:45 15 use.

17:30:49 16 Q Because if we keep reading, you say, "In this
17:30:52 17 case, the URL of each video posting needs to be listed
17:30:55 18 in the license agreement."

17:30:57 19 So what I'm trying to understand here was,
17:30:59 20 were you contemplating that the license would apply
17:31:02 21 only to particular URLs?

17:31:06 22 A Yes, I believe that was the intention.

17:31:07 23 Q So does this mean that for two identical
17:31:10 24 clips, one on YouTube could be infringing and one
17:31:13 25 would not be infringing, depending on whether the

BRADFORD

17:31:15

particular URL was listed in the license agreement?

17:31:19

Is that correct?

17:31:24

A Well, this was -- this issue was specific to 17:31:28

Carey's videos that were being posted on his behalf,

17:31:34

and those were the ones that we were amenable to 17:31:41

agreeing to, and so I would say other uses of the same

17:31:47

clip, yes, they would be infringing uses.

17:31:51

Q And is there any way for YouTube to determine

17:32:00

10

whether two identical clips, either one of those clips

17:32:05

11

is licensed and the other is not licensed?

17:32:08

12

MS. SHARP: Objection; calls for speculation.

17:32:09

13

THE WITNESS: Well, as I stated before,

17:32:11

14

the -- they're responsible for making sure that the 17:32:15

15

content on -- on their website is legit.

17:32:19

16

MR. FRANTZ: Q. Have you provided YouTube

17:32:21

17 with the list -- or not with the list, but with all

17:32:23

18

your licenses?

17:32:30

19

A Which licenses?

17:32:31

20

Q All of your licenses respecting all of your 17:32:34

21 compositions.

17:32:34

22

MS. SHARP: Objection; vague.

17:32:35

23

THE WITNESS: Why?

17:32:38

24

MR. FRANTZ: Because if YouTube doesn't have 17:32:39

25

a full list of the licenses at issue, how could it

1 BRADFORD

17:32:42 2 possibly determine whether you, in your discretion,
17:32:45 3 determined to issue a particular license for a
17:32:48 4 particular URL?

17:32:49 5 MS. SHARP: Objection; calls for speculation.

17:32:50 6 THE WITNESS: I -- I don't believe that 17:32:53 7 burden is ours.

17:33:10 8 MR. FRANTZ: All right. Let's mark the next
17:33:12 9 exhibit.

17:33:17 10 (Document marked Bradford Exhibit 29
17:33:19 11 for identification.)

17:33:19 12 MR. FRANTZ: This is Exhibit 29, and it's CAL
17:33:24 13 '866 to '67.

17:33:40 14 THE WITNESS: Okay.

17:33:40 15 MR. FRANTZ: Q. Can you identify these 17:33:41 16 e-mails?

17:33:44 17 A Well, this is related to the Carey Ott
17:33:47 18 situation, and it looks like there's certain URLs
17:33:51 19 involved.

17:33:57 20 Q And it appears that you did decide to retract
17:34:01 21 your -- your notification to YouTube; isn't that 17:34:06 22 correct?

17:34:07 23 A It appears that way, yes.

17:34:08 24 Q Do you recall this?

17:34:10 25 A I mean, it's not in my -- you know, it's not

BRADFORD

17:34:19 2 right on the top of my mind right now, but, you know,
17:34:23 3 looking at the e-mail, yeah, it sounds familiar to me.

17:34:25 4 Q Why did you decide to retract this takedown
17:34:27 5 notice?

17:34:30 6 A Because it was part of the process with Carey
17:34:38 7 Ott. You know, it was -- it was at our discretion.

17:34:40 8 Q And flipping to page '867, do you see -- I
17:34:53 9 don't know how to pronounce that name, Bohagey Bowes;
17:34:56 10 do you see that reference?

17:34:58 11 A Yes.

17:34:58 12 Q Do you know who Mr. Bowes is?

17:35:01 13 A I don't. I think he probably has something
17:35:03 14 to do with Carey Ott's manager, but that's a guess.

17:35:10 15 Q Do you see where Mr. Bowes says in this 17:35:13 16 e-mail, "There has been a mix-up involving the 17:35:16 17 copyright which is now resolved"?

17:35:20 18 A I see that.

17:35:21 19 Q Do you agree with Mr. Bowes, that there was,
17:35:24 20 in fact, a mixup involving the copyright?

17:35:27 21 A Well, I guess he's referring to this issue
17:35:29 22 with Carey Ott that we've been discussing. You know,
17:35:36 23 whether or not it's a mixup, I don't, you know,
17:35:39 24 necessarily agree with that term, but there was 17:35:42 25 definitely a situation involving this, yes.

boxes. Period.

