Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e) (Effective 12/1/07)

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) Contempt. The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

Subject: RE: Viacom v. YouTube: Amended MPAA Subpoena

Kelly --

In response to YouTube's deposition subpoena, the MPAA initially refused to provide a witness at all based on, among others, relevance objections, and threatened a motion to quash. I noted that the MPAA would surely not prevail if it took that extreme position.

We then engaged in negotiations, but YouTube never agreed that topics would be "dropped" or "narrowed." For a number of topics, the MPAA refused to put up a witness on the topics as drafted. We were able to come to an agreement regarding a protocol under which the deposition would proceed without the parties engaging in motion practice notwithstanding the MPAA's (in our view, unjustifiable) refusal to seat a witness. For other topics, I clarified my understanding of the language of the topic and we were able to agree that the parties did not have a dispute.

Here is my understanding of our agreements:

1. This topic was drafted, and always intended to cover, high-level, foundational information about the MPAA. The MPAA will provide testimony accordingly.
2. This topic was drafted, and always intended to cover, high-level, foundational information about Viacom's relationship with the MPAA. The MPAA will provide testimony accordingly.
3. This topic was drafted, and always intended to cover, high-level, foundational information about the Class Plaintiffs' relationship with the MPAA. The MPAA will provide testimony accordingly.
4. It is the case that YouTube and the MPAA disagree about whether the MPAA should have to produce a witness to testify regarding this topic. YouTube maintains its position that the MPAA's refusal to produce discovery called for by this topic is not justified and will have collateral consequences in the main litigation.
5. We have no dispute about this topic.
6. As part of our negotiation regarding Topic No. 7, YouTube has agreed to forego seeking testimony on this topic.
7. You have accurately summarized our agreement on Topic No. 7.
8. Your summary of our agreement on Topic No. 8 is inaccurate. We did not, to my recollection, discuss multi-entity communications. If the communications at issue between the MPAA and Viacom are not privileged in the first place, the MPAA needs to be prepared to testify without restriction. If the communications between the MPAA and Viacom included other entities (and are, in your view, putatively privileged), the MPAA witness should be prepared to testify consistently with the August 25, 2009 stipulation and order in the SDNY.
9. This topic is limited to authentication of documents based on your representation that individuals with percipient knowledge of the topic are no longer employed by the MPAA.

10. This topic is limited to authentication of documents based on your representation that individuals with percipient knowledge of the topic are no longer employed by the MPAA.

11. See Topic No. 4 above.

12. See Topic No. 4 above.

Please send along this evening the names of the people from the MPAA who will be attending the deposition tomorrow.

Subject: RE: Viacom v. YouTube: Amended MPAA Subpoena

Bart:

The amended subpoena continues to state the topics set forth in your November 20, 2009 subpoena that MPAA objected to as overly broad, burdensome and invasive of privilege. You and I agreed in early December that the topics would be narrowed and/or dropped as follows (with the numbers below corresponding to the topic paragraph numbers in the subpoena attachment):

1. MPAA's witness will be prepared to provide a very high-level description of non-privileged information concerning the MPAA's purpose and will identify MPAA's members. You said you expected this topic, as narrowed, would be very high-level, foundational information that would not take up more than a few minutes of the deposition.
2. MPAA's witness will be prepared to provide non-privileged information regarding that Paramount is a member of the MPAA; that Viacom is Paramount's corporate parent; and that MPAA performs anti-piracy work on their behalf.
3. MPAA's witness will be prepared to testify to non-privileged information regarding MPAA's lack of a relationship with any of the named class plaintiffs that is akin to MPAA's relationship with its member companies.
4. YouTube and MPAA disagree whether MPAA should have to produce a witness to testify regarding this topic. Without either side waiving their respective positions concerning this disagreement, MPAA will not be producing a witness to testify on this topic, and YouTube will not be filing a motion or seeking any relief of any kind concerning this topic.
5. MPAA's witness will be prepared to testify to non-privileged, responsive information, if any, that is reasonably available to MPAA on this topic.

