Not sure you guys were aware, but the first FOX PBR broadcast was this past Sunday, the next one is 10/1 and the last scheduled one is 10/24. In the call Brigitte and I had with Boyd at PBR today re: getting music streamed on their website, he hinted that there may be more Fox broadcasts in the offing, that haven't been confirmed yet.

As to the website, the plan is to mention the music on the home page, with a link to a separate page where people can stream the music; there will also be a brief blurb on Cherry Bull music. We plan to include the Travis Tritt theme, MOVE, and a couple of Dugi songs. Boyd has also offered a link from that page to our website for people to learn more about Cherry Lane. In addition Cherry Bull will have a place on the PBR sponsor page on their website.

We'll be getting all the materials over to PBR this week.

I have two e-mails into Sean re: Travis Tritt at the Garden, but he's been traveling a lot.