Q. What does the CMS tool do?

A. The CMS enables the content
06:22:53 owners to find videos sorted by keywords, and then we can -- for each videos, we can choose to remove, to ask to remove it on it.

Q. Did FFT ever sign up for the
06:22:53 content verification tool?

A. As what?

Q. Did FFT ever sign up to use the content verification tool?

MR. GITTERMAN: Objection to the 06:22:53 form. I assume you mean FFT and not Net Result.

MR. KIRSCHNER: I said FFT.

A. I don't know if it's content verification tool, so. I don't know this 06:22:53 is the same as the content verification tool.

MR. KIRSCHNER: I'd like to mark, as Exhibit 4, a document produced by FFT, bearing the Bates
06:22:54 label FT16689 through 94.

form.

A. If I remember well, we sent 06:22:56 the -- Net Results send the take-down notices, and YouTube respond saying, okay, we will remove it; but by the way, we can show you the content verification program.

Q. So YouTube informed FFT about
06:22:56 the existence of this tool?

A. Informed Net Results.

Q. Has FFT had any problems using CVP?

MR. GITTERMAN: Objection to 06:22:56 form. Vague and ambiguous, lacks foundation. I don't know that you've established that FFT uses it.

A. In 2007 this is Net Results. We use the CVP.

06:22:56 Q. So Net Results used CVP in 2007?

A. Yes.

Q. And FFT actually used it, used
CVP itself, after that point?

MR. GITTERMAN: Objection to

06:22:56 form.

1 LOTH

2 A. In 2009.

3 Q. And Net Result was using CVP on 4 FFT's behalf in 2007, correct?

5 06:22:56 A. Yes.

6 Q. Are you aware of YouTube's
7 content ID program?

8 A. Content ID program.

9 Q. Are you aware of YouTube's
10 06:22:56 fingerprinting technology?

11 MR. GITTERMAN: Objection to
12 form.

13 A. We know about fingerprinting
14 YouTube technology.

15 06:22:56 Q. How did you learn about 16 YouTube's fingerprinting technology?

17 A. YouTube speak about 18 fingerprinting technology before, just 19 before 2009 events.

20 06:22:57 Q. So YouTube contacted FFT to 21 inform it that it had fingerprinting
22 technology?

23 MR. GITTERMAN: Objection to the 24 form.

25 06:22:57 A. Yes.

Q. The amended complaint?

A. I don't know everything. I have an idea.

06:23:23 Q. FFT -- in the amended complaint FFT asserted three allegedly infringing videos, correct?

A. What? I don't know if it's three. At least three.

06:23:23 MR. GITTERMAN: I'm going to also object to this as being beyond the notice topics.

Q. My next question may tie the loop.

06:23:23 As of the date of the amended complaint, had FFT sent take-down notices for all of the videos it listed in the complaint?

A. It's my understanding, yes.

06:23:24 Q. What is that understanding based on?

A. Because those clips have been removed, and we did something to remove it -- them, to remove them.

06:23:24 Q. How do you know those clips had

1 LOTH

2 been removed?

3 A. Because we had the URL, and we
4 came back to see.

5 06:23:24 Q. On May 8th, 2009 FFT submitted a
6 revised list of allegedly infringing
7 videos in this case, correct?

8 MR. GITTERMAN: Objection. I
9 think this goes beyond the notice
10 06:23:24 topics.

11 If you know anything about it,
12 you can answer.

13 A. I don't know the dates. I know
14 there is a list with more than 500.

15 06:23:25 Q. As of the date of that list, had 16 FFT sent take-down notices to YouTube for 17 all of the videos listed?

18 A. I don't know if it's one
19 take-down notice per video. What I know
20 06:23:25 is all videos has been removed.

21 Q. So you had removed all of the 22 allegedly infringing videos asserted in 23 this case?

24 A. Yes.

25 06:23:25 MR. GITTERMAN: Objection to the

1 LOTH

2 form. Vague and ambiguous.

3 Q. When did YouTube remove those 4 videos?

5 06:23:25 A. I don't know. I don't know
6 exactly when.

7 Q. Was it within a day of the 8 take-down notice?

9 A. I don't know if it was 24 hours,
10 06:23:25 48 hours, I don't know.

11 Q. But it was a short time after 12 the take-down notice, correct?

13 MR. GITTERMAN: Objection to
14 form. Vague and ambiguous.

15 06:23:26 A. Depends what you call short. It 16 should be in the first place. Short is 17 never enough.

18 Q. Did YouTube remove the videos
19 within days of the take-down notice?

20 06:23:26 A. I don't know.