6. YouTube is dropping this topic.

7. MPAA's witness will be prepared to testify to non-privileged information, if any, about the following, to the extent that such information is reasonably available to the MPAA: (a) what fingerprinting or filtering technologies MPAA was aware had been deployed at UGC sites between February 14, 2005 and March 13, 2007; (b) which UGC sites MPAA was aware were using such technologies during that time; and (c) MPAA's high-level understanding, if any, at that time about the general efficacy of those technologies as deployed.

8. MPAA's witness will be prepared to testify to non-privileged information, if any, concerning communications with Viacom and Paramount only (i.e., not MPAA's communications with any other entity, including any multi-entity communications including Viacom and/or Paramount) regarding those matters within the scope of the August 25, 2009 Stipulation and Order Regarding Viacom's Copyright Monitoring Privilege Assertions in the Southern District of New York action.

9. MPAA's witness will be prepared only to authenticate any documents produced by MPAA within the scope of this topic, but there will be no questioning (and MPAA's witness will not be prepared to respond) regarding the substance of this topic.

10. MPAA's witness will be prepared only to authenticate any documents produced by MPAA within the scope of this topic, but there will be no questioning (and MPAA's witness will not be prepared to respond) regarding the substance of this topic.

11. YouTube and MPAA are proceeding on this topic as they are on Topic No. 4, as stated above.

12. YouTube and MPAA are proceeding on this topic as they are on Topic No. 4, as stated above.

13. YouTube and MPAA are proceeding on this topic as they are on Topic No. 4, as stated above.

14. MPAA's witness will be prepared only to authenticate any documents produced by MPAA within the scope of this topic, but there will be no questioning (and MPAA's witness will not be prepared to respond) regarding the substance of this topic.

15. YouTube and MPAA are proceeding on this topic as they are on Topic No. 4, as stated above.

16. MPAA's witness will be prepared to testify to non-privileged information, if any, reasonably available to MPAA, regarding the "Movies Everywhere" site on YouTube (<http://www.youtube.com/movieseverywhere>) and the single video posted to that site.

I will get you the names for MPAA's visitors for building security before the deposition. I will convey to Viacom's counsel your request that they get you the names they need for building security.

TIPTON

2 stealth marketing campaigns, what kind of 3 marketing campaigns would you work on for 4 those?

5 10:14:18 A. There are a lot of elements. We
6 would try to maximize publicity by doing
7 exclusive clips, by setting up interviews
8 with the stars of the film, by 9 distributing the standard film assets,
10 10:14:33 including the elements on the EPK,
11 electronic press kit.

12 Q. And what would generally be
13 included in an electronic press kit?

14 A. There are often five to 10 clips
15 10:15:07 from the film, the trailer and interviews
16 from the junket. It's a press junket.

17 Q. Are you familiar with the phrase
18 "seeding," as in seeding a clip online,
19 S-E-E-D?

20 10:15:37 A. It was used, yes.

21 Q. What does seeding mean?

22 A. I think it varied sometimes, but
23 usually it just meant posting.

24 Q. Can you give me some examples of 25 10:15:56 the different websites where Paramount

1 TIPTON

2 would post clips, as part of its online
3 marketing?

4 A. We -- do you mean where we
5 10:16:08 personally would post clips or where we
6 would work with someone to have them post
7 a clip?

8 Q. Let's start with where Paramount
9 would itself post clips?

10 10:16:18 A. We posted on YouTube, Vimeo, we 11 worked with break.com, Vidilife, sometimes
12 Google Video, and a number of other
13 websites for video.

14 Q. And were there additional or 15 10:16:45 different websites where third parties
16 would post -- would post video clips
17 online, on Paramount's behalf?

18 A. Yes. We worked with a number of 19 websites.

20 10:16:54 Q. And what websites were those?

