if you love this song...check out the cd "sinatra and strings"...it is one of the best sinatra recordings ever...don costa did a killer arrangement and sinatra gave as emotional and touching vocal performance as he ever has...it is the definitive version of this song and i hope the writer was alive to have heard it.

pinkieldred (1 year ago)

As usuall Sinatra compliments this song as he did so many many others.He always used the best orchestras and arrangements...he was a true master of song and voice control!

Pada91. His lifetime is over but his music lives on and yes title still applies. Herbie Hancock,Dick Hyman, O Peterson, Hank Jones, Marion Macpartand, Billy Taylor and all other great Jazz Pianist agree...he was the greatest...period!

mharbaugh (1 year ago)

He drank about a barrel of Pabst Blue Ribbon a day. Any one who drinks that ghetto swill couldn't possibly live a long life. Fortunately, his music will live on forever. Even Charlie Parker believed Tatum to be the true father of bebop.

The greatest jazz pianist for sure, the greatest pianist period? hmmm