21 Q. But it was days, correct?

22 A. Sorry, yes, it was days.

23 MR. KIRSCHNER: Let's take a
24 short break, if that's okay.

25 06:23:26 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is

1 LOTH

2 5:48 p.m., and we are off the record.

3 (Whereupon, there is a recess in 4 the proceedings.)

5 06:23:26 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is
6 6:03 p.m., and we are back on the 7 record.

8 Q. I'd like to play you some videos
9 and ask you some questions about the 10 06:23:26 videos, okay? So I'm going to play you a
11 video that was posted at the URL
12 <http://www.YouTube.com/watchV=A5Q6RBR3TW>.

13 (Whereupon, the video was 14 played.)

15 06:23:26 MR. GITTERMAN: Actually, before
16 you ask a question, was this video
17 produced in the case?

18 MR. KIRSCHNER: Yes.

19 MR. GITTERMAN: Do you know what 20 06:23:26 Bates number it was produced at?

21 MR. KIRSCHNER: I don't have the

Q. Was Cherry Lane aware that the content verification tool was available before that date?

11:26:04 A. I believe that Cherry Lane had been sending -- excuse me. I believe, in this instance, Cherry Lane had sent a DMCA notice to YouTube that they were not able to comply with in Misty's E-mail to Basa. She asked that we resubmit the list of URLs in either the body of an E-mail or plain text or HTML because we wanted to remove the links.

11:26:36 Subsequent to this, or with this correspondence, is when we became aware of the content verification tool; with the receipt of this E-mail.

Q. So you weren't aware of the availability of this tool before April 9th, 2007?

A. Sitting here today, I do not believe that Cherry Lane was aware of the content verification tool prior to this E-mail exchange.

Q. And you said that Cherry Lane did sign up to use the content verification tool; is that right?

11:27:05 A. Yes.

Q. When did Cherry Lane sign up to use that tool?

A. I believe it to be spring of 2007. It would have been most likely in connection with this E-mail correspondence.

11:27:19 Q. Does April 2007, does that sound about right, as to when Cherry Lane signed up to use the content verification tool?

MR. HART: Sorry. Just have that read back, please.

(Whereupon, the aforementioned question was read back by the Court Reporter.)

A. Yes.

Q. Did Cherry Lane use the content verification tool to find its content on -- 11:27:55 MR. HART: Objection.

1 KEITH HAUPRICH

2 Sorry, go ahead.

3 Q. -- on YouTube?

4 MR. HART: Objection to

5 11:27:59 form.

6 A. From April 2007 to date, the 7 content verification tool is one of the 8 ways we try to monitor our content on 9 YouTube. It is triage. Not cosmetic
10 11:28:17 surgery.

11 So all the tools are made
12 available to us, we are eager to use,
13 including the content verification
14 tool.

15 11:28:24 Q. Did Cherry Lane also use the 16 content verification tool to remove its 17 content on YouTube?

18 A. Yes, the content
19 verification tool was one of the means 20 11:28:36 we used to monitor our content on 21 YouTube.

22 Q. What I asked was whether
23 Cherry Lane had used the content
24 verification tool to remove its 25 11:28:49 content, not just to monitor it.

11:29:02 Q. Does Cherry Lane still use the content verification tool to find and remove its content on YouTube?

A. Yes, that is one of the ways.

11:29:19 Q. Did Cherry Lane ever have any problems accessing its account for the content verification tool?

A. Accessing the account, no.

11:29:45 Q. Was Cherry Lane's account for the content verification tool ever blocked?

A. Was our access blocked?

Q. Right.

A. No.

11:29:53 Q. Was it ever closed?

MR. HART: The account?

MR. JACOVER: The account.

Q. Was the account ever closed?

A. Meaning blocked or otherwise inaccessible, not that I am aware of.

11:30:21 MR. HART: Objection to form.

A. Can you repeat the question, please.

Q. Sure. Has the content verification tool been useful for Cherry Lane in finding its content on YouTube?

MR. HART: I maintain my objection as to form. Useful.

11:30:48 A. It is very useful in finding content. We submit -- when we give notice to take down the content, we use the verification tool to refind the same video coupled with the same sound bite time and time again.

So even though the initial URL goes down the first time, content of the same audio visual work and the same song constantly appears that is readily identifiable by the content

2 verification tool.

3 Q. And just so I understand
4 what you are saying, you are referring 5 11:31:21 to content that is posted under 6 different URLs; is that right?

7 A. That sounds about right.

8 Q. Has the content verification
9 tool also been useful for Cherry Lane
10 11:31:36 in removing its content from YouTube?

11 MR. HART: Asked and 12 answered. Form. Useful.

13 A. As one of the ways to try to 14 control unauthorized use of content, we 15 11:31:51 use it in that context. I am going to 16 say it is useful in that context.