21 A. They included Yahoo movies, AOL
22 moviephone, iFilm, Movie Web,
23 Hollywood.com and a number of others.

24 Q. In your position as coordinator
25 10:17:20 of online publicity, who did you report to?

A. Primarily Amy Powell.

Q. When you say "Primarily," was 10:17:26 there someone else that you secondarily reported to?

A. I dotted line reported to Sarah
Bordo for part of the time I worked there.

Q. What was Amy Powell's position?

10:17:42 A. She was the SVP of online
marketing.

Q. What was Sarah Bordo's position?

A. She was the director of online media. I think she may have been promoted
10:17:59 to VP right before I left.

Q. Was there a particular group that you considered yourself to be working in, when you were coordinator of online publicity?

10:18:14 A. Yes. I was in the online
marketing group.

Q. Is that different from the online media group?

A. No. That was within the online
10:18:24 marketing group.

1 TIPTON

2 names on the cc line.

3 Do you see that?

4 A. Yes.

5 10:41:45 Q. Could you tell me, to the extent
6 you remember, who each of those people
7 are, other than yourself and Sarah Bordo,
8 who you've already mentioned?

9 A. Brian Moerman, Megan Wahtera and 10 10:41:58 Mickie Worsnup were all producers of the 11 websites for films.

12 Q. What does that mean, producers
13 of websites?

14 A. They would oversee the 15 10:42:07 production of a film website and all the 16 assets within it, so we worked with them
17 closely on the assets available for 18 online.

19 Q. So when you say a film website,
20 10:42:22 you mean an official website put up by 21 Paramount to promote the film?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. And then there's a Powerpoint
24 presentation attached to the e-mail.

25 10:42:41 Do you see that?

1 TIPTON

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Did you assist in putting
4 together this Powerpoint presentation?

5 10:42:47 A. Yes, I believe so.

6 Q. So the e-mail to Amy Powell
7 starts out, "Kristina and I have reviewed
8 your list of video sites and have looked 9 into some others as well. Here are our
10 10:43:14 suggestions for incorporating these sites
11 into our marketing campaign."

12 Do you see that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Do you recall that looking into 15 10:43:21 the video sites and making suggestions was 16 something that you participated in?

17 A. I believe so, yes.

18 Q. And then the sort of second 19 point down after that starts out, "We 20 10:43:35 recommend YouTube, Vimeo," V-I-M-E-O, "and 21 Vidilife," V-I-D-I-L-I-F-E, "as sites to 22 post our content for viral distribution."

23 Do you see that?

24 A. Yes.

25 10:43:52 Q. Do you recall that YouTube was

2 one of the sites that you and Megan
3 recommended to post content for viral
4 distribution?

5 10:43:59 A. Yes.

6 Q. Why was that?

7 A. Because we felt that there was 8 strong potential -- there was a large
9 audience on YouTube, and we felt there was 10 10:44:10 strong potential for users to want to pass
11 video along on YouTube.

12 Q. Then if you look a couple points
13 down below that, there is a point that 14 says, "Whenever possible, tagging our
15 10:44:39 content with related phrases to capture
16 search audiences."

17 Do you see that?

18 A. Uh-hum.

19 Q. Is that something that
20 10:44:47 Paramount's interactive marketing team
21 eventually did, with respect to videos
22 that it posted to YouTube?

23 A. I don't recall.

24 Q. And then the last point that is
25 10:45:07 set off with dashes in the e-mail

1 TIPTON

2 references the NBC YouTube disaster. Sort
3 of in the last sentence before "Attached
4 you can also find," do you see that?

5 10:45:24 A. Yes.

6 Q. Do you recall what the NBC
7 YouTube disaster was that's being referred 8 to here?

9 A. It was the Lazy Sunday video
10 10:45:32 being taken down from the site and 11 eliciting negative comments and feedback
12 from users.

13 Q. And in that same point it says,
14 "Once we have distributed content, we need
15 10:45:52 to continue free access from the source."

16 Do you see that part?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you have an understanding of 19 what that means?

20 10:46:00 A. I believe it means that we 21 needed to make sure that we were putting
22 up clips and such that have been approved
23 for online use or -- and that we wouldn't 24 have to take down.

Q. So does this mean that Scott Hurwitz had uploaded to YouTube the Nacho confessional trailer at the URL that's listed here?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Did you understand that beyond the Nacho confessional trailer, there were other videos that Paramount wanted Mr. Hurwitz to upload to YouTube at this time?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Do you know what user name, if any, Iced Media would use to upload videos to YouTube?

A. I know they posted under That's Funny.

Q. Do you know of any other user names that Iced Media used to post Paramount videos to YouTube?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Are you aware whether there were additional user names that Iced Media used to post videos to YouTube, or you just can't recall what they were, or do you

1 TIPTON

2 have an understanding as to whether there
3 was only that one user name called That's 4 Funny?

5 10:52:24 MS. CUNHA: Objection to form.

6 You can answer.

7 A. I believe there's at least one
8 other, but I think they tried to use the 9 form That's Funny with That's Funny 2 or 10 10:52:42 something like that.

17 Exhibit 6?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Can you identify Exhibit 6?

20 10:53:46 A. It appears to be an e-mail
21 between Amy Powell, Brian Moerman and
22 myself about a clip for Mission Impossible
23 3.

24 Q. And in the e-mail Ms. Powell
25 10:54:00 says, "This is great. Can you get on

2 YouTube, et cetera?"

3 Do you see that?

4 A. Yes.

5 10:54:04 Q. Did you understand that to mean
6 that Ms. Powell wanted the clip that's 7 referenced in the below e-mail to be
8 uploaded to YouTube?

9 A. Yes.

10 10:54:11 Q. Do you know whether it
11 eventually was?

12 A. I don't recall.

13 Q. Did Ms. Powell ever explain to 14 you why she wanted the clip uploaded to 15 10:54:24 YouTube, as well as other sites?

16 A. No.

17 MS. CUNHA: Objection to form.

18 MS. REES: Exhibit 7.

A. Appears to be an e-mail chain with Amy Powell and other members of our interactive team, regarding a video Jon Favreau made and posted to YouTube.

Q. Your e-mail in the center of the page to Ms. Tipton asks "Hi" -- your e-mail in the center of the page to Ms. Powell and others asks, "Hi, Amy, will we be posting this on other video sites as well or just having people drive to YouTube to view?"

And then the response above that from Ms. Powell is, "Drive to YouTube."

Do you see that?

A. Yes.

Q. What's your understanding, if any, of what "drive to YouTube" means in that context?

A. I don't really recall.

Q. As a general matter, why was it useful to have Paramount clips on YouTube?

MS. CUNHA: Objection to form.

A. Can you rephrase the question, please.

Q. Is there some part of it that's not clear or?

The question was, as a general matter, why was it useful to have Paramount clips on YouTube?

MS. CUNHA: Same objection.

A. YouTube had an audience of users that we wanted to reach with our film content.

Q. And how did that help market a film, if it did?

A. Because we would select content that we felt was right for the audience and would drive box office.

Q. And by "drive box office," you mean increase the amount of money, of sales of tickets at the box office for a

1 TIPTON

2 particular film, right?

3 A. Yes. That was the hope.

4 MS. REES: Exhibit 8.

5 10:59:04 (Tipton Exhibit 8, e-mail chain

7 Donahue at YouTube, marked for
8 identification, as of this date.)

9 (Witness reviews document.)

10 10:59:53 Q. Have you had a chance to review
11 Exhibit 8?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Can you identify Exhibit 8?

14 A. It was an e-mail chain between 15 11:00:01 myself and Kevin Donahue at YouTube and 16 cc'ing other members of the interactive
17 team.

18 Q. Who was Kevin Donahue at 19 YouTube, if you recall?

20 11:00:12 A. I don't recall his title, but he 21 was a contact there who helped us set up
22 our Paramount Pictures account on YouTube.