17 Q. Are you familiar with 18 content identification tools that are 19 based on fingerprinting technology?

20 11:32:05 A. No, but I would like to be.
21 This is the subject matter that's been 22 -- this is the topic that's been
23 subject to an ongoing letter campaign
24 by Google and their unwillingness to 25 11:32:17 enter into an engagement letter.

MR. JACOVER: Generally.

MR. HART: I think there may

Subject: RE: YouTube Content Verification Program

The Content Verification Tool is a proprietary based tool developed and maintained by YouTube. The use is very simple and effective. Instead of just going to YouTube and searching for videos, users, tags, the process is augmented when you log in to YouTube using the content provider account.

When you perform a search - you are provided with a check box next to each result. If the result belongs to Viacom, you click the check box. At the end of the page you then click on SUBMIT, and the CVT will open a small window with the list of checked links. Continue the process until you have reviewed every clip.

When you are ready to take down the list - you can re-review the links or just select all links in the list, and submit. The links will go down within 1-4 hours (during business hours) 12-24 (after business hours) Pacific. YouTube will then email you a report of the links you requested to take down. They do not issue a follow up report on the actual take down. The take down data is not entered into a database that could be used for reporting purposes.

We use this tool for "urgent" take downs only. We need to be able to report on our activities on behalf of the client. Let me know if you want a demonstration - we can set something up to show you how it works.

Subject: YouTube Content Verification Program

Adam,

We would like to take this opportunity to offer access to a new tool that we created solely to assist content owners to locate and notify us of potentially infringing content on YouTube.com.

YouTube's Content Verification Program provides an easy-to-use interface where content owners may request removal of infringing content by simply checking a box. After you have submitted a short, one page form in order to verify your identity, this system automatically provides the proper DMCA notification that we need in order to remove your content. This is the fastest way to ensure removal of content from the site - 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

All a content owner needs to do to participate in the program and gain access to this tool is complete and submit to YouTube a short form that can be found here:

http://youtube.com/t/copyright_program

6/23/2008

Once your application has been submitted, we will follow up by providing you with a tutorial and login information to get you started and on your way!

We are committed to working in cooperation with content owners to keep infringing content off of the YouTube site! Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

Chris

Ps: Adam, this is the tool that I mentioned earlier today. BayTSP has been using it extensively for sometime now. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Hi there Cameron,

I removed both of the videos and one user was a repeat infringer so they were deleted as well. The user that remains is XmBx. We use a technology that should catch future uploads of the exact same videos and not allow them to be uploaded again. If the video does not get edited by the user, it should be recognized and not allowed again.

Thank you, and please let me know if you have any further questions,

Doug,

Yes, YouTube utilizes MD5 algorithm technology. This technology permits us to take a digital "fingerprint" of an infringing video when it is removed from our site. If someone thereafter tries to upload a copy of that video it is automatically rejected regardless of whether the person is using a different user or file name. There are a couple of ways around this, however, if someone else tries to upload a copy that is a little different in length or with different audio it may not be recognized as this same file.

Let me know if you have any more questions on this,

Salleen Browne, Videographer

1 10:15:42 you have created?

2 10:15:42 A. We primarily used an account with

3 10:15:46 the name VH1 staff.

4 10:15:47 Q. Did you create that personally?

5 10:15:49 A. I did.

6 10:15:50 Q. You said you primary used the VH1

7 10:15:53 staff account. What other accounts?

8 10:15:56 A. Prior to that account, one of our

9 10:15:58 interns did use their account to help us with a

10 10:16:01 promotion.

11 10:16:02 Q. And when you say, "The intern

12 10:16:05 used," do you remember if it was a male or a

13 10:16:09 female?

14 10:16:09 A. I don't recall.

15 10:16:10 Q. And when you say the intern used

16 10:16:12 his or her account, meaning a personal account

17 10:16:16 in the intern's own name?

18 10:16:19 A. I don't recall the specifics, but I

19 10:16:21 believe that to be true.

20 10:16:22 Q. Any other YouTube accounts that you

21 10:16:23 have created for VH1?

22 10:16:26 A. No.

23 10:16:28 Q. How about any other YouTube

24 10:16:30 accounts that others working for you or with

25 10:16:34 you have created?

1 10:16:34 A. No, not to my knowledge.

2 10:16:38 Q. Was there ever an account or user

3 10:16:41 name called reaction 2006?

4 10:16:43 A. That's the intern account.

5 10:16:44 Q. That's the intern account?

6 10:16:46 A. Uh-huh.

7 10:16:46 Q. Do you know if there were other

8 10:16:48 intern accounts in personal names?

9 10:16:50 A. I don't know.