23 Q. Okay. So your e-mail on page,
24 the first page of this exhibit starts out,

25 11:00:37 "Hi, Kevin, I finally got around to

1 TIPTON

2 setting up an account. My user name and 3 password are below." And then for the 4 user name below, it lists Paraccount,

5 11:00:54 P-A-R-A-C-C-O-U-N-T?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So is it correct that you signed
8 up for the Paraccount account on YouTube?

9 A. Yes.

10 11:01:05 Q. How did you go about doing that?
11 Did you set it up online?

12 A. Yes. There was a specific URL
13 that Kevin had provided me for a special
14 director account.

15 11:01:17 Q. When you signed up online, did
16 you have to agree in some fashion to 17 YouTube's terms of service?

18 A. I don't recall.

19 Q. Did you personally ever upload
20 11:01:42 videos to YouTube under the Paraccount
21 user name?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Do you recall how many?

24 A. No.

25 11:01:47 Q. Was it more than 10?

1 TIPTON

2 A. Probably.

3 Q. More than a hundred?

4 A. Probably not.

5 11:01:55 Q. Can you recall what any of the 6 videos were that you uploaded, under the 7 user name Paraccount on YouTube?

8 A. Not specifically, no.

9 Q. Do you remember any of the 10 11:02:12 movies that the videos that you uploaded
11 to the Paraccount account on YouTube were 12 associated with?

13 A. Not specifically.

14 Q. Other than yourself, did other
15 11:02:26 people in Paramount's interactive
16 marketing group upload videos to YouTube,
17 under the Paraccount user name?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Who else besides you?

20 11:02:37 A. I remember Kyle Ninicci did. I
21 don't remember any others besides that.

22 Q. The second page of the e-mail at 23 the very bottom references a meeting
24 between you and Kevin Donahue.

25 11:02:59 Do you recall having a meeting with Kevin Donahue?

TIPTON

A. I recall meeting him.

Q. Do you recall what was discussed
11:03:05 during that meeting?

A. No.

Q. In the e-mail above that, where Kevin Donahue replies, he says, "We can then follow up with more specific 11:03:19 discussions re promotional plans and specific content."

Do you see that?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall whether you ever
11:03:26 had additional discussions with Kevin about promotional plans and specific content?

A. Yes. We did speak about
specific content.

Q. What discussions did you have 11:03:37 with him about that?

A. I don't recall.

Q. Prior to the establishment of this Paraccount account in June of 2006 or 11:04:12 in or about May or June of 2006, Paramount

1 TIPTON

2 the first page is for Bee Movie?

3 A. Yes, I believe it was for Bee
4 Movie.

5 01:49:51 Q. In the e-mail you say, "Perhaps
6 we can give AOL the official exclusive,
7 but help seed the teaser unofficially on 8 viral video sites."

9 Do you see that?

10 01:50:03 A. Yes.

11 Q. And what do you mean by "seed
12 the teaser unofficially on viral video
13 sites"?

14 A. I don't recall in this 15 01:50:14 particular case. I can glean that we were 16 posting the video on video sites.

17 MS. REES: Exhibit 28.

18 (Tipton Exhibit 28, e-mail
19 regarding the Freedom Writers
20 01:52:54 proposal from Iced Media, marked for 21 identification, as of this date.)

22 (Witness reviews document.)

23 Q. Can you identify Exhibit 28?

24 A. Yes. It's an e-mail from myself
25 01:52:47 to Amy Powell, Megan Wahtera, Stephanie

2 Simard, Sara Bordo and Kristina Griswold
3 about the Freedom Writers proposal from 4 Iced Media.

5 01:52:56 Q. And the proposal relates to the 6 Be Heard campaign?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What was the Be Heard campaign?

9 A. Be Heard campaign primarily took 10 01:53:12 place on YouTube, and it was a hub of 11 videos that were specially produced for 12 this YouTube.com\Be Heard that were a
13 little more youthful and gritty than the 14 rest of the film assets.

15 01:53:35 Q. Who produced the videos that you
16 just mentioned that were specially
17 produced?

18 A. Megan Wahtera and Stephanie 19 Simard oversaw a team that did the 20 01:53:52 editing, but I don't remember. It was an 21 outside editing, video editing company.

22 Q. Were the videos that were 23 specially produced, were they created by 24 Paramount?

25 01:54:13 A. Yes, I would say they were.

1 TIPTON

2 Q. What types of content was in the
3 videos that were specially produced?

4 A. Well, we had a few of the stars
5 01:54:21 from the film do interviews or do -- not 6 interviews so much, sort of almost
7 confessionals about their life.

8 Mario was one of them. He just 9 talked about his background, and like we
10 01:54:42 edited it in with some of the film music
11 and possibly some shots from the film.
12 But we tried to make it a little, like
13 feel more like something that they had 14 made themselves, the stars.

15 01:55:06 Q. And was Iced Media ultimately
16 engaged to assist in the Be Heard
17 campaign?

18 A. You know, I don't recall.

19 Q. In the middle of the first page
20 01:55:38 of Exhibit 28, which looks to be -- it's 21 underneath an e-mail and looks to be taken
22 from Iced Media's proposal.

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And in the first paragraph,
25 01:55:51 second sentence, it says, "First, we will

1 TIPTON

2 execute an extensive viral video campaign
3 using the key featurettes and other video
4 materials to drive to the YouTube
5 01:56:03 campaign."

6 Do you see that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Was that something that was
9 ultimately done, was there a viral video
10 01:56:08 campaign to drive to the YouTube campaign?

11 A. I don't recall if there was -- I
12 don't entirely recall what this viral
13 video campaign entailed, but the YouTube
14 campaign, the Be Heard, was a major
15 01:56:29 centerpiece of this online film campaign,
16 including the media buy and everything.

20 01:58:04 Freedom Writers YouTube campaign,
21 marked for identification, as of 22 this date.)

23 (Witness reviews document.)

24 Q. Can you identify Exhibit 29?

25 01:57:52 A. It's an e-mail thread between

Amy Powell, myself, Megan Wahtera,
Stephanie Simard and Sara Bordo, regarding the Be Heard Freedom Writers YouTube
01:58:06 campaign.

Q. On the second page of the exhibit, that ends in 322 in the numbering in the lower right-hand corner, it starts with an e-mail from Amy Powell, saying, "I 01:58:20 am assuming we have the LAPD videos linking to ours and on our profile."

Do you see that?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you have an understanding as 01:58:29 to what's being referred to there as the LAPD videos?

A. No.

Q. And in the e-mail that's above that from you, it says, "Yes, we have the 01:58:45 LAPD video on our group, and I'll leave a post in the comments for the LAPD video, linking it back to our group."

Does that refresh your recollection at all as to what the LAPD
01:58:58 video was?

1 TIPTON

2 of that video was?

3 A. I believe it was a viral video
4 that Bacardi made. I'm not positive about 5 04:07:07 that.

6 Q. Upon watching that video, did
7 you come to any conclusions about whether 8 that video was authorized or not
9 authorized to be on YouTube?

10 04:07:21 A. I believe I had actually read
11 about it in the Wall Street Journal,
12 before I had seen the video, so I already
13 knew that it had been authorized.

14 Q. When you say that you "knew it
15 04:07:32 had been authorized," is that because the 16 Wall Street Journal article had mentioned
17 that it was?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Had you seen the video before
20 04:07:43 this person sent it to you?

21 A. I don't believe so.

22 Q. Are you familiar with a YouTube
23 user name called Dreamworks fan site?

24 A. I don't recall it.

25 04:07:57 Q. Do you know if that was a user

TIPTON

2 name that Paramount used to upload videos
3 to YouTube?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 04:08:05 Q. When you were working in 6 Paramount interactive marketing, as of the 7 time you left Paramount, what kind of 8 computer were you using?