10 10:16:56 Q. Do you have a personal YouTube

11 10:16:58 account?

12 10:16:59 A. I do.

13 10:17:00 Q. And what is your user name?

14 10:17:03 A. I don't remember exactly, but it is 15 10:17:05 an iteration of my name.

16 10:17:07 Q. Do you recall when you created

17 10:17:09 that?

18 10:17:10 A. Not specifically, no.

19 10:17:11 Q. Have you ever uploaded videos to 20 10:17:14 your personal account?

21 10:17:14 A. I have.

22 10:17:17 Q. What kind of videos?

23 10:17:19 A. I specifically remember creating it

24 10:17:22 for vacation videos to share with friends and 25 10:17:25 family.

1 10:17:25 Q. Do you recall when you created it?

2 10:17:27 A. I don't recall when I created it.

3 10:17:29 Q. Have you ever uploaded to that --

4 10:17:34 do you recall roughly when you created it?

5 10:17:36 A. I don't.

6 10:17:37 Q. Were you working at VH1?

7 10:17:39 A. I don't recall.

8 10:17:42 Q. Do you recall when the last time

9 10:17:45 you used it?

10 10:17:46 A. That I do recall. It was a year

11 10:17:50 ago in January or February after coming back

12 10:17:53 from a trip to India and posting those videos.

13 10:17:56 Q. Do you know if you've ever posted

14 10:18:00 any Viacom content to your personal account?

15 10:18:03 A. Not that I recall, no. I would

16 10:18:06 have no reason to.

17 10:18:07 Q. Have you posted any material that 18 10:18:12 you did not create yourself to that account?

19 10:18:15 A. No.

20 10:18:20 Q. Now, getting back to the VH1

21 10:18:24 accounts that you mentioned, did you or your

22 10:18:30 staff ever upload videos to those accounts?

23 10:18:34 A. To the VH1 accounts?

24 10:18:36 Q. Yes.

25 10:18:36 A. Yes.

1 11:53:24 Q. And there is no text in the e-mail,
2 11:53:30 there's just the URL -- there is a URL to --
3 11:53:36 YouTube URL, right?

4 11:53:37 A. Yes.

5 11:53:38 Q. I assume this is the -- this would 6 11:53:40 be a link to the Brooke clip that you posted?

7 11:53:43 A. That's right.

8 11:53:45 Q. And if they clicked on this URL and 9 11:53:48 went to the Brooke clip that you posted, they 10 11:53:52 could see how many views it had, as with any 11 11:53:56 YouTube video?

12 11:53:57 A. Sure.

13 11:54:02 Q. Now, in addition to posting content
14 11:54:06 on YouTube, sometimes you were involved in 15 11:54:13 asking YouTube to take material down, correct?

16 11:54:16 A. That's true.

17 11:54:17 Q. And that might be for a variety of 18 11:54:19 reasons, right?

19 11:54:20 A. Sure.

20 11:54:21 Q. Sometimes if it was unauthorized
21 11:54:24 content, right?

22 11:54:26 A. Yes.

23 11:54:26 Q. Sometimes if it was a clip that 24 11:54:33 just for promotional reasons you didn't want up
25 11:54:36 at that time, correct, like with something

1 11:54:38 called the poop scene?

2 11:54:40 A. That was actually, to my

3 11:54:43 recollection, not a promotional clip, that was

4 11:54:47 an unauthorized clip.

5 11:54:49 Q. And you wanted their help in taking

6 11:54:51 that down?

7 11:54:51 A. Uh-huh.

8 11:54:54 Q. Do you remember the names of some

9 11:54:58 of the people who you dealt with at YouTube

10 11:55:01 when you were seeking help -- actually, let me

11 11:55:06 back up. How about when you set up your

12 11:55:08 director's account, do you recall whether you

13 11:55:08 had some direct contact with people at YouTube

14 11:55:11 to help you get set up?

15 11:55:12 A. Absolutely, uh-huh.

16 11:55:13 Q. Do you remember their names?

17 11:55:15 A. There were three people that I

18 11:55:17 communicated with on various levels, Kevin

19 11:55:21 Donohue or Donohue, Taylor Cascino and Heather

20 11:55:27 Gillette.

21 11:55:28 Q. And were Kevin, Taylor and Heather

22 11:55:32 helpful to you?

23 11:55:33 A. Yes.

24 11:55:34 Q. Were they also the people who you

25 11:55:36 would reach out to if sometimes you needed a

1 11:55:38 clip taken down?

2 11:55:39 A. They were the only people I knew,

3 11:55:41 so yes, I asked.

4 11:55:42 Q. Were they helpful in that context

5 11:55:44 also?

17 11:56:47 have the same e-mail, but it has one

18 11:56:52 additional entry, and rather than doing

19 11:56:54 this in two steps, is it possible to 20 11:56:56 switch out that Exhibit 13 and instead use

21 11:57:00 what I'm about to give you as 13? It will

22 11:57:03 save you time. Sorry about that. Let's

23 11:57:06 make this Exhibit 13.

24 11:58:04 (Whereupon Exhibit 13 was 25 11:58:10 remarked.)

1 11:58:10 A. Okay.

2 11:58:13 Q. So here is an e-mail chain between

3 11:58:18 you and some folks at YouTube, correct?

4 11:58:20 A. Yes.

5 11:58:20 Q. And it starts out with you

6 11:58:24 saying -- writing to Heather Gillette saying,

7 11:58:28 "Hi, Heather, I spoke to Kevin this morning

8 11:58:30 about wanting to take down a few posted clips

9 11:58:32 from one of our shows," and then you give him

10 11:58:35 three URL's, correct?

11 11:58:37 A. That's right.

12 11:58:41 Q. And do you remember what these

13 11:58:44 were, as you sit here?

14 11:58:45 A. I don't. I don't specifically

15 11:58:48 know.

16 11:58:48 Q. And then Heather writes back to you

17 11:58:53 a little later the same day saying, "These have 18 11:58:57 been removed, Deborah, thanks," correct?

19 11:59:00 A. Yes.

20 11:59:01 Q. Then you have -- in the top you

21 11:59:03 thank her, but you have an additional request,

22 11:59:05 right?

23 11:59:05 A. Yes.

24 11:59:06 Q. Can you tell us what that

25 11:59:07 additional request was?

1 12:07:57 their attention," you mean to whose attention?

2 12:08:00 A. Bringing the request to remove

3 12:08:03 particular clips to YouTube's attention.

4 12:08:05 Q. I'm sorry, no, you said about the

5 12:08:08 discretion, "I don't remember exactly if that

6 12:08:11 had to do with really not bringing to their

7 12:08:13 attention to the fact that these scenes existed

8 12:08:16 or" --

9 12:08:17 A. About the nature of the content of 10 12:08:18 the scenes.

11 12:08:18 Q. But you're saying, "Their 12 12:08:20 attention." YouTube's attention?

13 12:08:22 A. YouTube's attention.

14 12:08:24 Q. Now, around this time sometime in 15 12:08:28 this day you are sending the e-mail to YouTube

16 12:08:32 asking if they can take VH1 out of the takedown

17 12:08:35 message, correct?

18 12:08:36 A. Yes.

19 12:08:36 Q. And on the second page here, second

20 12:08:41 from the top, Michael Hirschorn sends you a 21 12:08:45 couple of URL's and says, "Here are a couple.

22 12:08:56 If you then look at explore more videos you

23 12:08:58 will see the rest. They are all something poop

24 12:09:00 titles. The introducing something ones

25 12:09:04 obviously are clips you sent out."

1 12:09:06 Did you understand him to mean that
2 12:09:09 clips that said, "Introducing Flavor Flav," or 3 12:09:12 whatever it might be were clips that you, as 4 12:09:17 part of your job, sent out and the poop ones
5 12:09:22 were not?

6 12:09:23 A. Correct.

7 12:09:23 Q. And do you know how a user might 8 12:09:28 know that?

9 12:09:29 MS. CUNHA: Objection to form. It
10 12:09:30 calls for speculation.

11 12:09:32 A. If they were posted to our official 12 12:09:36 account, the account name would identify it as 13 12:09:39 being VH1, and there was various obvious
14 12:09:41 promotional messaging attached to it.

15 12:09:42 Q. Do you know if a user would know
16 12:09:45 whether you were or were not also putting out
17 12:09:49 other videos outside of your account name?

18 12:09:51 MS. CUNHA: Objection to form. It
19 12:09:52 calls for speculation.

20 12:09:53 A. I don't know.

21 12:09:55 Q. Then right on the front page you 22 12:10:02 say to Tony Carbone, you say, "Refreshing the 23 12:10:06 pages, and it looks like they're going to use
24 12:10:09 this instead. They rule." And then you quote,
25 12:10:13 "This video has been removed by the user."