9 I don't mean like, you know, the 10 04:08:22 model number or anything. I mean was it a
11 laptop, a desktop?

12 A. It was a desktop PC.

13 Q. Did you ever work from home on a
14 different computer?

15 04:08:33 A. Maybe once or twice while I was 16 sick, but it was --

17 Q. Did you have remote access to 18 your work materials at Paramount from 19 home?

20 04:08:42 A. I was able to access e-mail, but 21 not shared drive materials.

22 Q. How much e-mail did you receive,
23 generally speaking, when you were working
24 at Paramount?

25 04:09:04 A. A lot. It was probably in the

1 TIPTON

2 order of a couple hundred e-mails a today.

3 Q. Again, on a very general level,
4 approximately how much e-mail would you
5 04:09:17 say that you sent while you were working
6 at Paramount?

7 A. Probably -- I think I looked at 8 it once. I think I sent about 20,000
9 e-mails over the three years that I was
10 04:09:30 there.

11 Q. Did you have a BlackBerry or any
12 type of remote e-mail device?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Other than your official
15 04:09:39 Paramount e-mail address, did you have any 16 other e-mail addresses that you used for 17 work purposes?

18 A. No.

19 Q. When you left Paramount, what
20 04:09:49 did you do with your computer?

21 Did you just leave it sitting
22 there?

23 A. Yes. It was Paramount property.

24 Q. You didn't take it with you?

25 04:09:57 A. No.

1 TIPTON

2 Q. Do you have any knowledge about
3 what happened to it after you left?

4 A. No idea.

5 04:10:06 Q. Did you have to like physically
6 turn it in to someone, or did you just
7 leave it on your desk?

8 A. I just left it on my desk.

9 Q. Before leaving Paramount, did
10 04:10:16 you delete any of your e-mails?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Did you delete any other types
13 of documents?

14 A. No.

15 04:10:24 Q. When you were working at 16 Paramount, did you ever take handwritten
17 notes, like in a notebook?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Did you leave the notebook at
20 04:10:33 Paramount?

21 A. Probably, yes.

22 Q. When you left Paramount, did you
23 take any documents with you, like hard
24 copy printouts, anything like that?

25 04:10:48 A. No.

Q. Did you use instant messaging when you were at Paramount?

A. Yes.

04:10:52 Q. What IM client did you use?

A. AIM.

Q. What was your screen name?

A. [REDACTED]. N, as in Nicole.

Q. Did you use the IP account for IM'ing with people at work about work-related issues?

A. Yes.

Q. Did your IM client save all your IM's? Like at some point, if you wanted to look and see what you said in an IM earlier, were you able to go back and do that?

04:11:24 A. I don't think mine was set to do that.

Q. Before you left Paramount, were you ever told that you had an obligation to preserve documents relating to this lawsuit?

A. No.

04:11:39 Q. What was your general practice

1 TIPTON

2 with regard to deleting e-mails, when you
3 were working at Paramount?

4 A. Can you be more specific?

5 04:11:58 Q. Sure. Like are you someone who 6 keeps every single e-mail you ever sent or 7 received? Are you someone who never has 8 more than three e-mails in your in box,
9 and you delete everything else?

10 04:12:10 Can you characterize your
11 deletion practices?

12 A. I'm a filer. I usually file
13 almost everything. Sometimes, if there
14 was many e-mails in a strand, I would just 15 04:12:20 keep the most recent, something like that.
16 But for the most part, I'm a keeper.

17 Q. Was there a way, when you were 18 working at Paramount, of searching through 19 your e-mails? Like if you had to find an 20 04:12:31 old e-mail, would you just use -- did you
21 have Outlook or was it a different e-mail
22 client?

23 A. We had a different e-mail client
24 when I started there, but we switched to 25 04:12:40 Outlook. So it was Outlook by the end.