1 12:10:16 Does that refresh your recollection
2 12:10:20 about how this ended up getting resolved?
3 12:10:23 A. The fact that they removed the 4 12:10:25 videos, yes.
5 12:10:26 Q. And that the message didn't say,
6 12:10:30 "By VH1"?
7 12:10:31 A. Sure.
8 12:10:33 Q. And you were happy about that, that 9 12:10:35 they worked with you, you said, "They rule"?
10 12:10:39 A. They were very helpful, yes.
11 12:10:42 Q. Can you think of any instances in 12 12:10:45 which Heather or Kevin or others at YouTube
13 12:10:48 were not helpful to you?
14 12:10:50 A. No, we had a very good
15 12:10:51 relationship.
16 12:10:59 Q. By the way, when Mr. Hirschorn
17 12:11:01 says, "There are people who have uploaded other
18 12:11:04 scenes from episode one, which you might want 19 12:11:06 to let slide, but let's try discretely to get 20 12:11:09 this one off," do you know whether the other
21 12:11:11 scenes from episode one were taken down?
22 12:11:13 A. I don't know for certain. If they 23 12:11:16 provided to me, then the request was made.
24 12:11:21 Q. Do you have any recollection that 25 12:11:22 they were provided to you?

1 12:11:23 A. I don't recall.

2 12:11:49 MR. SCHAPIRO: 15.

3 12:11:49 (Whereupon Exhibit No. 15, E-mail

4 12:11:49 chain Bates number VIA 10405976, was

5 12:12:26 marked for identification.)

6 12:12:26 A. Okay.

7 12:12:29 Q. Here is an instance in which around

8 12:12:33 the same time period a few days later you asked

9 12:12:37 the folks at YouTube to take down some 10 12:12:40 additional clips, correct?

11 12:12:41 A. Correct.

12 12:12:41 Q. And you said to Tony Carbone, "I

13 12:12:46 got to send something to our friends at 14 12:12:48 YouTube. She wrote me back in a flash that 15 12:12:51 they're down already. So great."

16 12:12:53 A. Yes.

17 12:12:53 Q. Was it generally your experience

18 12:12:56 that the folks at YouTube were pretty quick in 19 12:12:58 responding to your requests?

20 12:12:59 A. Definitely, yes.

21 12:13:03 Q. Let's take a look at -- actually,

22 12:13:06 strike that.

23 12:13:16 MR. SCHAPIRO: There is one more

24 12:13:17 along these lines. We will make it

25 12:13:19 Exhibit 16.

1 12:13:19 (Whereupon Exhibit No. 16, E-mail
2 12:13:19 chain Bates number VIA 02088065, was
3 12:14:01 marked for identification.)
4 12:14:01 A. Okay.
5 12:14:06 Q. And you only -- this is an e-mail
6 12:14:09 that was produced to us by Viacom in this 7 12:14:12 litigation, and I think you only appear in --
8 12:14:15 or you only appear in this thread once,
9 12:14:15 correct?
10 12:14:18 A. Apparently, yes.
11 12:14:22 Q. But do you know who Adam Cahan is?
12 12:14:26 A. I don't.
13 12:14:28 Q. Do you know what the e-mail
14 12:14:32 extension MTVN.com stands for?
15 12:14:38 A. MTV Networks.
16 12:14:42 Q. And down at the bottom of this, the 17 12:14:46 first in time e-mail, this person Adam Cahan at 18 12:14:51 MTV Networks is writing to some folks at 19 12:14:54 YouTube, and he says -- and describes this as 20 12:15:00 incredibly urgent and says, "NY student,
21 12:15:04 someone internal at MTV Networks, has released
22 12:15:08 upcoming episodes of our celeb reality Flavor
23 12:15:13 Flav episode." Do you remember when this 24 12:15:15 occurred?
25 12:15:17 A. I don't.

1 12:15:19 Q. Was that an unusual thing for
2 12:15:21 someone internal at MTV Networks to release
3 12:15:26 upcoming episodes of a VH1 show?
4 12:15:29 A. Sure, that was unusual.
5 12:15:31 Q. And celeb reality Flavor Flav was a
6 12:15:34 VH1 show?
7 12:15:36 A. Probably. There is not enough
8 12:15:39 description for me to think otherwise, but I am
9 12:15:41 not sure.
10 12:15:42 Q. One of the people at YouTube who 11 12:15:44 was on this chain is someone named Zahavah
12 12:15:47 Levine. Have you ever heard that name?
13 12:15:49 A. I haven't.
14 12:15:50 Q. She says, "We will take it down 15 12:15:52 right away." And then somehow you end up on 16 12:15:56 this chain.
17 12:15:59 A. I have no idea.
18 12:16:00 Q. Can you think of why someone would 19 12:16:01 have included you on this?
20 12:16:03 A. I don't recognize any of these 21 12:16:04 other names.
22 12:16:06 Q. Well, Tony Carbone is there.
23 12:16:08 A. But not until after the Zahavah
24 12:16:12 e-mail. Perhaps they thought I could help
25 12:16:18 escalate their request. I don't know.

1 12:16:20 Q. So you sent an FYI?

2 12:16:23 A. Yes.

3 12:16:23 Q. To all the people listed here,
4 12:16:26 including Tina Imm, Jeff Olde, Tony Carbone,
5 12:16:30 saying, "FYI, folks, it looks like the video 6 12:16:33 has been officially removed."

7 12:16:35 A. Yes.

8 12:16:35 Q. And then Adam Cahan sent something 9 12:16:38 to YouTube saying, "Really appreciate the 10 12:16:41 speedy action here. Goes a long way with our 11 12:16:42 programmers. Owe you one." Smiley. Is that 12 12:16:45 consistent with your experience with YouTube?

13 12:16:47 A. Yes.

14 12:16:48 Q. And is this an instance where 15 12:16:56 apparently someone internally put up some 16 12:16:59 Viacom material that shouldn't have gone out?

17 12:17:06 A. Just by reading this e-mail, it 18 12:17:08 seems to be that way, but I wasn't aware of who 19 12:17:11 that person was or the situation.

20 12:17:13 Q. Now, just because a video had some 21 12:17:55 of the promotional elements that you described,
22 12:17:57 like a call to tune in, that doesn't mean that 23 12:18:02 the clip itself is authorized to be on YouTube,
24 12:18:04 does it?

25 12:18:05 A. Not necessarily.

1 12:18:39 MR. SCHAPIRO: Exhibit 17.

2 12:18:39 (Whereupon Exhibit No. 17, E-mail

3 12:18:39 chain Bates number VIA 10405260, was

4 12:18:42 marked for identification.)

5 12:18:42 Q. This is an e-mail chain. It is

6 12:18:48 ultimately between you and Sonia Ocasio. I

7 12:18:52 will give you a minute to read it.

8 12:18:54 A. Okay. Okay.

9 12:19:19 Q. And the second from the top

10 12:19:25 Ms. Ocasio, am I pronouncing that right?

11 12:19:28 A. Yes.

12 12:19:28 Q. Asks you, "Who do you think is,"

13 12:19:30 and then there is a URL for what seems to be a

14 12:19:34 YouTube user PJoseph73. It says, "Who do you

15 12:19:38 think is PJoseph73? He puts up all of our VH1

16 12:19:43 promos. And you answer, "Good question. I

17 12:19:45 have no idea." As you sit here today, do you

18 12:19:50 have any idea who PJoseph73 is?

19 12:19:53 A. I don't.

20 12:19:54 Q. If you wanted to find out whether

21 12:19:56 PJoseph73 had authority to put up those promos

22 12:20:00 or not, what would you do?

23 12:20:06 MS. CUNHA: Objection to form.

24 12:20:12 A. I've never gone through that

25 12:20:14 process, so I don't know.

hey guys, thanks so much for the quick turnaround. we're wondering if the message about the video being removed could be edited? We really just wanted to ask if "VH1" could be edited out, so that it just reads:

This video has been removed at the request of copyright owner because its content was used without permission

Just trying to be sensitive to internal concerns...

thanks,

Hey hey - we got ryan pulling add'l links now.

The almost-notorious tampon scene nearly just snuck thru at part of vspot's 202 aftershow, but it's been removed from Sunday nite's lineup as well.

Good news, they do have a process in place for removal of videos, and do it all the time. Since nobody has the right to post content that they didn't produce, it's an easy message/action to take.

Our contacts just need the individual links to the videos we'd like to block. I'm happy to facilitate the communication, but would appreciate it if someone has the bandwidth to identify all the videos and send them to me as youtube links. Let me know if this is reasonable?

Thanks much,
deb

Not sure...they may turn a blind eye? My first step will be to ask if they have a process in place before taking action. I'll let you know how that goes...

Also keep in mind, I imagine we'll either need to identify all the videos we want flagged or set up a qualifying description for youtube to follow.

I'll keep you posted. Should know lots more tomorrow.

110k streams just for today and climbing. 64% of vspot traffic. Our low threshold for hit is about 100k per WEEK for episodic franchises, so this is very strong, but not on pace to break any records.

Post finale last year, FOL did about 750 on Monday and 2M for the week.

Subject: FOL2 Stair/Floor Scene - VSPOT "Director's Cut"

Keeping the same dis list we had going into the weekend re FOL premiere, sorry if I'm spamming, just let me know and I can remove you from the thread...

Don't know where Tina left this with you all, but I believe she said we wanted to keep an eye on press, etc. for a couple days before making a decision on this one way or another.

We had 51M cut a VSPOT extra "Director's Cut" of the scene in question. Link below. You'll need a PC to view it. If you need, I can get you a VHS, just let me know location. The scene is similar to the first edit (that I saw) of the show.
